CHICAGO'S NEW CHARTER.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The fate of the constitutional amendment authorizing a new charter for the city of Chicago is in doubt. It received a large majority in Chicago, but apparently thousands of persons failed to vote one way or the other. In the State the vote cast was affirmative; that is, the percentage of the total vote was in favor of the amendment; 15 per cent. negative, and 33 per cent. of the voters failed to do anything. The total vote in the State for the charter amendment must, to be effective, be equal to a majority of all the votes cast tial candidate.

TOM TAGGART'S HOME COUNTY.

The President Leads by the Unprecedented Majority of Thirteen Thousand.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—A telegram from Marion county, Indiana, Taggart's home county, declares Roosevelt led by 13,000, an unprecedented thing, as the largest previous Republican majority was that cast for McKinley in 1900, 7000.

AMERICANS GLORY IN HIM.

Unprecedented Electoral Vote Given to the President Clearly Points to Emphatic Indorsement of Republican Policies and Principles.

Speaker Cannon is Backed by a Probable Majority of 100 In Lower House.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Theodore Roosevelt's election by a majority in the electoral college in excess of Maj. McKinley's, leaves him complete master of the political situation. The new Republican Congress, with a working majority of approximately 100, largely owes its election to the far-reaching personal popularity of the President. The election is such an emphatic indorsement of the Chief Executive and his policies that Congress will feel that it should assist in carrying them out to the letter.

The President's patriotic announcement that he regards the term upon which he will enter March 4 as his second term, and that under no circumstances will he accept a renomination, has removed him from any possible political complications. Throughout his first term he was hampered by the action of some members of his own party. The election has swept this opposition aside, and the President will enter upon his second term under obligations to no State bosses and to no special industrial or financial interests. No President has been so entirely free, for none has ever received such an emphatic and overwhelming endorsement.

MOST REMARKABLE TRIBUTE

Second in importance, perhaps, to the indorsement of the President's personality and policies, is the repudiation by the Democratic voters of the influences which dominated the St. Louis convention. Belmont, Hill, Sheehan and Nicolls and the Wall-street crowd which attempted to embarrass the President, have been overthrown in the Democratic camp. It is altogether the most remarkable tribute to a President that the country has ever presented.

It shows, too, that the people have learned to use the Australian ballot intelligently. The voters know how to scratch. They know as well how to make their individual preferences felt in Idaho and Washington as in Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

The election of a Republican Congress means the re-election of Speaker Cannon. "Uncle Joe" and the President have become great chums. Cannon has learned to like the President and the President has always liked Cannon.

On the Senate side, the so-called anti-Roosevelt cabal is smashed to smithereens. All that is left of it will have to be "good" to save itself from humiliation in Washington and, above all, repudiation by the people at home.

NEW YORK PLURALITY 174,691.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—According to revised returns of the vote of the State, Roosevelt's plurality over Parker is 174,691, and that of Higgins for Governor over Herrick is 76,822.

THAT "SOLID SOUTH."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] These are the Parker States and their electoral votes: Alabama 11, Arkansas 9, Florida 5, Georgia 13, Kentucky 13, Louisiana 9, Mississippi 10, North Carolina 12, South Carolina 9, Tennessee 12, Texas 18, Virginia 12; total 133.

SHOWING AS TO CONGRESS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Republicans will have 246 members in the lower branch of the Fifty-Ninth Congress. The Senate stands: Republicans 55; Democrats 32, and 3 doubtful.

Revised returns show that the Republicans have carried Missouri, as well as Maryland, Nevada and Montana, and they will have a majority on joint ballot of two votes in the Missouri Legislature.

In Nebraska the Fusionists were completely overwhelmed. Of the 133 members of the next Nebraska Legislature, Bryan will have only ten votes, thus insuring the election of Elmer K. Burkett as the successor of Charles H. Dietrich in the United States Senate. If the late returns on the Missouri Legislature are sustained, Senator Francis M. Cockrell will lose his seat in the United States Senate and will be succeeded by a Republican.

Ohio will send a solid delegation to the Fifty-ninth Congress, and the Democrats will have only two Congressmen each in Illinois and Indiana. It was reported today that not a Democratic Congressman had been elected in Illinois, but the better opinion seems to be that Congressman Ralfey has been saved in the Twentieth and M. D. Foster in the Twenty-third districts.

CARRYING OF MISSOURI.

The political sensation of the day, as developed by belated returns, was the showing that Missouri has been carried for Roosevelt by from 10,000 to 15,000, and that six Republican Congressmen had been elected. The Legislature of that State is Republican by twelve majority on joint ballot. This is the first time in its history that the State has given a plurality for a Republican candidate for the Presidency.

At Republican national headquarters, the claim that Missouri was doubtful was considered a joke the day before election. Congressman Tawney, who was director of the Republican Speakers' Bureau, insisted that the State was Republican, and so did Senator Fairbanks and R. C. Kerens, national committeeman from Missouri. The claim, however, never was taken seriously.

RETIREMENT OF COCKRELL.

Senator Cockrell was the choice of William J. Bryan for the Presidency at the St. Louis convention. The retirement of the veteran Missouri Senator is an additional rock-headed Democratic blow, after twenty years of service, the candidate Tuesday.

Col. Harry S. New New of Indiana claims a Republican majority on joint ballot in his State of forty or fifty, thus insuring the election of Republicans to succeed Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge.

William Hadley, secretary of the National Socialist Committee claims the total Socialist vote will fall between 300,000 and 1,000,000.

THAT MIGHTY WAVE.
DEMOCRACY IS SWAMPED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The latest returns only add to the mighty wave which has completely swamped Democracy and swept Theodore Roosevelt into the White House by the greatest popular and electoral majority ever given a Presidential candidate by the American people. In round numbers, Roosevelt's popularity will be 1,954,253. He has carried thirty-three States, leaving Parker only a remnant in the twelve of the "Solid South." Evidently the Missourians have been "shown," for latest returns indicate that the President has carried the Hoosier State.

NEW YORK THE STATE.

President Roosevelt has carried New York State by the enormous plurality of 166,579, getting 10,000 more votes than McKinley in his sweeping victory of 1900. Higgins is elected Governor by 75,367, after one of the most bitter personal attacks ever made upon a candidate. The result is regarded as a great personal triumph for Gov. Odell, and he is not regarded as in line for 1908. Republicans also made large legislative gains, and Odell will probably succeed Depew in the United States Senate.

THE BANNER STATES.

Pennsylvania is the banner Republican State, rolling up a plurality of 450,000, Illinois is second, with a plurality of 225,000, and Ohio 200,000. Michigan rolls up 150,000, and Iowa and Minnesota come along with 135,000 each. Kansas gives 125,000 and California is rock-ribbed with over 100,000. The result in Massachusetts, where Roosevelt gets 86,279, evidences the wonderful personal tribute to the President, for Douglass—he of the shoes—is elected Governor by a substantial plurality on the Democratic ticket.

The Republicans carry every one of the inter-mountain States. Even Nevada, which has always been conceded to Parker gives Roosevelt 800 plurality or more. Van Duser (Dem.) is beaten for Congress by Yerrington (Rep.) by fifty votes. The Legislature is Republican by two on joint ballot, and George S. Nixon, the Winnemucca banker, will succeed "Bill" Stewart in the United States Senate.

FOLK A GREAT FIGURE.

The result in Missouri is regarded as a wonderful personal triumph for Folk, and he becomes a gigantic political figure in the Democratic party. Only Folk is victorious, of the entire Democratic ticket in Missouri.

Out of the wreck comes the knowledge of the fact that hereafter the Democratic party is to be the radical party with Bryan and Hearst in the saddle as its leaders. Hearst is elected to Congress by over 11,000 leading Parker by 1500 votes in his district, and this with almost openly avowed hostility of Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, who forbade Hearst to accept a Populist indorsement. Hearst ignored the command, and demonstrated that even in the "enemy's country" the Democrats and Populists must unite to win. No faction rejoices more openly in Parker's Waterloo than the Bryanites. They regard it was great victory, forever eliminating Cleveland, Hill, Belmont and the so-called "reorganizers."

THE NEXT HOUSE.

The Republicans will have 246 members of the next House of Representatives to the Democrats' 140 a clear majority of 106. Even in the "Solid South," heavy Congressional Republican gains are recorded, two in Kentucky, two in Tennessee, five in Missouri, one in Virginia and one in North Carolina. The Democrats get but one Congressman in thirty-three in Pennsylvania and one out of ten in New Jersey. West Virginia sends a solid Republican delegation, besides giving Roosevelt a plurality of 30,000.

Congressman Babcock, recognized as one of the big men of the House and chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee had a tight squeeze in Wisconsin, getting through with only 248 votes to spare. It was on Babcock that the LaFollettes men concentrated all their efforts to defeat him, but in vain.

ELECTORAL VOTE.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Practically complete returns on the Presidential election show the overwhelming victory of Roosevelt and Fairbanks and the triumph of the Republican cause generally. The latest returns show that Roosevelt will have 343 votes in the electoral college, against 133 for Parker. All States except the "Solid South" are claimed for the Republicans.

SWEEPING VICTORY IN OUR OWN STATE.

Gov. Pardee Says the People Have Shown Hard Common Sense.

Metropolis and County of San Francisco Aspiring to Win Los Angeles' Banner—Returns from the Interior North of the Tehachepi—Returns on Congressmen and for Associate Justice.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 9.—In an interview today, Gov. George C. Pardee expressed his gratification of the sweeping Republican victory, in the following words:

"I am not surprised that this State has gone even beyond the fondest estimates in its indorsement of President Theodore Roosevelt and the policies of the Republican party. What else could it consistently do? The people of California have simply shown their hard common sense in yesterday's vote. To have voted against the policy of protection would have invited disaster to our most cherished interests. On this issue there was but one thing to do, and we did it.

"I am especially pleased also that on the issue of the personality of President Roosevelt, his motives, his strength of character and his general trustworthiness, we have pronounced ourselves unmistakably, not only by an unprecedented vote for the Republican electors, but also by sending to his support a Republican Congressional delegation.

"Political conditions in California are now just what they ought to be, and what we hope they will always continue to be."

CALIFORNIA GIVES NEARLY 115,000.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—President Roosevelt's majority in California will be nearly 115,000. Returns from 2286 precincts out of a total of 3528 give Roosevelt 196,5063; Parker 85,985. The missing precincts are small and scattering, and in 1900 gave McKinley 6065, Bryan 5598.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—As the returns from the State continue to come in they emphasize the unprecedented majority given for President Roosevelt. Returns up to a late hour tonight indicate that the President in this State will figure 115,000 votes over his opponent.

The lawyers are eagerly watching the returns relating to the constitutional amendment to establish an Appellate Court, with nine judges. The Governor has the appointment of the nine judges for the first term of two years. After that the judges are to be elected for a term of twelve years by popular vote. The amendment provides that the commissioners of the Supreme Court shall go out of office in May next. There are five of the commissioners. They are all candidates, according to reports, for judgeships in the Appellate Court.

The completion of the count in San Francisco shows that as far as the city is concerned the amendment to establish the Appellate Courts was given an overwhelming majority, but the count throughout the State has yet to be recapitulated.

SAN FRANCISCO COMPLETE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—The complete vote of San Francisco was 84,779. The corrected returns give Roosevelt 59,814, Parker 17,861, Debs 7281, Swallow 330.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUSTICE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—The vote for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court in San Francisco today was as follows: Lorigan (Rep.) 35,176, Dooling (Dem.) 13,413, Walker (Soc.) 6332, Blanchard (Pro.) 439.

OUTSIDE PRECINCTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—Seven-teen hundred and twenty-six precincts out of 3245 outside of San Francisco give Roosevelt 169,575; Parker 62,476. The same gave McKinley 172,641; Bryan 89,488.

ALAMEDA COUNTY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

OAKLAND, Nov. 9.—The complete returns from Alameda county are now in, and show that Roosevelt's majority here is over 14,000. Every Republican on the ticket in the county was elected by a big majority.

CONTRA COSTA COUNTY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MARTINEZ, Nov. 9.—Complete election returns in Contra Costa show sweeping victory for the republicans. The entire ticket was elected without exception. The majority for Roosevelt is 1580; in 1900 the majority for McKinley was 616. The county has been wrested from the control of the Democratic Board of Supervisors and goes to the hands of the Republicans. Figures on the different candidates are as follows: Roosevelt, 2855; Parker, 1264; Knowland, 2743; McPike, 1260; Belshaw, 2213; Randall, 1206.

ALAMEDA FOR SEA WALL.

ESTIMATE OF 75,000.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—The Republican estimate of 75,000 plurality for Roosevelt in California appears to be confirmed by the latest returns. From a number of counties complete reports have not been received, but their votes will not materially change the result.

Large Republican majorities have been rolled up all over California and from present indications the vote will be the heaviest ever cast in the State, with a clean Republican sweep of all the more important offices.

SOLID CONGRESS DELEGATION.

Eight Representatives to Congress have been elected by the party vote—a solid Republican delegation. In the Second District, which was considered doubtful, Duncan E. McKinlay, the Republican candidate, has been elected by a majority of not less than 800. In the Fifth District also, where a strong fight was made, E. A. Hayes (Rep.) scored a majority of 4969.

The returns already in for the State Senate and Assembly show that the Republicans have received a large majority in the Legislature. Eighteen out of the twenty-three State Senators have been elected and sixty-five out of the eighty Assemblymen.

The magnitude of the Republican victory can be better understood when it is shown that even counties which have hitherto been invincible as Democratic strongholds have given way and returned a majority for Theodore Roosevelt.

In the Second Congress District 256 out of 296 precincts give McKinlay (Rep.) 17,225; Bell (Dem.) 14,580.

ALL BUT 424 PRECINCTS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Complete returns from 2104 out of 2528 precincts in California give Roosevelt 194,324, Parker 82,842. The same precincts gave McKinley 160,891, Bryan 115,125. The 424 missing precincts are remote mountain precincts, and will not be heard from for several days. Their vote is small, and will have no effect on the result.

California has elected eight Republican Congressmen and the Republicans will control the next State Legislature.

SONOMA COUNTY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 9.—Sonoma county rolled up a big vote for Roosevelt. Returns from sixty out of sixty-five precincts in the county give Roosevelt 4823, Parker 2561.

D. E. McKinlay (Rep.) beats Bell (Dem.) for Congress by 2155 to 2045 in sixty-two out of sixty-five precincts.

The landslide also carried H. L. Tripp (Rep.) into the Legislature from the Fourteenth District, over C. O. Dunbar (Dem.) by a majority of 88. F. A. Cromwell (Rep.) is reelected in the Thirteenth District by 1200.

FRESNO COUNTY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

FRESNO, Nov. 9.—Roosevelt carried this county by about 2000 plurality. One precinct of six votes was carried by Socialists.

Returns complete from sixty-four of the seventy-nine precincts in the county, the missing ones being Democratic, though not likely to change, show following results: Democrats elected two Supervisors, and Republicans one, besides the two Assemblymen, Drew and Chandler.

SANTA CLARA COUNTY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN JOSE, Nov. 9.—With returns practically complete, the Republican pluralities in this county are correspondingly increased. In round numbers: Roosevelt 4500, Lorigan 4300, Wright, Senate, 1900; Hayes, Congress, 3000; Arnerich, Assembly, 1100; Jarvis, Assembly, 1300; Michaelitree, 177.

Superior Judges, Welch 2100, Rhodes 2000.

LAKE COUNTY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LAKEPORT, Nov. 9.—Complete returns from the four last precincts of Lake county to be heard from give Roosevelt 64, Parker 18, McKinlay 43, Bell 33, Weyland 64, Geis 78.

Judge M. S. Sayre is elected by 104 majority.

SACRAMENTO COUNTY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 9.—The following are the corrected returns from every precinct in the county except Richland, where twelve votes were cast but on account of errors the ballots were not counted by the judges of election but were sealed up and sent to the Supervisors, who will count them next Monday. They cannot alter the result on any office in this county. Every Republican is elected and all Republican candidates are given substantial majorities or pluralities. The most interesting feature in the election is the increased Socialist vote. Following are figures:

LOS ANGELES HOLDS REPUBLICAN BANNER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Up to a late hour tonight the Republicans of San Francisco were rejoicing in the belief that the Dennison banner, which belongs to the county giving the largest Republican plurality at any State or general election, in California, was to come back from Los Angeles, where it has been since that county captured it at the Pardee election, two years ago. Returns prior to 11 o'clock gave President Roosevelt's plurality in Los Angeles at 29,315, against 21,000 in San Francisco, a balance in favor of San Francisco of 1615. So sure was the State Central Committee of these figures that Chairman Stone sent this telegram to J. W. McKinley of Los Angeles:

"You did so well in Los Angeles that it seems a pity to relieve you of the custody of the banner, but San Francisco will hold it for two years to come. Get ready your special train and guard of honor, to bring the colors at the earliest possible moment.

[Signed] "GEORGE STONE,
"Chairman."

But the complete returns, received at 11 o'clock, dashed these hopes to the ground and showed that no special train will be necessary and no feast and jollification forthcoming for the delectation of overworked politicians. The only celebration in sight is the one that probably will be held by the Southern county congratulating itself over its narrow escape, for the latest returns give a Republican plurality in Los Angeles at 31,478, beating San Francisco by 537.

ELECTION OF SMITH CLAIMED IN ARIZONA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Nov. 9.—The election of Smith (Dem.) for Congress by at least 300 is conceded. The Legislature is Democratic by probably two-thirds. The Republicans of Maricopa county elected Councilman, one Assemblyman, Sheriff, Probate Judge and one Supervisor. The rest is all Democratic.

MORMONS FOR SMITH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Marcus A. Smith, (Dem.) has been elected to Congress from Arizona over R. A. Fowler, (Rep.) by a plurality of about 300, practically the same plurality give the Democratic candidate J. F. Wilson last election. Smith lost his home county, Pima, by 250. Fowler won his home county, Maricopa, by 250 though the county is normally Democratic.

Beside these, the counties of Apache, Navajo, Coconino, Tavapai and Santa Cruz were carried for Fowler. Smith's chiefest support was in Graham and Cochise counties, where every Mormon supported his candidacy, despite hope to the contrary. The Socialistic vote was unexpectedly light.

In this county, the offices were divided about equally between the two main parties. The contest for Sheriff is a draw between Cook (Rep.) and Walker, (Dem.) and must have determination in court.

DEFEAT OF LIVERNASH.

Feature of San Francisco Election Which Brings Relief to Thousands.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the features of the local election that brought satisfaction to thousands of Republicans was the crushing defeat of Livernash by Julius Kahn for Congress.

Livernash has posed for several years as an ardent sympathizer with the union-labor movement, but more than once it has been shown that his conduct did not square with his protestations. He has been loud-mouthed and offensive, and his elimination from Congress will be a relief to other members of the delegation.

Even more welcome to some was the defeat of Conlan, Burchard and White, the three candidates for Superior Judges, to whom Mayor Schmitz and Abe Ruef threw all the strength of the city administration. Conlan was so confident of election that he advised his friends to bet 2 to 1 on him.

Most of the newspapers here advised their readers to vote for Kerrigan and Trout, Republicans, and Murasky and Seawell, Democrats. The result was Ruef's candidates were snowed under. It is the first clear-cut victory the people have scored against the Ruef "push," and it has shown that exposures of various offenses are beginning to bear fruit.

PRESIDENT PLEASED WITH CALIFORNIA.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The President was free today in expressing his gratification over the immense vote he got in California. He appeared to be not less pleased over California's record plurality than he was over the plurality that his own State gave him.

Enormous as it was, the result generally in California gave genuine satisfaction in Washington. There was special rejoicing over the defeat of Livernash and Wynn of San Francisco, who set themselves up in Washington as special dictators to Congress on all matters relating to labor. It is held that with a solid Republican delegation in the House and with a Californian in the President's Cabinet, California is in a good place on the political map.

MISSOURI.

THE ONE DOUBTFUL STATE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 9.—Slow progress has been made toward an accurate count of Missouri's vote, but partial returns up to 11 o'clock today showed remarkable Republican gains in St. Louis and throughout the State. In many counties the usual Democratic plurality was cut in half. The Post-Dispatch (Independent Democrat) at that hour inclined largely to the belief that Roosevelt had carried Missouri, and the Republican State Committee insisted that final returns would show a Republican majority of 20,000 on the national ticket.

That Joseph W. Folk (Dem.) has carried the State for Governor was the claim made generally, but figures on the State result were lacking. The Democratic State Committee asserted that Folk will have a majority of 30,000.

ST. LOUIS REPUBLICAN.

Complete returns show that St. Louis has gone Republican, with the exception that she rallied for Folk (Dem.) with a plurality of over 10,000. With all the Democratic municipal candidates save one defeated by pluralities ranging from 800 to 3000, Folk carried St. Louis over Cyrus P. Walbridge by a plurality of 10,000.

The indications are that the Legislature will be Republican by two or three votes on joint ballot. The Legislature will elect a successor to United States Senator F. M. Cockrell.

GOT DROP ON THE SHERIFF.

Gave Bandit His Pistol and Also Some Money.

Hunted Turned Hunter Until Farmer Came Along.

Arizona County Treasurer Robbed and Bound.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 9.—A saloon at Melitta was held up last night by two masked men and the thieves were captured this morning not far from the scene by Sheriff Grace. While driving back with the prisoners one managed to escape.

The Sheriff left the other man in charge of a farmer living in the vicinity and started out to try and get the other. After a search in the brush he came upon him ambushed. The bandit had a pistol leveled and the Sheriff was nearly held up. After a short parley, Grace agreed to throw away the pistol, which he did, and also laid a small sum of money alongside the pistol to allow the man to pay his fare out of the county. The bandit demanded $60, but finally compromised for $1.75.

At this juncture, John Underhill, who resides near, came along and disclosed the attention of the bandit and as a result he was again placed in custody, but not until a number of shots had been fired.

THE WYOMING ASHORE.

DAMAGED DURING THICK FOG.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SEATTLE, Nov. 9.—Leaving Bremerton today for target practice, the United States Monitor Wyoming, Capt. Osmun, in an exceptionally thick fog, ran ashore on Point White, Port Orchard Narrows, and two miles out from the Puget Sound navy yard. Two plates are reported sprung, causing a leak which flooded two compartments. The vessel pulled off after being hung up for about three hours and returned to the navy yard. She will, it is said, have to go into the dry dock.

FOUND BOUND IN VAULT.

COUNTY TREASURER ROBBED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Nov. 9.—James H. Storm, County Treasurer, of this county, has just been found in the vault of his office, bound and gagged. He failed to report to his home last night, but the family was not particularly alarmed on account of the election night.

This morning the office was not opened the usual hour this morning and it was divined something wrong, and sent for help. When found, Storm was seated on a pile of books in the vault, apparently a very nervous state. A handkerchief was used as a gag, and the official was bound with fine wire.

It is said that about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon he was seated in his office when two men, one tall and the other short, appeared. Storm was behind the counter. The tall man walked up and pulled a revolver at him and commanded him to throw up his hands. He was then bound and gagged, after which the two men leisurely gathered up the money, shoved him inside the vault and departed.

Storm can give no definite description of the robbers. Having over seventy hours in which to get away, before the discovery of the crime, the officers have no clue to work on.

WYOMING BANDITS ESCAPE.

DENVER, Nov. 9.—A special dispatch from Thermopolis, Wyo., says that Sheriff Fenton of Big Horn county and posse, with Sheriff Stough of Hot Springs, have returned from the chase after Harvey Logan and his gang of Cody bank robbers, and report that Logan by the boldest piece of daring, outwitted the officers and made his escape out of the country last Sunday and is now well out of the State.

Logan, disguised as a prospector, with an old pack mule loaded with camp and provisions tramped out of the Bighorn in the Walt country past the posse and made his way to Casper, where he took a train.

The balance of the gang split up, disappearing completely and two were doubling back in the mountains some miles from Thermopolis. One of these men was with Logan in the street on the bank.

LATEST REVIEW.

PLURALITY NEARLY 2,000,000.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—With the election returns still incomplete, the plurality for President Roosevelt in the nation, according to all indications tonight, will exceed 1,924,253, the greatest ever given an American candidate. The nearest approach to this vote was in 1896, when McKinley received a plurality approximating $10,000, and in 1872, when Grant received 762,991.

Tonight the interest centers in Missouri and Maryland. Late returns indicate that the former State is in the Republican column, so far as Presidential electors are concerned, but that Joseph W. Folk, the Democratic candidate, has been elected Governor. In Maryland the Presidential vote will probably be cast for Roosevelt. Late returns tonight indicate that Thomas A. Smith has been elected to Congress by the Democrats in the First District. Congressman Jackson of this district, tonight, however, puts forward the claim that trick ballots were used, and says he will contest the election.

In the other States, it is simply a question of pluralities. The Solid South" was broken by the defection of Missouri. The figures tonight show but twelve States, with 132 votes for Parker. The President carried all the Northern States—swept them, in fact—and tonight he has 343 electoral votes. The banner State is Pennsylvania. Twenty-four hours after the polls closed, the returns from this State indicated that Roosevelt's plurality would reach 485,000.

Next came Illinois, where the President polled approximately 225,000 more votes than did Parker. Ohio gave Roosevelt 200,000, and New York 174,000. The New York City returns are still incomplete, but the canvass over the result has not subsided. Parker carried Greater New York by nearly 41,000 votes.

In general the situation is chiefly interesting tonight because of the fact that the tickets in many of the States were cut. The President ran ahead of his ticket in many localities. In Massachusetts, he had a plurality of 88,000, while the Republican candidate for Governor was defeated by 31,000.

Bryan and Hearst to be the Two Moses of the Discontented Democracy.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] From the wreck of the Democratic party William Jennings Bryan rises supreme as the Democratic leader and probable candidate of his party in 1908. No other talk is heard here, and even the Hearst papers openly avow loyalty to his candidacy. Tammany Hall is ready to swing in line behind the Nebraskan and his crew, and Debs and his Socialists and Union Labor elements are already shouting for Bryan to come forward and lead the Democracy out of the wilderness and for Cleveland, Olney, Hill and Carlisle to get over in the Republican party "where they belong."

"Plutocracy" is to be the watchword, and Bryan and Hearst the two Moses of the discontented.

Lord Lansdowne Makes a Plea for Peace.

Imperial Prince Fushimi Arrives in San Francisco.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOKIO, Nov. 10, 10:45 a.m.—[Asiatic Cable After Midnight Dispatch.]—It is reported that Gen. Stoessel, commanding at Port Arthur, has asked the Japanese for an armistice, the purpose of which is not stated. A confirmation of the report is unobtainable. It is hoped here that Gen. Stoessel will capitulate before the city proper is taken. The Japanese soldiers are angry and inflamed on account of the alleged abuse of their wounded by the Russians. They believe they will be murdered if captured. Under these conditions, it will possibly be difficult to avoid a massacre when the troops meet in the final combat.

STRONG PLEA FOR PEACE.

LORD LANSDOWNE'S SPEECH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Nov. 9.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Lord Lansdowne, in the absence of Premier Balfour, at the historic Lord Mayor's banquet, held tonight, made a strong plea for peace and arbitration on behalf of the British government.

Lord Lansdowne pointed out to a large audience that arbitration is the only way in which the North Sea dispute with Russia can be equitably settled, and almost in the same breath drew a vivid picture of the horrors of the struggle now proceeding in the Far East.

Between the lines of his speech, the Foreign Minister made an urgent plea, amounting almost to a demand, that the Russo-Japanese quarrel be settled by arbitration. It was a carefully-prepared statement made before what is conceded the most representative gathering of leading men of Great Britain and what is generally interpreted a bolder bid for intervention than has yet emanated from any neutral power.

America was writ large in this speech, for which Great Britain has been waiting for many days.

CHOATE'S REQUEST.

"Mr. Choate walked into my room yesterday and asked if we would sign an arbitration treaty with the United States. Simultaneously, I received from President Roosevelt, whom all must congratulate [cheers] a message inviting us to participate in a second international peace conference at The Hague. It was needless to say that the invitation has not been refused, only we have reserved to ourselves the right to consider the subjects that should be discussed. We hesitated not a moment in informing America that we were ready to participate and in wishing President Roosevelt godspeed in his undertaking.

"Arbitration," concluded Lord Lansdowne, after a sympathetic reference to France's assistance in the North Sea dispute, "has become the fashion."

TRIBUTE TO HAY.

The Foreign Minister prefaced all his remarks by saying: "That great statesman, John Hay, recently remarked that war was the most futile and fallacious of human follies."

Then came an impassioned review of the North Sea affair. Although Lord Lansdowne was unable to announce the signing of the convention he emphatically confirmed statements made that Great Britain had found "no difficulty in arriving at a solution in principle of the dispute," and supplemented it by the statement that Russia has guaranteed the punishment of any other officer in addition to those already detached from Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron who may be proved to have been implicated.

A dead silence greeted him, as, after pointing out that the two governments in good faith believed in contradictory statements of facts, he asked: "Could we have done better than get full apology and compensation and leave the question of facts to an international tribunal, with a guarantee of punishment of any who may be found guilty?"

After referring to "the widely prevalent desire" that arbitration might be resorted to, in the case of the present war in the Far East, Lord Lansdowne added:

STRUGGLE IN FAR EAST.

"At this moment," said Lord Lansdowne, "contemplating the terrible struggle between two brave and gallant nations in the Far East, can one of us contemplate without regret the legion after legion of brave men being led forth to meet their fate and the ruined homes and broken hearts? We can conceive no more terrible punishment than the remorse of any minister or body of ministers who, from loss of temper or desire of popularity, brought upon the country the scourge and calamity of needless war."

MUKDEN, Nov. 9.—All is quiet on both the Russian and the Japanese lines south of Mukden. Both armies continue the work of entrenching and reinforcements are rapidly arriving. The increasing cold makes the prospect of a winter campaign doubtful, as military movements now would be attended with great difficulty. Fuel and forage are both scarce and dear.

ELECTION INCIDENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The President has received the following cablegram from Emperor William:

NEUES PALAIS, Nov. 9.—President Roosevelt, United States of America, Washington: Sincerest congratulations. May heaven give you prosperity. Tuum quod bonum felix faustumque sit Populo Americani.

[Signed] WILLIAM, R. I.

A free translation of the Latin in the above cablegram is as follows: "May your good administration be happy and prosperous to the American people."

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—General Manager Stone of the Associated Press has issued the following general order:

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—I desire to thank everyone in the service for the splendid work done on the election yesterday. For promptness, accuracy and comprehensiveness it has never been equaled in any general election before.

[Signed] M. E. STONE, General manager.

WHEN MISSOURI IS REPUBLICAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Not only are the majorities given the Republican national ticket in yesterday's balloting confirmed by the more complete count of today and in some instances increased over earlier figures, but the claim is made that the once "Solid South" has been broken and Missouri has gone Republican.

With every formerly doubtful State admittedly in the Roosevelt column, with majorities in some States in excess of those given McKinley four years ago, and in some instances even greater than those of 1896, capped by the possibility that the hitherto invincible and historically Democratic South has been invaded, last night's surprise has been turned to amazement, even in the most enthusiastic Republican quarters.

When, at a late hour last night, it was reported that Missouri was in doubt and some of the Republican managers were admitting that they had hopes of success, it was hardly credited by the majority of the Republicans, and was laughed at by Democrats. But late returns seem to indicate that these claims may be well grounded and in the absence of full and complete figures of the vote the assertion that the Muddy Water State had forsaken its Democratic allegiance on national issues is coming to be accepted as a probability. Should the official count bear out the Republican claim of today Roosevelt's vote in the Electoral College will be 341, a plurality of 210.

Beginning with the tremendous majority of 400,000 in Pennsylvania, the Republican pluralities are decisive in nearly every State carried for the ticket, and it seems probable that the President has received the greatest popular vote ever given a Presidential candidate. Returns thus far received indicate that he will receive a popular plurality of slightly over 1,350,000, as against 849,790 for McKinley over Bryan.

From figures obtained by the Associated Press, the Republicans have elected 223 Representatives and the Democrats 141, the twelve remaining districts yet to be heard from being now equally divided between the two parties. The Republican majority in the next House will therefore be at least ninety-two.

BRYAN WON'T MEET HEARST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LINCOLN, Nov. 9.—W. J. Bryan today denied that he would meet William Randolph Hearst and Thomas Watson in New York a week from now for the purpose of taking steps toward the organization of a new party. The statement that he would go to New York for such a purpose was made by Malvin C. Stallister, manager of Watson's campaign. Bryan has some reorganization plans, but he intends to stand sponsor for them himself.

AS THE DAY OPENED.

EARLY FEATURES THAT INTERES

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Missouri is claimed by both sides, although it is generally conceded that Folk was elected Governor by the Democrats. The Republican State Committee, however, asserts that its figures indicate the election of Walbridge by more than 2000, and claims the State for Roosevelt by 7,000.

The general belief at Wheeling is that Roosevelt carried West Virginia by more than 10,000, but the returns are very meager. Those so far received show only slight Republican losses. It is thought probable that the Legislature will be Republican in both branches. This body will elect a successor to Senator Scott.

Returns from Minnesota indicate the election of the Democratic candidate for Governor, Johnson, who ran especially well in the Scandinavian counties. His success, however, had no effect on the national ticket, which went to Roosevelt by at least 40,000. Some of the Republican newspapers still claim that the State was not lost to their candidate, Dunn.

In Wisconsin, while the Republican national ticket went through by a heavy majority, it is thought that the Legislature will be so divided between the Republican factions that a deadlock may occur over the choice of a successor to Senator Quarles.

Complete figures are lacking from Iowa, but those in hand indicate the success of the entire Republican State ticket.

While Colorado probably gave Roosevelt 10,000 plurality, the result as to the State ticket is in doubt. Scratched ballots were cast to the number of at least 40,000, and the counting was very slow.

On the Pacific Coast, Republican success was general. In California, where Roosevelt's majority will be at least 50,000, the next Legislature will be Republican by a large majority. It will select a successor to Senator Bard.

Reports from Nebraska are incomplete as to the State ticket, and the election of Berge is claimed by the Democratic State Committee.

A feature of the returns from Missouri is the probable defeat of Representative Cowherd, chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee.

Indications are that the next House of Representatives will be heavily Republican. Dispatches so far received show that 202 Congressmen have been elected by the Republicans, against 128 by the Democrats. Of the 45 remaining districts 32 are now represented by Republicans and 13 by Democrats.

TAGGART'S MISSING GEM.

MISSOURI NO "RINGER."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Confirmation of the Republican victory in Missouri came to the Western headquarters here at a dramatic moment. Chairman Tawney of the Speakers' Bureau was surrounded by an army of spellbinders, who had just presented him with a diamond Masonic consistory ring and a Scottish Rite charm, as an evidence of friendship, before departing for their homes. No opportunity had presented to learn the size of the ring required, and for that reason the diamond had not been set.

William Abbott, who made the presentation speech, was likening the missing gem to Missouri, "which you have all but won"—when the St. Louis telegram arrived, announcing that the State had gone for Roosevelt.

PARKER HARD UP.

CAMPAIGN COST MONEY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ESOPUS (N. Y.) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Judge Parker is so reduced financially by the campaign that he will find it necessary to engage in some other business at once to recuperate his fortunes. It is understood he has been offered a place in one of the largest law firms in the State, in Albany, and that he will locate there in the immediate future. He was forced to expend several thousand dollars during the campaign, about all he had laid by. He has always been wholehearted and generous to a fault, which has kept him from accumulating a big fortune.

Judge Parker has issued a statement saying he will never again seek public office. He has taken defeat like a thoroughbred, and was in the fields today, like a good, honest American farmer.

BIG LOSSES, BIG WINNINGS.

GOV. ODELL CLEANED UP $200,000.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Biggest winnings on the election: Gov. Odell, $200,000; E. H. Harriman, $200,000; M. Mendham (as broker) $150,000; A. M. Houseman (as broker) $400,000; J. J. Judge (as broker) $200,000.

Biggest losses: August Belmont, $250,000; Jefferson M. Levy, $100,000; Patrick H. McCarren, $50,000; Senator Reynolds, $75,000; George Considine (as broker) $25,000.

Gov Odell won fully $300,000 in election bets on the State campaign, according to statements yesterday of brokers who handled part of the money and who were busy collecting money to pay.

From the same source it was learned E. H. Harriman won more than $200,000 on Higgins, and Maurice Mendham $150,000.

ALABAMA.

PARKER'S PLURALITY 75,000.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MONTGOMERY (Ala.) Nov. 9.—The plurality for Parker is about 75,000.

COLORADO.

REPUBLICANS MAY CONTEST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DENVER, Nov. 9.—Roosevelt's plurality in Colorado has been increased by later returns, and may run above 15,000. Republicans and Democrats claim the election of Governor and Congressman-at-large, and the Republicans threaten to contest the State election, on the ground of alleged frauds in Denver. On the face of nearly complete returns, Adams has carried Denver county by 4500 plurality, and he appears to have a safe lead over Peabody without this county.

According to the returns in the Denver Times, Adams's plurality in the State is a little over 10,000. The Times concedes that the result is in doubt as to the other State officers, but claims the Legislature to be Democratic in both branches.

Democratic Chairman Smith made this statement this evening: "Alva Adams is elected by from 10,000 to 15,000. All the State ticket goes in with him, according to our best information."

Republican Chairman Fairley made the following claim: "Peabody will be elected by somewhere between 5000 and 10,000. The State ticket will run between 10,000 and 15,000. Roosevelt will run even higher than that. The Congressmen are elected by pluralities above 10,000. I expect to bring Peabody to Denver with a plurality ranging from 7000 to 10,000. This is large enough to offset any frauds the Democrats might attempt in Denver. We will control the Legislature by good majorities."

FRUSTRATE DEPORTATION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CRIPPLE CREEK (Colo.) Nov. 9.—Sheriff Edward Bell frustrated the attempted deportation of Frank H. Mannix, County Clerk and Recorder, a Democrat, today. Mannix had been marched a mile and a half from town by three men when the party was overtaken by a Sheriff and posse. Mannix was released and William Carruthers, Carl Evans and E. E. Cornelson were arrested on a charge of kidnaping. They furnished bonds of $500 each. Carruthers is the general freight agent of the Cripple Creek Central Railroad, and for several years was deputy under County Recorder Mannix. The other two men arrested are miners.

Their friends say that the affair was intended as a joke, but the Democrats claim a plot had been hatched to get Mannix out of the way and tamper with the ballots, which are in his custody.

BOTH CLAIM VICTORY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DENVER, Nov. 9.—The Times (Independent Democrat) declares this afternoon that Alva Adams has been elected Governor by a plurality which may reach 10,000, and will not fall below 5000, but admits that the result on the other State and the Congress candidates is in doubt.

The Post (Independent Republican) claims that Gov. Peabody is in the lead, but admits that "the result is by no means certain, as official reports are coming in slowly."

Harry A. Lindsley, Democratic candidate for District Attorney in Denver county, whose election was opposed by the Honest Elections League, is defeated.

Republican lawyers are preparing to contest the State election on the grounds of fraud in Denver.

Estimates based on the returns received up to 9 o'clock today indicate that Roosevelt's plurality in Colorado will be about 20,000 and that Alva Adams, Democrat, will have at least 4500 plurality over Gov. James H. Peabody, Republican, for Governor.

Returns on the scratched ballots, estimated to be more than 50,000 in the State, are coming in slowly. So far as counted, these ballots average 2 to 1 in favor of Adams. Peabody loses many counties which have always been considered safely Republican.

Returns of the Congress vote indicate the election of John F. Shafroth, Democrat, as Congressman-at-large, and of Robert W. Bonynge, Republican, in the First District, and H. M. Hogg, Republican, in the Second District.

Chairman Smith of the State Democratic Committee, issued a statement this morning claiming the election of Adams for Governor and the entire Democratic ticket by pluralities ranging from 14,000 to 15,000. He also claims that the Democrats will have a majority in the Legislature, which canvasses the vote for Governor.

Republican Chairman Fairly said that the Republican State ticket and candidates for Congress were unquestionably elected by pluralities of 12,000 to 13,000, and that the Republicans would control the Legislature.

Both sides are claiming nearly every close county. The Democrats estimate the triumph in Denver for Adams at an of 4000, but the Republicans still claim it for Peabody by 2000.

CONNECTICUT.

ROOSEVELT GETS 111,336.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 9.—Complete returns from the State give Roosevelt, 111,336; Parker, 72,167. For Governor: Roberts (Rep.) 104,763; Robertson (Dem.) 78,187.

The Republican pluralities in Connecticut for the National and State tickets exceed anything before experienced in the State. Revised returns give Roosevelt a plurality of 39,197, against 29,558 for McKinley four years ago. Lieut.-Gov. Roberts, Republican candidate for Governor, although badly scratched, led Judge Robertson, his opponent, by 25,971.

Congressman-at-large Lilley shared in the flood of ballots by getting a plurality of 32,694 over Kennedy, formerly one of the Bryan leaders in the State. The Legislature is overwhelmingly Republican.

DELAWARE.

LEGISLATURE REPUBLICAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WILMINGTON (Del.) Nov. 9.—Corrected returns show the Legislature on joint ballot to be Republican, by 12.

ILLINOIS.

ELECT 223 CONGRESSMEN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Dispatches to the Associated Press up to 11:30 o'clock this morning show the Republicans have elected 223 Congressmen, and the Democrats 141. Of the other twelve districts six are now represented by Republicans and six by Democrats.

RECORD-BREAKING VOTE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Roosevelt carried Illinois by a plurality estimated this morning at 225,000. It is certain that 21 and possibly 23 of the 25 Republican candidates for Congress have been elected.

Roosevelt's plurality in the city of Chicago alone was 193,313, and the returns from Cook county outside the city, will probably increase this by 12,000 or 15,000.

Charles S. Deneen, for Governor, ran close to the President throughout the city. The State gave him the largest plurality ever cast for Governor, latest indications being that he was elected by 210,000 plurality.

Next to President Roosevelt's record-breaking vote, the Socialist poll for Eugene V. Debs was a feature of the election in Chicago. Debs polled a total of 41,599 votes in the city, against 5115 cast for him in 1900.

BIG VOTE FOR DEBS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Socialist leaders declare that Chicago has given 40,000 votes to E. V. Debs, their candidate for President, and that the State will be 80,000 total.

INDIANA.

MANY COUNTIES CHANGE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 9.—Likely figures give Indiana to the Republicans by probably 60,000, many counties going Republican for the first time. The Republicans gain two Congressmen, defeating Miers and Robinson in the Second and Twelfth districts.

IDAHO.

ONE DEMOCRATIC LEGISLATOR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BOISE (Idaho) Nov. 9.—Returns from the State come in slowly, one county not having been heard from at all yet. The figures received up to 9 p.m. do not materially change the estimates made last night. Roosevelt has about 25,000 plurality, and Gooding for Governor between 18,000 and 20,000. The rest of the State ticket runs about with Gooding.

The Republicans appear to have elected every member of the Legislature, with the possible exception of one member of the House in Custer county.

TEDDY'S BY 25,000.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BOISE, Nov. 9.—Indications are that Roosevelt has carried the State by 25,000; Gooding, for Governor, by 20,000; French, for Congress, by about the same.

IOWA.

EARLIER ESTIMATES OUTDONE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DES MOINES, Nov. 9.—Chairman Spence of the Republican State Central Committee estimates Roosevelt's majority in the State at 130,000, an increase of 1000 since earlier estimates. Dawson, Second District Congressman, pulled through by a narrow margin. All other Congressmen were elected.

KENTUCKY.

PLURALITY FOR PARKER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 9.—All save 253 out of 2625 precincts in Kentucky show a plurality of 21,711 for Parker over Roosevelt.

KANSAS.

ALL IN ON TIDAL WAVE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TOPEKA, Nov. 9.—The Republicans have carried Kansas by tremendous majorities for their national State and Congress and legislative tickets, and T. T. Kelly, Republican, for State Treasurer, against whose office charges of irregularities had been made, rides in on the tidal wave.

The entire Congress delegation is Republican by an aggregate majority that will run close up to 75,000 given for Hoch, Republican for Governor.

VICTORY FOR MICKEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LINCOLN, Nov. 9.—The Lincoln Star (Republican) claims the reelection of Gov. Mickey by a plurality of 8000 over George W. Berge, Fusionist, basing the claim upon complete returns from nearly half of the voting precincts in the State. Republican State leaders here also claim McKinley's reelection, the success of the entire Republican State ticket and the election of six Republican Congressmen.

MISSOURI.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Another surprise came today from Missouri in the admission that the Legislature is in doubt, the Republicans now claiming that on joint ballot they will have two majority. As this Legislature will elect a successor to Senator Cockrell, the situation is made more than ordinarily interesting, and the official count on the Legislature will be awaited with as much interest as that for President. The election of Folk, (Dem.) for Governor is conceded.

NEW'S BEST INFORMATION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—National Committeeman New said this afternoon that his best information from Missouri showed that State to be in the Republican column, but by what plurality he could not say.

ROOSEVELT AND FOLK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 9.—The Times (Ind.) at 7:00 a.m., says: "At this hour with increased Democratic losses in the county, the indications point more strongly to the probability that Roosevelt and Fairbanks have carried Missouri and that the plurality for Joseph W. Folk, (Dem.) for Governor, over Walbridge, (Rep.) will be something like 20,000."

The Star (Ind.) at 10:45 a.m., claims that the Republicans have carried Missouri for the national ticket but gives no figures, and claims the election of Folk, (Dem.) for Governor.

COCKRELL MUST GIVE WAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 9.—While the returns from the State are very incomplete, they indicate, according to the Post-Dispatch (Ind. Dem.) that the Democratic national and State tickets were elected with the possible exception of Cook and Allen, candidates respectively for Secretary of State and Auditor, who ran behind Folk, for Governor. According to the same authority, Folk carried St. Louis by 10,000 majority over Walbridge, Republican, for Governor.

The Times (Ind.) says it is becoming more than a possibility that the next Legislature, which will elect a successor to Senator Cockrell, Democrat, will be Republican.

W. S. Cowherd, chairman of the Democratic National Congress Committee, is defeated by E. C. Ellis of Kansas City, from the Fifth District, by a plurality of about 1200.

Five additional arrests in the naturalization fraud prosecutions have been made on warrants issued by the Federal officials.

REPUBLICAN STATEMENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 9.—At 1:30 o'clock the Republican State Committee gave the following statement to the Associated Press:

"We think Roosevelt has carried the State by from 15,000 to 25,000 majority. The indications are that the entire State Republican ticket, with the possible exception of Governor, is likewise elected. Returns on the Legislature are incomplete, but indicate a Republican majority. We expect to show the election of at least five members of Congress.

"Folk wins in St. Louis and Kansas City, but the percentage of loss in the State may give Walbridge (Rep.) the victory by a very close plurality."

At 1:45 the Democratic State headquarters made the following statement: "Folk has carried the State by from 25,000 to 30,000 majority, and the rest of the State ticket is safe. It is believed that Parker has carried the State by a small plurality, the amount of which later figures will have to determine.

EIGHT REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMEN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 9, 11:30 p.m.—The Star says that Chairman Evans of the Democratic State Committee conceded the election of eight Republican Congressmen in Missouri. They are: Frank D. Kleipper in the Third District, Frank E. Fulkerson in the Fourth, Edgar C. Ellis in the Fifth, John Welborn in the Seventh, Richard Bartholdt in the Tenth, Marcus Rhodes in the Thirteenth, William T. Tyndal in the Fourteenth, and Cassius M. Shartel in the Fifteenth.

MONTANA.

MAJORITY NEARLY 10,000.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BUTTE, Nov. 9.—Latest returns from the State give Dixon for Congress a majority of 7500 and Roosevelt a majority of nearly 10,000. Gov. Toole (Dem.) is reelected, but the majority of the State ticket is Republican and the Legislature is also Republican.

MINNESOTA.

ROOSEVELT'S PLURALITY 100,000.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PAUL, Nov. 9.—While returns from the State are far from complete, there is sufficient information to justify the previous estimate of 100,000 plurality for Roosevelt.

The Gubernatorial result is still in doubt, both sides claiming to have elected their candidates. Unofficial but fairly complete figures from 82 of the 83 counties in the State give Johnson (Dem.) a plurality of 12,000 over Dunn (Rep.) Some of the counties to be heard from are said to be Dunn strongholds.

The Legislature, which will elect a United States Senator, is strongly Republican on joint ballot.

MARYLAND.

"SILENT VOTE" SPOKE UP.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.—Though the official returns are not all in, there is now no doubt that Maryland has gone Republican by a plurality of about 1500, with three and probably four of the Republican Congressional candidates elected. It is admitted that thousands of Democrats belonging to what was called the "silent vote" cast their ballots for Roosevelt.

ALL BUT TWO COUNTIES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.—Returns received from all the counties in Maryland except two show a plurality for Roosevelt of 1115. The two counties not heard from are St. Charles and St. Marys, with large negro populations, the returns from which will almost certainly increase the foregoing figures.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BATES THE UNLUCKY ONE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—The returns from the State were completed today, and the figures show that the Republican electors received a plurality of 36,779 in a total vote of 671,235. The vote for President and the head of the State ticket were:

Both the total vote for the two parties and the Republican plurality for Presidential electors are the largest ever turned in for the State. On the other hand, the vote for Governor shows a plurality for the Democrats of 35,710, and the defeat of Gov. Bates in a Presidential year, is considered one of the inexplicable features of recent elections.

With the exception of Gov. Bates, the Republican State ticket was elected by substantial pluralities. The Legislature is overwhelmingly Republican.

TREMENDOUS VOTE CAST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—The defeat of Gov. Bates for a third term by W. L. Douglas, the Democratic candidate, and the tremendous vote cast throughout the State, were the noteworthy features of yesterday's election in Massachusetts. Douglas will be the first Democratic Governor elected since 1892.

With one ward and one small town missing, Roosevelt's plurality is 33,501. Douglas's plurality was 35,652.

Notwithstanding the defeat of the party candidate for Governor, the Republicans gained one Congressman, two Senators and several members of the House, and probably elected the remainder of the State ticket, including Lieut.-Gov. Curtis Guild, Jr.

The new Congress delegation will stand, eleven Republicans and three Democrats. The Legislature, which will select two United States Senators, will stand in the upper branch, thirty-four Republicans and six Democrats, and in the lower house 183 Republicans, 71 Democrats, and 1 Independent.

For the first time in several years there will be no Socialist in the Legislature.

NORTH DAKOTA.

REPUBLICAN MAJORITY 8000.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

GRAND FORKS (N. D.) Nov. 9.—Detailed reports from the State confirm the earlier estimates of 8000 Republican majority.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

REPUBLICAN PLURALITY 20,000.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CONCORD, Nov. 9.—New Hampshire polled one of the largest votes in its history. Roosevelt carried the State by about 20,000 plurality, while McLane (Rep.) defeats Hollis (Dem.) for Governor, by about 18,000.

The Republicans will have a majority of about one hundred in the State Legislature.

NEBRASKA.

LEGISLATURE ALSO REPUBLIC.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

OMAHA (Neb.) Nov. 9.—Probably complete returns will be required to determine who is elected Governor of Nebraska. Outside of Governor, however, the Republicans have made a clean sweep on national, State, Congress and legislative tickets.

For Governor, both sides exhibit figures which they say will substantiate their claims for the election of their respective candidates.

President Roosevelt carried the State by probably 7500. The legislative returns are still incomplete, but from figures available it is reasonably certain that both houses will be clearly Republican.

BRYAN'S HOPE SHATTERED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LINCOLN, Nov. 9.—Late returns indicate that the Republicans will have 100 of the 133 members of the Legislature. This ensures the election of a Republican United States Senator, for which position Congressman E. J. Burkett of the First District has been endorsed by the State convention.

PLURALITY OF 10,000.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

OMAHA, Nov. 9.—Returns up to noon give Roosevelt a plurality of 10,000, and a plurality of about 5000 for Berge (Fusion) for Governor.

In the Second Congress District, John L. Kennedy (Rep.) had a plurality of less than 300. Latest returns indicate that the Republicans elected their Congressmen in the First, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth districts.

The vote for Roosevelt is unprecedented and some estimates give a plurality at as high as 15,000 and it seems little doubt that it will reach at least 10,000.

NEW YORK.

PHENOMENAL VICTORIES

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Not only was there an almost phenomenal Republican victory up the State, but even the roseet predictions of the leaders, but in the city of New York the Democratic plurality was greatly reduced. The Legislature is elected by an increased majority and by an increased majority in the whole Republican ticket.

Riding in the wind and dust roughens the face and often causes painful chapping and cracking of the skin. Those who are so affected should use a pure soap. NEVADA.

REPUBLICAN BY 1000.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO (Nev.) Nov. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] 1 a.m. The State is Republican by 1000. Van Duser, (Dem.) for Congress, is defeated by 100. The Legislature is Republican on joint ballot by one vote.

CONGRESSMAN ONLY DOUBTFUL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

RENO (Nev.) Nov. 9.—Incomplete returns from over the State indicate a complete Republican victory, with Congressman only in doubt. Roosevelt's estimated majority will exceed 2000. George S. Nixon (Rep.) will undoubtedly be elected United States Senator over Hev. John Sparks to succeed Senator Stewart.

The Congressional fight is close, with possibility that Van Duser (Dem.) is elected by very close margin, but the Republican State Central Committee still claims Torrington (Rep.) by small majority.

Frank H. Norcross (Rep.) is elected Supreme Judge by a large majority.

NIXON FOR SENATOR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

RENO, Nov. 9.—Returns from this State are still incomplete. Out of 176 precincts only 78 have been heard from. The last estimate of Roosevelt's plurality is about 2000.

The Congressional fight is still in doubt, with Torrington (Rep.) leading Van Duser (Dem.) by 100 in the precincts heard from. Both parties claim the Legislature, but the most conservative Democrats conceded it to Nixon by about two votes on joint ballot for United States Senator. Nixon's election gives an unprecedented majority to the whole Republican ticket.

Statehood was the issue upon which the campaign was fought in Oklahoma, and the result is an indorsement of the Hamilton Bill, which has passed the lower house of Congress and which provides joint Statehood for Oklahoma and Indian Territory in 1906.

OREGON.

ALL COUNTIES REPUBLICAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 9.—Roosevelt's plurality in Oregon will exceed 9000, and may attain the remarkable figure of 40,000. The Republicans carried every county in the State, whereas in 1900 Bryan carried five counties. The total vote cast will exceed 90,000, of which Parker received about 30,000 votes and the other candidates for the Presidency the balance. Debs made an amazing run in this State, in the sections passing Parker. The Socialist party polled over seven thousand votes.

Direct figures will not be obtained from several interior counties for several days.

BEFORE SUCH MAJORITY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PORTLAND, Nov. 9.—Roosevelt's plurality in Oregon, estimated from the available figures, will probably exceed 40,000, twice the majority ever given a Presidential candidate in any election held in the State. Definite figures from some isolated counties will not be obtainable for several days.

The returns indicate that the question of prohibition, which was submitted to the voters of 22 counties, has been overwhelmingly defeated.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

FORTY THOUSAND MAJORITY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SIOUX FALLS (S. D.) Nov. 9.—Later returns corroborate the estimate of 40,000 majority for Roosevelt. The State ticket is elected by about the same majority.

Pierre's majority for the State capitol will be about 15,000.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

LACK OF G. O. P. PEOPLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHARLESTON (S. C.) Nov. 9.—Returns are very slow, but safe estimates place the total Democratic vote in South Carolina at from 50,000 to 60,000; Republican at 5000 to 6000.

UTAH.

ALMOST ENTIRELY REPUBLICAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SALT LAKE, Nov. 9.—Returns from about one-third of the voting precincts of the State give Roosevelt 27,281, Parker, 15,982; Debs, 1369. The precincts reported include many of the heavy Republican districts, but so uniform has been the gain for Roosevelt that it is now evident his plurality in the State will be far in excess of the first estimates.

Republican State Chairman Spry today claimed the election of the entire State ticket, an almost entire Republican Legislature and the election of the Salt Lake County ticket. The latter claim is disputed by both Democratic and American Party men. The voting strength of the latter party is problematical as yet, and will not be known until the count is finished in this city. It may be a week before accurate figures on the State vote are available.

SHOW PLURALITY'S SIZE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SALT LAKE, Nov. 9.—Partial returns from fifty voting districts of the State, mostly Salt Lake City, give Roosevelt 7350, Parker 4204. If this proportion is kept up, Roosevelt's plurality in the State will exceed 15,000. The entire Republican State ticket is elected by majorities considerably less.

The American party vote, which was very heavy in Salt Lake City, amounted to little in the country.

The Socialist vote shows heavy gains, especially in the mining and smelter district.

ALL BUT THREE COUNTIES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 9.—Unofficial returns from all but three counties in the State indicate that Roosevelt's plurality will approximate 15,000.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION (Vt.) Nov. 9.—Complete returns from Vermont: Parker 9681, Roosevelt 40,340; Roosevelt's plurality 30,810.

VIRGINIA.

ONE REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMAN

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

RICHMOND (Va.) Nov. 9.—Actual and estimated returns give Parker about 27,000 majority in the State. The Ninth Congress District is the only one carried by the Republicans.

WASHINGTON.

ROOSEVELT AND MEAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SEATTLE, Nov. 9.—Complete returns from one-fourth of all precincts in the State of Washington and incomplete returns from most of the others at noon today show that Roosevelt electors have carried this State by over 30,000 votes.

Albert L. Mead (Rep.) of Bellingham is elected Governor over George Turner (Dem.) of Spokane by between 5000 and 7000 votes. Charles E. Good (Rep.) is elected Lieutenant-Governor by fully 14,000.

Every other candidate on the Republican State ticket is elected by from 15,000 to 20,000, except Humphrey, Jones, and Cushman for Congressmen, whose majorities will be higher. The next legislature will be very strongly Republican.

MEAD IN THE LEAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 9.—Washington returns from 191 precincts in Washington outside of King, Pierce and Spokane counties, give: For Governor, Mead (Rep.) 10,648, Turner (Dem.) 8157.

MORE FOR MEAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TACOMA, Nov. 9.—Seventy-three precincts out of ninety-five in Price county give Mead (Rep.) for Governor, a majority of 1404. It is estimated the twenty-two precincts to hear from will make his majority 2000.

WYOMING.

COUNTING VERY SLOW.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHEYENNE, Nov. 9.—The ballots in Wyoming are much scratched, and the counting is very slow. Returns from many precincts are entirely missing. Roosevelt has undoubtedly carried the State by 6000 or over. The entire Republican State ticket is elected and the next Legislature will have a big Republican majority.

WEST VIRGINIA.

ROOSEVELT'S MAJORITY 20,000.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WHEELING (W. Va.) Nov. 9.—Roosevelt's majority in the State is estimated at 20,000, and Dawson, Republican, for Governor, 15,000. All five Congressmen are Republicans.

"GRANDPA'S" COMMENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ELKINS, Nov. 9.—At 1:30 this morning Henry G. Davis said:

"I have no statement to make for publication. The returns show that the country has gone overwhelmingly Republican. I will be highly gratified if my home town and county give me a good vote."

OFFERS NO FIGURES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARKERSBURG, Nov. 9.—The Republican State Committee claims the election of the State ticket, but offers no figures. The committee claims that Roosevelt has carried the State by 25,000 or 30,000. The few reports in from this county indicate that the Democratic State ticket is making very heavy gains.

DEMOCRATS CLAIM GOVERNOR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WHEELING, Nov. 9.—It is admitted by Democratic headquarters that Roosevelt has carried West Virginia by a majority of upwards of 16,000, but it is claimed that Cornwell (Dem.) has defeated Dawson (Rep.) for Governor, and that possibly the entire Democratic State ticke: may go into office on the anti-Dawson wave.

The Republicans have the Legislature on joint ballot, but by a reduced majority, insuring the return of N. B. Scott to the Senate.

Republicans have elected three of the five Congressmen, while the Democrats claim Walker wins over Dayton in the Second and Murdock over Woodward in the Fourth.

WISCONSIN.

ROOSEVELT AND LA FOLLETTE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Nov. 9.—The result of the election in Wisconsin shows that President Roosevelt ran ahead of every expectation and carried the State by a plurality estimated at between 60,000 and 75,000; that Gov. La Follette has been reelected by a plurality of about 50,000, and that the Congressional complexion remains unchanged from two years ago.

The Legislature, which is to elect a United States Senator to succeed J. V. Quarles, is largely Republican, and the question of whether Wisconsin shall have a primary election law has carried by a safe majority.

One of the surprises in the election was the big increase in the vote of the Social-Democratic party. Four years ago that party polled 4454 votes in Milwaukee; two years ago, 10,704 and in this election 18,129. The Social-Democrats elected four Assemblymen and one Senator to the Legislature.

In the Legislature, Chairman Connor of the La Follette State Central Committee claims there will be eighty members pledged to carry out the measures advocated by Gov. La Follette. Of this number 63 are Assemblymen and 17 Senators, or a majority of each house. Chairman Golden of the "Stalwart" faction claims that the "Stalwarts" and Democrats combined will control a majority of each house, and he predicts that if Senator Quarles is not reelected, the Legislature will probably find itself in a deadlock.

PECK CONCEDES DEFEAT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 9.—While returns are far from complete, estimates give Roosevelt more than 75,000 plurality in the State. Chairman Connor of the Republican State Central Committee places LaFollette's plurality in the State at about 60,000. Peck (Dem.) for Governor, concedes his defeat.

The Legislature will be largely Republican, though it looks like a deadlock on United States Senator.

The question of primary election law carried by a good majority.

UNION LABOR IN POLITICS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An attempted dictation in politics by the labor unions met a merited rebuke in Chicago. Judge Jesse Holdom, who was bitterly attacked by the unionists and the yellow press, is elected with his fellow Republican judiciary candidates. Nicholas Ger, the principal candidate of the labor unions, president of the Packing Trades-Council and one of the leaders of the stock yards strike, who ran for County Commissioner on the Democratic ticket, was snowed under with the rest.

There are two ways of wearing underwear out. One is to get on the inside and wear it out, and the other is to get it inside out and wear it in. Either way you wear it, you'll not wear it out very fast if it's Silverwood underwear.

It's not what you pay for underwear but what you get for what you pay.

Silverwood's has all sorts of underwear except the wrong sorts. Heavy underwear, medium underwear, light underwear. Silk, wool, cotton, linen, and every variation, combination, except Carry Nation.

Take a tip from me, and if you want underwear, Silverwood's is the store.

I hear a good many men say a good many things that they don't know anybody hears, and one man said he felt like he was being sand-papered till he got into a suit of Silverwood's soft finished wool combination suits.

THE COUNTY'S GRAND SUM-UP.

Twenty-two Thousand Stands Roosevelt's Plurality.

Country Precincts Come in With Swelling Vote.

Alexander Has Over Seven Hundred to Spare.

Roosevelt's plurality in Los Angeles county has mounted to the surprising and magnificent total of 22,470.

Every city precinct had been counted up yesterday morning and last night the returns came in from the last remote country voting place.

This morning The Times has complete returns from every precinct in the city and county.

The unanimity of the trend is astonishing. Rural precincts, that have gone Democratic since time out of mind, now report Republican pluralities, and the result is a Republican majority that nobody dreamed of.

San Francisco will not wrest the banner from Los Angeles, according to the latest returns.

Alexander (Ind.) is elected Supervisor in the Second District, but every other Republican nominee in the county is elected by a large plurality, as the figures given below will show.

The net result of Tuesday's election in this county is subjoined in the most comprehensive and compact form. It is all there:

WANT OUR BANNER.

SAN FRANCISCO'S BIG VOTE.

The question which is now interesting Los Angeles Republicans more than anything else, now that they know something of the magnitude of the victory which they won on Tuesday is whether any other county in the State has polled a larger Republican plurality than Los Angeles County and therefore will lay claim to the Republican State banner which Los Angeles County won two years ago.

San Francisco has already made a bid for it but it will take the official canvass to decide which of the two counties shall have it. The chances are that Los Angeles County will retain it but the contest will be very close. Yesterday Chairman Bradner W. Lee of the Republican County Central Committee received the following telegram from Gen. George Stone, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee:

"SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—I congratulate you upon your great victory and give notice that we are a close second in San Francisco County, probably 15,000 to 17,000 for Roosevelt. All eight Congressmen are elected and the Legislature practically unanimous.
[Signed] "GEORGE STONE,
"Chairman."

"SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—Against your magnificent showing San Francisco presents 21,833 plurality for Roosevelt, and you may make preparations to bring the banner here.
[Signed] "GEORGE H. STONE,
"Chairman."

The total vote in Los Angeles County was so large that Chairman Lee is not yet willing to concede that the figures given by Gen. Stone are sufficiently large to win the banner. Los Angeles has cast a plurality of more than 22,000 for Roosevelt.

Socialist Vote.

The total Socialist vote polled in the city was 2351. It was heaviest in the First, Sixth and Seventh wards, where in a few instances it was greater than the Democratic vote.

Constitutional Amendments.

Vote on the constitutional amendments was light, especially in the country districts, and more than one elector in four paid any attention to the amendments. Amendments 11 and 20 failed to carry either in the city or the county. The other amendments were approved. Amendment No. 11 provides for the exemption of shipping from taxation; No. 20 provides that each member of the Legislature shall be entitled to a clerk of his own selection at a salary of $4 per day. Country precincts gave a majority against the San Francisco Sea Wall Act.

WILL WORK TO DEFEAT WERDIN.

A. P. FLEMING RESIGNS FROM CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Will Manage Municipal League's Campaign for Hanley and Non-Partisan School Board Candidates. Scores Werdin in Letter to Chairman McGarvin.

A. P. Fleming, Republican and president of the Automobile Club of Southern California, has resigned from the Republican City Central Committee in order to become active chairman of the Municipal League's campaign Executive Committee. Chief among the objects to be worked for by the Municipal League are the defeat of E. R. Werdin, candidate for reelection to the office of Street Superintendent, and the election of the non-partisan school-board candidates.

As a member of the Republican City Central Committee it was incumbent upon Mr. Fleming to support Werdin, the party nominee. He prefers to support former Supervisor James Hanley, independent candidate for Street Superintendent, and so has withdrawn from the committee. In his letter of resignation to Chairman D. C. McGarvin Mr. Fleming says:

SCORES WERDIN.

"The administration of Mr. Werdin has been characterized by violation of the law in his open and notorious disregard of ordinance No. 22,461, in his extravagance, incompetence and combination with contractors; in the manner in which the deposits for repair of the streets have been handled; in the destroying of beautiful streets dedicated by parties laying out additions; and further, his administration of his office of Street Superintendent for the past two years simply illustrates that he is incompetent to hold so important a position. Believing it to be for the very best interests of the Republican party that he be retired, I shall do what I can to further entrench the principals of Republicanism in the hearts of the people by assisting in the defeat of Mr. Werdin at the coming city election. I do not consider that the test of Republicanism is the support of Werdin, but I do believe his defeat will redound to the credit of the party."

LEAGUE'S STATEMENT.

The Municipal League has issued the following statement:

"The Municipal League has decided, by action of its Executive Committee, to participate in the coming city campaign in behalf of James Hanley for Street Superintendent and the Non-partisan School Board, C. C. Davis, W. J. Washburn, J. S. Slauson, J. D. Bicknell, Joseph Scott and J. M. Guinn. The league will open headquarters on the second floor of the Hollenbeck Hotel, with A. P. Fleming as chairman of the Campaign Executive Committee. The following will serve as members of this committee: A. P. Fleming, L. N. Van Nuys, Willis Booth, A. J. Cass, Niles Pease, J. R. Mathews, A. C. Bilicke, F. W. Braun, Fred L. Baker, Kaspare Cohn, Dr. Joseph Kurtz, A. J. Wallace, F. W. Bornett, J. M. Norton, H. S. McKee, James C. Kays, H. Jevne, W. H. Holabird, E. F. C. Klokke, Frank Simpson, W. J. Hunsaker, N. B. Blackstone, J. G. Mossin and Fielding J. Stilson.

QUEER INDUSTRIES.

Men in Paris Who Act as Guardian Angels for Victims of Alcoholism.

[Pall Mall Gazette:] The ramasseur de suit is the humblest member of the ragpicker's corporation. He is generally a laborer out of work, and collects whatever he can find and judges salable, from a scrap of paper or an orange peel to a dilapidated glove. Take old boots, for example. However bad, they have a market value, for they always contain in the instep one sound piece that can serve again, and generally two or three more at the heel and the back.

Old provision tins, again, are full of money; the lead soldering can be removed and melted into cakes, while the tin goes to make children's toys. There are about 6000 of this class of night birds in Paris, and their earnings average 5d. a day, a respectable total of £213 daily for the lot.

Another quaint night bird is the "guardian angel." The "guardian angel" is a person attached to the establishments of some mastroquets—low barkeepers and certain public houses, for the purpose of looking after the safety of drunken customers. He accompanies them to their homes, defends them in case of need, as often as not has to put them to bed, and leaves them only when they are without the reach of mischief. He earns about 2s. a day. Cases are also on record where grateful drunkards have remembered the "angel" in their wills. To return the compliment, the "angel" has invested some of his funds in the purchase of a barrow, the object of which is but too obvious.

An important night bird is the member of the guild des pattes mouillées. He deals in tobacco manufactured from stumps of cigars and cigarettes picked up in the street, and holds auctions on the Place Maubert by the statue of Etienne Dolet, twice a week at 3 o'clock a.m.; on these days the square is called the "market of wet paws."

Kern County's Rebuke to Walking Delegates.

Judge Fought by the Unions Boosted to Bench.

All Southern California's Happy Showing.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Yesterday was the first time in its history that Kern county gave a majority for a Republican Presidential candidate. The vote for Roosevelt, count now almost complete, is 2164 and Parker's 1681. The Democratic local candidates all received better votes than the head of the ticket.

By the election of Judge Paul W. Bennett to the Superior Court bench, to which he was appointed by Gov. Pardee a year and a half ago, by a majority of 210 votes, Kern county has administered a stinging rebuke to rampant labor unionism and the efforts of the walking delegates to dictate politics.

Judge Bennett presided at the trial of the case against John D. Ackermann of the Yellow Aster Mining Company charged with unlawfully importing laborers to Randsburg during the strike, and he dismissed the information and held that none other could be filed under the law. For this he was fought with the utmost bitterness by the unions. The County Labor Council passed resolutions condemning him and indorsing his opponent, A. B. Bigler. Notwithstanding this, hundreds of union men undoubtedly voted for Bennett, and at Randsburg, the former stronghold of Democracy and the miners' union, he tied his opponent in both precincts. Coming as it did at a time when unionism has its own troubles with the bartenders, the indorsement of his opponent proved a help to Judge Bennett.

What is true of Judge Bennett is also true in a less degree of Hon. S. C. Smith, who carried the county for Congress by 300 majority. A few days before the election the labor council came out with an indorsement of his opponent, Dr. Lucas. Just what the council found objectionable in Senator Smith is not clear, but the result shows its enmity to have been a help to him instead of a drawback. The Republicans have reflected Dorsey to the Assembly by only 130 votes, after he had been indorsed by the labor council.

IT'S A STUNNER.

VENTURA COUNTY SHOWING.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

VENTURA, Nov. 9.—The immense majority given for Roosevelt yesterday by this small county is a stunner. Out of a total of a little more than 3500 votes the President received 1895, to 1421 for Parker, a plurality of 1156 for Roosevelt. This is by far the biggest vote ever given a candidate for the Presidency in the history of the county. Four years ago McKinley had but 375 plurality. Two years ago, in the gubernatorial campaign, the county cast 700 majority for the Republican ticket. This was the largest until Roosevelt came on the field. The Prohibition vote of the county is about the same as two years ago while the Socialist vote about doubled. This year there are over 200 Socialist votes in the county. In one precinct the socialist vote was greater than that cast for Parker.

Col. Perkins for the Assembly, polled the biggest majority in the county. This may be taken as an evidence of the estimation in which Senator Bard is held, as Perkins was chosen to carry the Bard banner in the county.

In the Ojai supervisorial fight, where there was a Republican revolt against the nominee, Smith, Clark won by a majority of twenty-seven. The totals were Clark 198, Smith 171. Clark carried every precinct excepting one, that of Santa Ana, where it was a tie vote.

In the Oxnard district, Supervisor Gabbert won over Borchard, (Dem.) by 150 majority. The totals were: Gabbert 346, Borchard 256. Gabbert had incurred the displeasure of certain factions of the saloon element by his votes on the tamperance question and the fight against him was fought with bitterness.

In Ventura district, Hartmann, Democratic incumbent, was elected supervisor over Begg by 41 majority. In the voting Hartmann received 343 votes to 301 for Begg. Precincts 1 and 3 were for the successful man by big ger majorities than his opponent could secure in the other two precincts of the town. Here are the county's main figures: Roosevelt 1995, Parker 827; Smith 1820, Lucas 360; Greenwell 1898, Orena 364; Perkins 2025, Moultrie, 818.

ORANGE COUNTY.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SANTA ANA, Nov. 9.—The unofficial vote of the county as compiled from the entire thirty-four precincts of the county at Republican headquarters gives the following results: Republican electors, 3069; Democratic, 1639; Socialist, 486; Prohibition, 275. For Congressman, Smith (Rep.) 2557, Lucas (Dem.) 1057, Richardson (Soc.) 405, Close (Pro.) 217; for State Senator, Anderson (Rep.) 2681, Mills (Dem.) 1162, Mallory (Soc.) 344; for Assemblyman, Amerige (Rep.) 2114, Hankey (Dem.) 1274, Hawley (Soc.) 354.

The total vote cast was 4451 out of a registration of 5725. All the amendments, with the possible exception of the judiciary amendment, were lost. Returns on amendments have not yet been received from some of the precincts.

E. R. Amerige, candidate for Assemblyman, whose sharp fight with J. A. Hankey was the most interesting feature of the local campaign, was defeated by the Democratic candidate in only two precincts, Fullerton and Olinda, where the vote stood 113 to 134 and 62 to 71, respectively.

SANTA BARBARA.

ALMOST COMPLETE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

In three of the Supervisorial districts the result was the election of J. H. Frick (Rep.) by a majority of 237, J. W. Ballard (Dem.) by 201. In third precinct Cyril Lamb (Rep.) and Frank H. Glass tied.

FIVE HUNDRED.

SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Complete returns, with three small precincts outstanding, give Roosevelt 1641, Parker 1129, Lorigan 1637, Dooling 1131. For Congress, Smith (Rep.) 1775, Lucas (Dem.) 1173. For State Senator, Lynch (Rep.) 1854, Felix (Dem.) 1144. For Assembly, John (Rep.) 1962, Rigdon (Dem.) 1246.

FEW DEMOCRATS

IN RIVERSIDE COUNTY.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 9.—Completed returns from all but three precincts in the county were counted by County Clerk Phelps this afternoon on an adding machine as follows: Roosevelt, 2613; Parker, 674; Debs, 519; Swallow, 194. The three precincts yet to be heard from are Palo Verde, Cahuilla and Auld. There are less than seventy votes in all three: Palo Verde will probably go Socialist.

From returns not quite so complete, Smith has 2472 and Lucas 676; for State Senator, Anderson has 2498, Mills (Dem.) 678, and Mallery (Soc.) 681. Estudillo for Assemblyman has 2697, Hudson (Dem.) 695, and Edmiston (Soc.) 500.

The Democrats carried just one small precinct in Riverside county, El Casco, and that stood 13 to 12. Menifee went back on them for the first time in the history of the county. The final plurality of the county will be something more than 1900.

SAN PEDRO.

FIRST TIME IN YEARS.

SAN PEDRO, Nov. 9.—For the first time in sixteen years San Pedro has gone Republican, and by the good majority of 219 votes. The Republican ticket polled 402 votes, the Democratic ticket 183, Socialist 101, and Prohibition 24. McLachlan for Congress carried Morton 409 to 134. Wintersmith for Assembly polled 429 votes to 313 for Bicermer.

Terminal Island and Wilmington have both gone "dry," the former by the close vote of 87 to 67.

A Working Church.

A young minister was called to a church in a few years ago to a church in a Southeastern city. His predecessor had been a well-known preacher whose sermons had attracted large congregations. The whose expressed belief was that the clergyman's single duty was the spiritual welfare of his people. The church had failed to meet current expenses for several years, and its accumulated debt was increasing with monotonous regularity. The newcomer was not a wonderful orator, but he had a big mouth and jaw. Within two years he was at the head of a smoothly running business organization. Those appointments were handled by men who understood their work and did it. They discounted its bills and reduced the old indebtedness. The church had become a working church.

NOT TO DISTURB THE MARKET.

SECRETARY SHAW TO TREAT BANK DEPOSITS GENTLY.

It is Not Expected that When He Comes to Study the Money Question He Will Make Any Drafts that Will Embarrass the National Depositories of Government Funds.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) As soon as Secretary of the Treasury Shaw returns to Washington from Iowa, it is expected he will begin to give consideration to the question of drawing from the national banks part of the deposits of government money that they now hold. The total government deposits with the national banks now are $104,859,000, which is smaller by several millions than these deposits have been for some years past.

It is not anticipated that Secretary Shaw will make any drafts on the banks for sums that will embarrass them or disturb the money market. It is understood to be his intention to withdraw about $20,000,000 or $25,000,000 between this time and the first of the year, if possible, and at the Treasury Department it is believed that amount can be withdrawn without the least disturbance to the money rates. The withdrawal of this amount will bring the working balance in the treasury up to $50,000,000.

Secretary Shaw will also, on his return to Washington, begin the task of framing his annual report to Congress. The important feature of his report this year may be his reasons for financial legislation. For something like two years the Republican leaders in and out of Congress have been studying this question, and it is expected the forthcoming report of the Secretary of the Treasury will reveal what the general plan of proposed legislation is to be.

BRYAN ISSUES STATEMENT.

TELLS WHAT HE THINKS OF DEMOCRATIC CATASTROPHE.

Parker Himself Not so Bad, Says Nebraskan, but He Intimates that People Who Professed One Thing and Did the Other Got All Coming to Them.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

LINCOLN (Neb.) Nov. 9.—William J. Bryan gave out an extended statement today commenting on the results of yesterday's elections. He said:

"The defeat of Judge Parker should not be considered a personal one. He did as well as he could under the circumstances; he was the victim of unfavorable conditions and of a mistaken party policy. The reorganizers are to be congratulated. The party is to be congratulated. They planned the campaign and carried it on according to their own views, and the verdict against their plan is unanimous. Surely silver cannot be blamed for this defeat, for the campaign was run on a gold basis. Neither can the defeat be charged to equitable condemnation of the trusts, for the trusts were not assailed as vigorously this year as they were four years ago. It is evident that the campaign did not turn upon the question of imperialism, and it is not fair to consider the result as a personal victory for the President, for his administration was the subject of much criticism.

"The result was due to the fact that the Democratic party attempted to be conservative in the presence of conditions which demand radical remedies. It sounded a partial retreat when it should have ordered a charge all along the line.

"The Democratic party has nothing to gain by catering to organized and predatory wealth. It must not only do without such support, but it can strengthen itself by inviting the open and emphatic opposition of those elements. The campaign just closed shows that it is as ill-advised from the standpoint of policy as it is wrong from the standpoint of principle to attempt any conciliation of the industrial and financial despots who are gradually getting control of all the avenues of wealth. The Democratic party, if it hopes to win success, must take the side of the plain, common people.

"The election has opened the eyes of the hundreds of thousands of honest and well-meaning Democrats who, a few months ago, favored the reorganization of the party. These men now see that they must either go into the Republican party or join with the Democrats of the West and South in making the Democratic party a positive, aggressive and progressive reform organization. There is no middle ground."

HE WILL ASSIST.

Now that the campaign is over, Mr. Bryan says he will assist those who desire to put the Democratic party once more on a strong basis; he will assist in organizing for the campaign of 1908.

"It does not matter so much who the nominee may be. During the next three years circumstances may bring into the arena some man especially fitted to carry the standard. It will be time then to nominate a candidate.

"But," said he, "we ought to begin now to lay our plans for the next national campaign and to form the line of battle.

"The party must continue to protest against a large army, against a large navy and to stand for the independence of the Philippines.

"The party must also maintain its position on the tariff. The party must renew its demand for an income tax. The party must maintain its position in favor of bimetallism.

"The trust question presents the most acute phase of the contest between Democracy and plutocracy so far as economic issues are concerned.

"Death to every private monopoly' must be the slogan of the party on this question; any other position is a surrender.

"The party must continue its defense of the interests of the wage earners. The fact that laboring men have not always shown their appreciation of the party's position ought not to deter the party from doing its duty in regard to them. They must so limit the authority of the courts in contempt cases as to overthrow what is known as government by injunction. The party must continue its opposition to national banks of issue and must insist upon divorcing the Treasury Department from Wall street.

"The party must continue its fight for the popular election of Senators and for direct legislation wherever the principle can be applied. It must not only maintain its position on old issues, but it must advance to the consideration of new questions as they arise."

Track layers yesterday began extending the Glendale electric line from its present northern terminus a half-mile to the old Verdugo ranch-house, the quaint and historical adobe structure that is to be made a refreshment resort for tourists. Workmen are also engaged on the house, adapting it to modern use. Its original walls and contour will not be altered. An augmented car service to this point will be inaugurated in December. To sample the Spanish style that is to prevail there, the following members of the Pacific Electric staff were entertained at an old-time dinner Tuesday night by Señora Piedad Yorba of No. 1924 Estrella avenue: General Manager A. D. Schindler, Traffic Manager J. McMillan, Assistant General Passenger Agent Stewart, Advertising Manager R. S. Knoeder and Melville Dozier of the engineering department.

Prices of Art Treasures.

Mr. Morgan having returned the celebrated "stolen cope" to the Italian government, inquiry has again become general as to how the prices are fixed upon these things. A hundred years ago the manuscript of Milton's "Paradise Lost" was worth about $100. Today it is priceless, and Mr. Morgan, the present owner, is said to have paid a quarter of a million for it. There are pieces of tapestry in the possession of rich New Yorkers for which they have paid $100 a square inch. Millet's "The Angelus" is said to be worth $150,000, and there are hundreds of pieces of canvas scattered over Europe and America worth quite as much. When a Stradivarius violin is sold at public auction in London for so great a sum as $2500 the fact is deemed worthy to be cabled to the ends of the earth. A railroad is sold for a billion or a corner lot in Manhattan for the revenues of a principality and nothing is said. These baubles, though of great price, are common enough. But a Strad! In all the world there are scarcely a dozen of these precious old fiddles, and all the cunning of modern invention cannot add to their number. It would be $25,000 instead of $2500 if fiddling were as profitable as trainwrecking or trust busting or if fiddles appealed to the eccentric fancy of the very rich.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

New French Coin.

The French are having a hard time with their nickels. The old ones were so much like the silver franc piece that the people protested; they kept giving a piece worth 20 cents for one worth 5. At last they have changed the shape. The new nickel will be rounded with acute corners, so that by the simple touch the difference will be perceptible. About twenty millions will, in a few days, be thrown into circulation. —Brooklyn Eagle.

THEY PROTEST.

Women Object to Being Classed With Criminals and Imbeciles in New Statehood Bill.

The federation of the Women's Christian Temperance Union yesterday took up the cudgels on behalf of the people who are protesting against the granting of a saloon license at Seventh and Mateo streets. At the meeting held in University Methodist Church it was decided to meet at the City Hall on Tuesday morning next to protest against the granting of the license referred to.

It was also decided to hold a mass meeting in December to emphasize their protest against smoking on street cars.

Mrs. M. T. Boyd was directed to forward to the Committee on Statehood at Washington a protest against the manner in which women are classed in the bill designed to give Statehood to Oklahoma and Arizona. They are mentioned among imbeciles, criminals and others as persons who may be disfranchised at the will of the State.

Addresses were made at the meeting yesterday by Rev. B. O. Kendall, Rev. Dr. E. A. Healy, Rev. C. Carey Willett and others.

"Tomorrow" is the soft lounge on which the weak human will lays down to rest.

If you keep on saying "tomorrow" in response to that prompting of your better judgment that tells you to get in your order for a winter overcoat, you may wake up some fine morning to find winter camped in town and you without an Overcoat—or with that one that is maybe two or three years old. The old one won't do for cold Sundays, any way.

The dark brown mixtures that are quiet in character seem to be most popular in overcoatings just now. We have some of the best things that England has produced in this line. Some extremely pleasing $30 ones, too.

We make others for as little as $20.

"THE GRABBER" ON THE GANG.

Capture of Ruffian Who Has Insulted Women.

His Penchant Was to Reach for Their Ankles.

Last Victim a Spanish Girl Who Convicted Him.

The blear-eyed ruffian whom the police have nicknamed "Jack the Grabber," was sent to the chain gang yesterday—caught at his wretched work of insulting girls on the street.

Time and again women have complained to the police of a man who stands in the shadows of the downtown streets and grabs at their legs as they pass.

It is always young and handsome women who are his victims.

On election night, a beautiful Spanish girl, breathless with fright, begged the protection of Officer Walsh. She said that a tall, rough-looking man jumped out at her from a doorway on North Main street and insulted her.

Walsh started to look for Jack the Grabber, who was already known to the police.

At the station, Jack the Grabber, gave the name of J. W. McCoy. He is an ungainly, beery-faced low-browed bestial-looking loafer.

At the hour set for his hearing yesterday, the Grabber came stumbling up the stairs, shambling along like a bear. All the clothes he had on was a pair of trousers and a most amazing pink undershirt.

They made him go back down stairs and find some sort of a coat.

When his case was called, the Grabber stood up with a sheepish grin, slobbering over his silly laughter as a drunken man spews beer over his person.

His excuse was as amazing as his pink undershirt. He admitted that he grabbed at the pretty Spanish girl. He said he thought she was Katie Abbott, an actress of much fame.

He said he used to know Katie well. When he saw this girl he thought it was Katie; he was so surprised at seeing Katie that he just had to reach out and grab her in the excess of his emotion.

Justice Chambers thought that about twenty-five days on the chain gang might impress upon him the necessity of making sure of identities.

The police say that this same man McCoy has been sent to jail once before for grabbing women as they passed. They fel assured that it is he who has been terrorizing women walking along on the streets.

Jack the Grabber and His Latest Victim.

MISSION CONVENTION.

Second Annual Gathering of Women Methodists of Pasadena District at Alhambra.

The second annual convention of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church for the Pasadena District will be held next Tuesday in the Methodist Church at Alhambra. This will be an all-day session.

The programme provides for an address on the frontier work by Dr. S. A. Thomson, who was for several years superintendent of Methodist missions in Arizona; and for important reports.

The annual home missionary convention for the Los Angeles district will be held in the Westlake Methodist Church on Friday, and the hospital work will be discussed.

The Methodist women of the Home Missionary Society are determined to place their deaconess hospital work on a more permanent basis, and they have appointed Miss Lydia Alexander, daughter of County Supervisor George Alexander, as secretary of the hospital work, and they have adopted a plan of issuing "hospital founders' stock." This stock is divided into $13 shares, and the Methodist women are now exerting themselves to secure 1000 women subscribers throughout the Southern California conference bounds.

Although the new plan was only launched during the past two weeks there have already been generous responses, and the Home Missionary workers believe that they will be able to raise the desired $12,000 before the next session of the annual conference of the Methodist Church.

RIBBON GIRL WEDS WEALTH.

ROMANCE THAT BEGAN BEHIND DRY GOODS COUNTER.

Pretty Los Angeles Maiden Meets Her Fate in Form of Middle-aged Customer—And Now They Are Going to Europe—A Sensation for the Local French Colony.

From the modest position of a saleswoman at the Boston Store to that of the wife of a wealthy man of leisure and great traveler is the step just taken by a beautiful young lady of this city; and the news of the marriage, which has just been made public, although it occurred about three weeks ago, has created a sensation both in the French colony of Los Angeles and among certain circles in Pasadena.

The principal characters in the romance are H. W. Herwitt, aged 53 years, a wealthy man who has traveled all over the world, spent much time in the capitals of Europe and the larger cities of the East, but who finally succumbed to the charms of Pasadena as a place of residence, and came there a few months ago with the avowed intention of making that city his permanent home; and Mlle. Eugene Ep Parrient, an American by birth, but the daughter of French parents, whose native place is New Orleans, and whose age is 21.

Mlle. Parrient was charmingly pretty, vivacious, and in need of sympathy, as a stranger in a strange land, with relatives not to be found, when she had expected to rely on them after her arrival in Los Angeles. Could there be a more suitable "culture" for the germs of affection and love than this? Events have proved that the situation was productive of rapid work on the part of Cupid in the heart of the wealthy Pasadena bachelor.

Mlle. Parrient had the misfortune to lose her mother more than a year ago, and within a short time her father took unto himself another wife; but, alas, the new mother did not approve of the presence in her household of her stepdaughter, and she let it be understood that mademoiselle should get out and earn her own living.

At last matters became so distressing in the New Orleans household that the pretty stepdaughter bethought herself of her cousin in California, and decided to come to Los Angeles, and ask his protection and his assistance in securing for her a place to earn her living without domestic troubles.

When Mlle. Parrient arrived in Los Angeles she found that her cousin was no longer here, but had become one of the throng that rushed to Alaska in the search for gold. She appealed to members of the French colony, and at once was aided in securing a position as a saleswoman in the Boston Store.

Wishing to buy a little gift for a lady, the Pasadena bachelor wandered into the Boston Store soon after the pretty French saleswoman was employed, and she chanced to wait on him. The purchase seemed to require a good deal of time; and this led to Herwitt's going back on other occasions to the counter of the new clerk at the Boston Store. Within three weeks there was a quiet wedding, and now Mr. and Mrs. Herwitt are in New York for a brief visit before starting on a prolonged journey through continental Europe.

AMUSED THEMSELVES.

Fred Bales and James Golden, two workingmen who should have known better, amused themselves by throwing rocks at a Grand avenue car near Twenty-third street last night and were promptly arrested by Detectives McKenzie and Ocwen who happened to be on the car. They were locked up on a charge of disturbance.

ALL A-GLITTER WITH GLORY.

Santa Barbara Gets News of the Election.

Times' Coast Line "Flyer" Makes Quick Trip.

Glad Tidings Hailed With Joy by Barbarians.

"Glittering Gloria" arrived at Santa Barbara twelve hours ahead of scheduled time.

The "Barbarians" were entertained last night by a theatrical production of that name, but the real "Glittering Gloria" arrived at 8 o'clock in the morning and sent patriotic thrills through the spines of the denizens of the Channel City. The nocturnal performance was a mere sideshow compared with the matutinal event.

It was The Times special train bearing news of the glorious Republican victory that left a glittering trail all the way from Los Angeles to Santa Barbara. There was glory enough for all—a surfeit of it alike for Angelefios and Barbarians, and dwellers by the way—glory such as angels and men have not heretofore beheld upon this mundane sphere—glittering gloria, the luster of which dims all former political triumphs in the history of these free and United States.

At 4 o'clock yesterday morning the first special newspaper train that ever ran out of Los Angeles over the Coast line of the Southern Pacific Railroad, steamed away from River Station Santa Barbara-ward. It was a special Times train and carried a large extra edition of the Los Angeles Daily Times, containing election returns from Los Angeles city and county, and State of California, and the entire country—returns as complete as could be had up to the hour of 3 o'clock of the night following the closing of the polls. The Times having spared no expense to convey to its readers authentic information of the result of the battle of the ballots at the earliest possible moment.

It is no uncommon thing for The Times to have a special train service to deliver this great journal of progress and enlightenment, fresh from the press, in the foothill cities from Pasadena to Redlands, even unto the City of Grief, slumbering serenely on the sun-kissed shores of San Diego Bay, but this is the first time that the news has been served red-hot for breakfast to the cities, villages and hamlets situated no? by west of Los Angeles, as far distant as Santa Barbara.

The Times reached the Channel City yesterday morning four hours in advance of any other Los Angeles newspaper, and it was a stroke of enterprise duly appreciated by the Barbarians and residents of way stations.

The special which spread the glad tidings along the northwest coast consisted of engine No. 1414 of the Southern Pacific, a baggage car and a caboose. Engineer Seymour was at the throttle, and he "turned her wide open." Conductor Jake Baum (namesake of "Col." Jakob Baum of The Times,) commanded in the caboose, and was assisted in the handling of the train by Brakesman Moore and Biggs, all tried and true men of the "Espee" train-operating department.

There was on board, besides the train crew, George C. Knox, assistant circulation manager of The Times, a Times scribe and four news huskies, the pick and flower of the itinerant news merchants of Los Angeles—the same being Eddie Morse, alias "Frisco;" Harry Bloom, John Enos and George Harter. There may be handsomer lads among the "newsies" of the Angel City than these four purveyors of the news of the day, but none who can make more raucous noise, or sell more "copies" "Frisco" has the distinction of being the newsboy who broke the Riverside Orange Growers' Bank, by standing in front of it and bawling out the news of the Tom Hays defalcation. But for his stentorian announcement, the people of Riverside might never have found out about Tom Hays's perfidy.

It was on no bank-wrecking errand that "Frisco" and his pals journeyed forth on The Times north coast "flyer." Their mission was to take the place of The Times' siren as a noise producer, to let the yokels along the line of the "Espee" through the famous lima country of Santa Barbara and Ventura counties know that Roosevelt and Fairbanks were elected—and to sell papers giving details of the victory. In this they were successful.

An attempt was made before starting to attach the siren to the whistle of Engine 1414 in order to awaken the countryside with the joyous notes of victory as The Times "flyer" sped by, but Engineer Seymour had such a big head of steam on that the connection could not be made without serious scalding of fingers. The mammoth tooter was accordingly left at home to prolong its exultant notes for the benefit of the Angelefios.

Recourse could not be had to The Times cannons as noise-provokers on the trip for the reason that the enthusiastic gunners had expended all the ammunition in The Times magazine, in firing salutes in honor of the conquering heroes—Roosevelt and Fairbanks—during the earlier portion of the night. "Frisco" and his fellow "newsies," however, furnished plenty of noise for the occasion.

It was a little past 4 o'clock when the "flyer" crossed the Los Angeles River and flew up the San Fernando Valley. After leaving the electric lights of the city behind, Engine 1414 was soon hitting only the high places, while the caboose at the end of the train flew around the curves like the cracker of a whip, threatening at each turn to fly the track. In the big baggage car which clung more closely to the rails, Assistant Circulation Manager Knox and newsboys were arranging the packages of newspapers in the order in which they were to be dropped from the train as the several stations were reached. The "newsies" had been up all night selling Times extras, but they were eager for more business; and mad the welkin ring with their shouts as the train sped by farmhouses and towns.

The first bale of papers was dropped on the fly at Fernando, before Aurora took her first peep over the eastern mountain tops. The old mission town was still wrapped in slumber and the train was a mere streak in the darkness as it thundered by the station. The unusual noise and clatter, however, awakened the sleepy agent, and he was down on the depot platform in a trice to rip open the bundle of papers to get a glimpse at the headlines announcing the triumphant election of the Republican standard-bearers.

At the Fernando tunnel the progress of the "flyer" was blocked by a freight train proceeding through the big hole ahead of the special. The telegraph operator at the south end of the tunnel had copped just enough election news off the wire during the night to have a good appetite for an allopathic dose of the same, and he came to the door of his office to ask for a copy of The Times giving all the details to date. He was accommodated.

Newhall got a bundle of papers on the fly, and at Saugus the "flyer" was held a short while for orders.

Dawn was just beginning to be faintly seen in the east when the train left Saugus and glided down the Santa Clara Valley into the fertile fields and orchards of Ventura county. At each station along the way a bundle of papers was dropped as the train slacked speed slightly. At Santa Paula it came to a full stop and "Dad" McIntosh, the veteran station agent, cheerily called from an upper window where he was still cosily ensconced in his downy bed:

"Well, now's Teddy this morning?"

"Oh, he's all right; he's it; decidedly the whole thing. Come down and get a copy of The Times and get wise about the walloping he has given 'Judge' Parker," replied a member of the train crew.

McIntosh was in his jeans and down stairs instantly, with a paper in his hand poring over the news with a pleased eye. The railroad men all took Roosevelt's election as a matter of course. "Teddy" is popular with the trainmen because he often rides in the cab with the engineer and never fails to shake hands with the train crews who see him safely through a journey, no matter how grimy their hands may be. Besides, the President is an honorary member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, and the boys of the rail can't help but feel that "Teddy" is one of them. The trainmen's vote was a stupendous factor in rolling up that magnificent majority.

It was a little after 6 o'clock when the "flyer" reached Santa Paula, and the natives were already astir. They flocked to the station to get the news and were mightily tickled over it. Here one of the newsboys left the train and went roaring through the town with a bundle of Times under his arm. They sold like hot cakes.

At Montalvo a double supply of papers for Oxnard and Hueneme was dropped. Agent Thacher was on hand with a horse and wagon to hurry them to the sugar town, so that Times readers there could enjoy the sweet morsels with their breakfast.

At Ventura, Agent MacGreggor was on deck with a big express wagon to give his customers early delivery of The Times—earlier by some hours than they ever had before.

"By heck, it 'pears them Democratic prognosticators don't know beans when they try to make forecasts about the result of the election," said a veteran bean grower as he scanned the headlines in The Times. "Why, Roosevelt has simply wiped the yearth with them, and they have been claiming everything in sight right along. Durn their beanstalks, will the Democratic campaign managers ever get to be anything but false alarms and fake prophets?"

One of the "newsies" stayed at Ventura to help wake up the good old town by the sea with his melodious voice, proclaiming the arrival of the election extra of The Times with all the latest news of how "Teddy" put the kibosh upon the Esopus "Alice ran." They were not hard to awaken and the "New York Kid" did a land office business in disposing of extras.

At Carpinteria the "flyer" had to take the sidetrack to let three southbound passenger trains pass. Here a number of ladies joined in the rush around the Times train to get the election news. Some of the fair sex did not take time to complete their toilets in their eagerness to get the news first.

A little after 8 o'clock the "flyer" steamed into Santa Barbara, where a horde of local newsboys was waiting to get The Times extras to serve to eager customers. Among the number was young Frank Brooks, who made a fine record in The Times Scholarship contest last summer, and who calls himself a Roosevelt boy. Young Frank is one of the strenuous kind, and he was the first to be off with his pack of papers to sell up town. Five minutes after the arrival of the "flyer" at the Victoria station The Times was being cried on State street, and was being snapped up by news-hungry Barbarians who wanted more details of the election than furnished by their small but enterprising home papers.

"Frisco" and his remaining companion made a bee line for the Potter Hotel, not for the purpose of enjoying a sumptuous breakfast, but to sell Times extras to the guests of the big hostelry. The hotel people, unused to such raucous sounds at this restful retreat, thought a steam calliope had run amuck when "Frisco" came yawping into the caravansary with his fog-horn voice. As The Times is kept on sale at the hotel news stand, and an extra supply having been ordered for this occasion, "Frisco" and his pard were gently, but firmly, ordered off the hotel grounds, lest their megaphone stunt should disturb the late-sleeping guests. As the invitation to vamoose was accompanied with a threat to call the police, "Frisco" and "Bloomers" transferred the scene of their activities to State street, and the residence sections of the city, in competition with the local "newsies." There was plenty of business for all, so the Barbarians, or, perhaps, more properly speaking, the Barbareños, enjoyed the luxury of their favorite Los Angeles paper four hours ahead of the usual time of securing it.

People of the Channel City generally commended the enterprise of The Times-Mirror Company in sending out a special train to give the residents of Santa Barbara and way stations an opportunity to get the election returns in an approximately complete form the morning after the balloting.

Acknowledgment is hereby made of the courtesy of the Southern Pacific employés in charge of The Times special. They did the best they could under the existing traffic schedule to make a quick trip.

JOLLY BOYS' CLUB.

The ladies of the Los Angeles Fellowship entertained the members of the Jolly Boys' Club of the Detention Home last night with an interesting programme. There were instrumental selections by Miss Perlina Allen, Miss Starr and Miss Ludwig. Rev. B. Fay Mills gave a short talk, and James L. Lee of Pasadena pleased the lads with several dialect readings and songs. The boys themselves sang "Columbia" with vigor, and closed the programme with their salute to the American flag. Carnations were presented to the Detention Home boys by Miss Perlina Allen.

SHOOTING IN CHESTER PLACE.

Doheny Residence Scene of Exciting Fusillade.

Criminal Seriously Wounded, but Makes Escape.

A rapid exchange of revolver shots—nine in all—fired at close range, between an officer and a burglar, at 4 o'clock yesterday evening, startled the fashionable residence quarter of Chester Place, and started half of the local police force out on a man hunt which lasted all night without result at the hour of going to press.

Five of the shots were fired by an unknown burglar, or would-be burglar, and four by Special Officer J. S. Hendrickson, who is employed by the residents of Chester Place as night watchman. One of Hendrickson's shots is known to have taken effect, and it is believed the burglar is so severely wounded as to result in his ultimate capture.

Two bullets passed through Hendrickson's clothing, and his right hand is powder-burned as a result of the fusillade, but he miraculously escaped serious injury.

The shooting took place at the domicile of the well-known oil magnate, E. L. Doheny, considered in many respects the most sumptuous private residence in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Doheny are in Mexico at present, and the house is in care, during their absence of Mrs. Doheny's sister, Mrs. Johnson.

Hendrickson, the night watchman, is a young man who has had a great deal of experience as a peace officer, and he has led a life of adventure which has brought him in many trying positions. He is no novice in the use of firearms, and he knows what it is to shoot and be shot, for upon his body are at least three bullet wounds received in self-defense and in discharge of duty. He has visited every diamond field in the world and explored the wilds of South America, besides having served on the detective force of Chicago for five years, under Inspector Hunt. In these varied experiences he has had many close calls from death, but perhaps none closer than that of last evening.

OFFICER'S APOLOGY.

"I have never before shot at a man without getting him, and my only apology, gentlemen, for not having furnished you with a nice, fresh corpse in this instance," said Hendrickson, after last night's gun play, "is the fact that I was shooting in the dark and could not distinctly see my target. I am quite confident, however, that my second shot struck him, and that he is badly wounded."

A trail of blood leading from the Doheny residence to Twenty-third and Figueroa streets is ample proof that at least one of Hendrickson's shots struck home. Detectives and patrolmen were scouring the city last night, on foot, on bicycles and on horseback or in buggies in the attempt to find the wounded man who escaped after trying to murder Officer Hendrickson to avoid arrest for burglary.

Since the porch climber or early-evening burglar has been operating among the fashionable residences in the southwestern part of the city it has been the custom of Officer Hendrickson to make the rounds of all the houses under his care, at twilight every evening, as well as at frequent intervals during the night.

BURGLAR'S BLUFF.

Last evening the watchman reached the Doheny residence at 6 o'clock and detected a young man in the gloaming standing on the front porch.

"What are you doing here?" asked the officer as he approached the house.

"I am waiting for the chauffeur to come out," was the reply.

"Does chauffeur? What is his name?"

"Thompson. Don't you know him?" said the stranger, a dapper little fellow, trying to appear at ease, but acting in a manner that caused the officer to suspect him.

"No, I don't know any chauffeur employed here by that name. If he is in the house why don't you ring the bell and have him come to the door, if you wish to see him?" said Hendrickson.

"Oh, I don't want to bother with the bell. If you object to my waiting here, I will leave," remarked the fellow nonchalantly as he attempted to move off the porch.

"Step up there and ring that bell," commanded Hendrickson with a tone of authority.

The fellow obeyed and touched the bell, in response to which Mrs. Johnson, who was in the house, turned on the electric light on the porch and started to go to the door, to see who was there.

SHOOTING BEGINS.

No sooner was the light turned on than the man at the door whipped out a revolver of 38 caliber, and with an oath and vile epithet fired twice point-blank at Hendrickson, who stood only a few feet from him and on a lower level of the porch.

The first bullet passed through the right breast pocket of Hendrickson's coat, and the second cut the cloth of the left elbow of his coat, as he instinctively threw up his arm to ward off the sudden assault. The shooting was at such close range that the flash of the powder burned the palm of Hendrickson's right hand.

Just as the would-be assassin fired the second shot, Mrs. Johnson, who was frightened by the unexpected fusillade, turned off the light and made her escape from the vicinity of the front door.

By this time Hendrickson had recovered from his surprise and drawn his own weapon. By the sudden extinguishment of the light he was unable to see his antagonist, but he fired, where he had last seen him standing, but the miscreant had moved away from the door and Hendrickson's first shot struck the wall a few feet from the door. He fired again, instantly, at the vague outline of the form of the man which he saw edging toward the steps leading from the porch. The fellow gave a groan and lurched against the wall immediately after the flash of the gun, but recovered himself and fired his third shot at Hendrickson, which went over the latter's head. At the same time the rascal made a leap over the porch railing into the portecochere, and Hendrickson fired at him

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The City Council was convened in special session last night and City Clerk Lelande was instructed to advertise for bids for 1,000,000 brick for the outfall sewer.

The two assailants of Capper, the Pasadena contractor who was assulted and robbed close to Shorb, have been arrested and arraigned before Justice Young.

An implicit obedience is a new cause for divorce, and yet in the case of Mrs. Patterson that was the reason that prompted Judge Trask to grant her a decree.

J. E. Fisher was arrested yesterday on complaint of his sister-in-law for disturbing the peace.

G. R. Roach was fined yesterday for throwing a lamp at his wife.

PUBLIC ADVERTISING—NEW TODAY.

(I.) Ordinance authorizing property owners to grade Forty-third street under private contract. (I.) Permit to construct cement curb and sidewalk on Forty-third street under private contract.

AT THE CITY HALL.

SEWER BRICK BIDS ARE ASKED.

CITY COUNCIL LOSES PATIENCE WITH CONTRACTORS.

Convened in Special Session—Will Call for Enough Brick to Cover October Shortage, on Advice of City Attorney—Fire Transacts Routine Business.

The reference of the sewer-brick exigency to the Sewer Committee, the City Attorney and the City Engineer for solution resulted in convening the City Council in special session last night.

It was stated in the call for the meeting that it was for the purpose of instructing the City Clerk to advertise for brick for the prosecution of work on the outfall sewer.

Mr. Nofziger presented tangible grounds for discussion in offering a resolution which recited that the contractors for the brick for building the outfall sewer, having failed to furnish 1,000,000 brick which were due according to their contract during the month of October, it was therefore resolved that the City Clerk be instructed to advertise for bids for furnishing the city with 1,000,000 brick, the bids to be opened on November 21.

There was a disposition on the part of Shilling and Farish to make it appear that there must necessarily be something behind the reason for the advertisement, as the contractors were in default for the September delivery as well as October.

Mr. Farish said it looked to him like an effort to give the Independent Brick Company one month's more time in which to deliver brick and to unnecessarily delay the sewer's completion for one month beyond the contract time, and he wanted to hear from the City Engineer.

City Engineer Stafford stated that they needed every brick, but it appeared not to be a question of the number of brick, but a legal one that governed the matter, and as the City Attorney had decided that it might avoid complications by advertising for a million brick instead of the 1,000,000 due on the contract, he was satisfied that was the best course to pursue.

Everybody was satisfied but Farish, who was the only one to vote "no" on the passage of the resolution.

It is very clear that the failure to mention the September default in no way exempts the contractors from fulfilment of the agreement, but as the brick are to be delivered at the rate of 1,000,000 a month it was thought best by the City Attorney to advertise in the way indicated and to repeat the advertisement if necessary.

Police Commission.

The Police Commission met yesterday morning, but recovery from election weariness had been slow and no business of importance was transacted, the board adjourning after routine matters had been disposed of.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

THUGS OF THE ROAD ARRESTED.

G. CARRIER AND G. PIERCE ROBBED CONTRACTOR CLAPPER.

Run to Earth Neatly by Deputy Sheriff Franklin, They Confessed to Having Assaulted the Pasadena Man After Inviting Him to Take a Drive With Them.

W. Clapper is still suffering from one or two bad cuts on his face and is very sore head, but he is not going to be denied the pleasure of seeing his assailants punished for the assault they made upon him.

Clapper is the Pasadena contractor who came to the city a few days ago to see the sights. He met a couple of strangers in a saloon and had a drink with them, and later in the day when he thought he would return to his home he again happened across them. Other drinks were imbibed, and Clapper then said that he must be taking his car. But his new friends liked him too well to part so easily. They said they enjoyed his company —they liked his style, and as they were driving toward Pasadena, why could he not accompany them? The invitation was accepted and Clapper climbed into the wagon, and the trio started.

When about half a mile this side of Shorb it became necessary for Clapper to alight and take the Pasadena car as his friends turned off in another direction. He was unsuspecting and when he received a blow over the head he dropped and didn't even know what had struck him. He was pretty badly beaten up, and his two assailants drove off after robbing Clapper of nearly $30 and a valuable gold Waltham watch. He lay on the ground unconscious for nearly an hour. Clapper knew it was about half past six in the evening when he was assailed, and when he recovered consciousness and took the Alhambra car for the city the conductor informed him that it was half after seven.

Clapper informed the police what had occurred but no arrests followed. On Tuesday Deputy Sheriff Bert Franklin began digging on the case, and late the same night he arrested one George Carrier, a driver with the Cudahy Packing Company, and charged him with being one of the robbers. Yesterday morning, very early, Franklin run another man to earth. This time it was George Pierce, who was arrested on the same charge. Pierce is well connected in the city though he has been following the business of a teamster.

Both men owned up to the offense and it then developed that it was Pierce who did the slugging while Carrier attended to the lighter details, both participating in the proceeds. Yesterday afternoon both the defendants were arraigned before Justice Young and held in $1000 bail each, and their examination set for November 15.

OBEDIENCE SAVED WIFE.

MRS. PATTERSON GETS A DECREE

To the fact that Mrs. Ziba J. Patterson obeyed the demand of her husband that she return a certain sum of money to him it is largely due that she was able to obtain the divorce she craved yesterday. She is a daughter of the late Louis Mesmer and a step-sister of Mrs. G. J. Griffith, and her erstwhile husband, Charles E. Patterson, was a one-time employé of the Street Superintendent's office in this city.

The Pattersons were married here on March 13, 1899, the ceremony being quite a society affair. But a little over a year later the home was broken up, and the husband sailed for South Africa after selling off everything he possessed. He remained in South Africa for four years, and during the year 1902 Mrs. Patterson was very ill. She was for some time at a hospital, where she underwent an operation, and while she was convalescing she received $500 from her husband, with the instruction that she join him at Kimberley, the center of the diamond-mining industry.

The wife told Judge Trask yesterday that it was impossible that she could have followed her husband's instruction, as he had made out a schedule for her guidance and wanted her to travel second class.

The court failed to appreciate the point.

"Your husband was a poor man, wasn't he?" Judge Trask inquired.

"Yes, he received about $200 a month at Kimberley," was the answer.

"Well, second class is the manner in which poor people generally travel, isn't it?"

"Yes," answered Mrs. Patterson dubiously, "but my health was poor and I had to have a private bath, and—and —I couldn't go the way he wanted."

The wife stated that she wrote to Mr. Patterson telling him that the sum of $500 was insufficient for her needs in taking the journey, and he cabled back to her that if that were so she could return the money.

Judge Trask was curious as to where Mr. Patterson had got so much money, and ruthlessly inquired if he had saved it from the salary as an employé of the Street Superintendent's office.

It appeared in evidence that Patterson returned from Africa last June and called upon his wife as a mere acquaintance, and since that time there had been no meeting.

The court inclined to the idea that it was the husband who ought to have applied for the divorce, as he had sent money to his wife with which to join him, and as she had refused to do so it was desertion on her part. After some argument, however, Judge Trask took the view that inasmuch as Mrs. Patterson had demanded that the money be returned to him the onus of responsibility changed, and consequently he ordered an interlocutory decree in favor of the wife.

HUSBAND TOO GAY.

DEFIED THE PROPRIETIES.

Mrs. Annie S. Ingalls was granted a decree divorcing her from William M. Ingalls by Judge Allen yesterday, and she told a sad story of marital infelicity.

The parties were married in Idaho in 1875, and when they came to reside in this city there were four children. As the little ones grew up the husband and father appeared to grow younger and frivolities unbefitting a married man and the father of a family of girls distinguished his actions with increasing frequency.

Mrs. Ingalls said that her husband was too fond of the ladies—that he took lady friends to dinner and to the theater, and she remonstrated with him. She told him that he ought to so act that his children would respect him, and that she would not suffer the defiance of the marriage relation to harm her children by example. After one of these expostulatory talks at the dinner table Mr. Ingalls said that if his wife felt that way that he would jump out. And he did there and then. Since that time, however, he has continued to allow $10 a month for each of the two minor children and one of these has now just attained her majority.

Mrs. Mabel Hicks, a married daughter of the unhappy couple, went upon the witness stand and corroborated her mother with regard to the conversation which took place in February, 1901 when she and Mrs. Ingalls protested against the irregularities of Mr. Ingalls's life. She said that her mother told him that she couldn't stand it and thereupon her father had said good-by and had taken himself off.

A Mrs. Harrison was mentioned in the case as being the bonne amie to whom particular exception was taken by Mrs. Ingalls, but that part of the case was skimmed over very lightly.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

NEGRO GOES UP. William Duncan pleaded guilty yesterday to having burglarized the room of José Alaro, and stolen a suit of clothes. He was sentenced to San Quentin for a year.

RETURNED TO FRIENDS. Mrs. Mary Fairchild was examined for insanity yesterday, and the court determined that she be detained at the County Hospital until she can be sent to her relatives in Oregon. The woman has interest in valuable timber lands, but recently became mentally incompetent, largely through religious enthusiasm.

SENT TO PATTON. John Stuck has been in jail several times, and about a year ago was an inmate of the County Hospital as the result of being shot in the leg by a woman with whom he had differences. Recently Stuck was arrested and while in the City Jail became demented. He has a brother who is well off, and John charges him with having made away with certain property belonging to him. He was ordered committed to the asylum at Patton.

ONE-YEAR TERM. A. D. Deller yesterday pleaded guilty to burglary in the second degree and was sentenced to San Quentin for one year. He entered the room of C. D. Hagerman and stole tools.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

TRIED TO TEAR UP THE FAMILY FURNITURE.

Says It Was His Sister-in-Law Who Was to Blame—Husband and Wife Exchange the Courtesies of the Season by Throwing Beer Bottles at One Another.

Every time that J. E. Fisher gets jealous of his wife or fiercely hates his sister-in-law, he attempts to assassinate the parlor furniture.

Yesterday he complicated the malady by becoming jealous of his hated sister-in-law. The police had to be called in to arrest Fisher on complaint of the sister-in-law. The furniture suffered frightfully.

When the police arrived, he was tearing the pictures off the wall and wrestling with the piano stool; the rest of the family were rushing for the woods.

When she had him arrested yesterday, Mrs. Fisher told the police that her husband was so insanely jealous that he even suspected her of a love affair with the wash Chinaman. Every time she changes her shirt waist or puts on a fresh dress for the afternoon, Fisher sees a terrible meaning in it.

It is said that causeless jealousy has made him a poor man, by neglect of his business.

On election day he came home more jealous than usual, and started to tear things up.

Yesterday noon, Mrs. Fisher's sister, who lives near, and whom Fisher does not like, came over to the house. That set the jealous man off in a sudden rage. He ordered her out and said he was going to leave home. To properly leave home and make an impression in the going, he thought he had to rip up the whole house.

At the time of his arraignment for disturbing the peace Fisher stated that his sister-in-law is to blame for the whole thing.

FIRED BOTTLES AND LAMPS.

In the shadow of the family "God-Bless-Our-Home" sign, G. R. Roach and his wife exchanged the courtesies of the season on election day.

She threw a beer bottle at him and he tossed beer all over her. After this he threw a lamp at her. She had no lamp to throw, so she had him arrested. Justice Cambers fined him $25.

Phillip Wagner, one of the boys who poured turpentine on a cat and set it on fire, was fined $5 yesterday in Justice Chambers's court.

HOT AIR IN HIS LIABILITIES.

REMARKABLE SHOWING MADE BY SAN BERDOO BANKRUPT.

Suit Against Him for a Million Dollars Put in as an Offset Against a Twenty-five Dollar Suit of Clothes—Impoverished by Mining Speculations.

Liabilities acknowledged by James M. Sigafus of Virginia Dale, San Bernardino county, $1,043,500; assets, "one suit of wearing apparel, which your petitioner is now wearing, $25."

On the basis of these surprising figures, a man who claims his occupation that of miner was yesterday declared a bankrupt, on his own petition, in the United States District Court.

Sigafus's petition is an odd one in more ways than one. He has a peculiar fashion of accounting for the large figures he piles up in the liabilities column. The first item, in which the creditors are named as Dudley Porter, John L. Hobson and C. W. Morse of Haverhill, Mass., appears thus: "Claim for damages for alleged misrepresentation upon sale of real property; no judgment has been rendered, or bond, bill of exchange or promissory note given, but suit has been brought and is now pending, $1,000,000. The liability is said to have been contracted—that is, the alleged bunco land deal must have been pulled off—in Riverside county in the winter of 03-04.

The second item appears thus: "Judgment against petitioner and three other parties, $8000. George W. Pritchard of White Oak, N. M., appears to have been the plaintiff in this case, which arose in 1900.

The third item, an affair of 1898, reads thus: "Unliquidated claim for services upon which suit is now pending. No judgment has been rendered or bond, bill of exception or promissory note given—$37,500." The creditor named in this instance is Bill Doran of Perris, administrator of the estate of James H. Duran, deceased.

In the explanatory notes, Sigafus denies any and all liabilities on the first and last charges, but says that he sets them forth in the petition for the reason that on the first charge judgment for $230,375 was rendered and entered against him in 1896 in the Circuit Court for the southern district of New York, which, in 1900, was recovered by decision of the Supreme Court. A new trial was begun, and is now pending, in the Superior Court of Riverside county.

Mining speculations are said to have entered into the apparent impoverishment of Miner Sigafus. He was ordered to appear before C. L. Allison, referee in bankruptcy in San Bernardino, November 14.

LOOLOOS HAVE EASY CONTEST.

PORTLAND GETS THREE RUNS ON TIMELY SWATS.

Newton Has a Bad Inning, but Soon Recovers and Pitches Fine Game — Strikes Out Nine Men. Butler is Knocked All Around the Grounds—New Busher Won't Last.

Los Angeles, 6; Portland, 3.

It was just as easy yesterday as being homely if you are rich. This is about all that need be said about the performance unless one pines for something dreadfully historical.

Things didn't come right for the visitors, and it is doubtful if they will during any day this week. The team has had so many misfortunes this season and the players have been fined so much by Dugdale and jinksed so much by incompetent managers that started out to win the pennant without knowing how to manage ball players, that there is small wonder the men don't play their heads off to snatch a game when they can. They never were able to grab very many and their mental sufferings have been too acute for them to make many ninth-inning finishes to cases a few more.

However, it wasn't the easiest work to take that one yesterday, for after the second inning when Doc Newton had a little trouble, very little transpired until Beck caught the doctor asleep in the sixth and knocked one of his best about a mile over the center fence for a home run. On each side of that sixth for several innings Newton was very stingy with hits, and managed to strike out nine men, so the Portlanders didn't have much opportunity to display themselves. Their first two came on Beck's single, Mordecai's pass, Runkle's fielder's choice, Berryman's single, Kelleacey's double to right and errors by Newton and Toman. Newton threw wild to first and in trying to make a double play Toman shot the ball over Chase's head.

The Looloos opened up on Butler strong in the third, Newton himself hitting a hard double to the score board as a starter. Then Bernard and Flood singled. On the throw to third to catch Flood Runkle muffed it and let the ball poke him and then made a wild throw to the plate and a total of three runs came in. In the fourth two more were made on a pass, a fielder's choice, which Perrine called safe, a sacrifice and a single. The final run resulted from Chance's pass, Shay's error and Rose's drive to right field.

Right Fielder Kraft has returned to San Francisco and his place was taken by Murdock, who was formerly with Oakland. Spencer was off second and his substitute was a little short-legged fielder named Berryman, from Santa Rosa, or some other wayside town. Berry doesn't look as if he would do in the league.

No matter who plays here it is evident that you can't keep the fans away on the games, for about 1000 were here yesterday and there was the usual amount of roasting for poor Umpire Perrine.

OAKLAND WINS OUT.

RESULTS IN NINTH INNING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

FRESNO, Nov. 9.—Oakland won out today in the ninth inning by the only two runs during the game, the result of a bad throw by Graham. As usual, Tacoma lost after the team had two men out. Ganley got a hit, Hall struck out Francks and Dungley. Ganley made a run for second. Graham threw wild into center field, permitting Ganley to score. The latter was a magnificent pitchers' battle. In the fifth inning, Umpire Brown was struck in the face by a batted ball and a deep cut was inflicted. Brown was compelled to retire and Mookiman of Oakland and Hogan of Tacoma alternated for him. RESULTS IN NINTH INNING.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

OAKLAND, Nov. 9.—Oakland won out in the ninth inning by the only run made during the game, the result of a bad throw by Graham. As they say, Tacoma lost after the team had two men out. Ganley got a hit, Hogan struck out Francks and Dungan walked. Ganley made a run for second, Graham threw wild into center field, permitting Ganley to score. The game was a magnificent pitchers' battle, Graham in the fifth inning, Umpire Brown took him by the face by a batted ball with a deep cut was inflicted. Brown was compelled to retire and Moskiman was substituted and Hogan of Tacoma also went for him. Score:

BILLIARDS.

BALK LINE GAMES.

The second game of the fourteen-inch balk-line billiard contests will be played at Morley's rooms on South Main street this evening and the enthusiasts are looking for something good, as Arthur Seymour is to meet Slaughter. Seymour, as everyone knows, holds the Coast and possibly the world's record at three cushions, having made forty points in forty innings some months ago in this city. He is equally good at balk line, as is evidenced by his average of 22 for ten innings last week, with a high run of 82. He is to play 300 to 223 for Slaughter.

In the game Monday night between Morley (250) and Chappe (225), which Chappe won by a score of 225 to 214, it is stated as a matter of note that the averages of both men were nearly double that of the best made at the recent tournament at Morley's rooms in San Francisco, in which the best class B players in San Francisco were entered. Chappe's average was 11-5, with high runs of 42 and 63, and Morley's average was 11-13, with high runs of 22, 32 and 58. This is really remarkable for class-B men at the four-teen-inch, but Seymour should beat it, judging from his practice games.

INDIANS-U.S.C.

GAME FOR NEXT SATURDAY.

The various argumentative admirers of the Indians and the U.S.C. football men will have a chance to see them in action on Saturday when they will meet at Eagle Park in Long Beach. From what is known of the teams there will be all kinds of exciting football, for the Indians scared the northern universities to death and U.S.C. is as good as any teams down here, apparently. Play will be called at 3 o'clock. The game is to be in honor of the opening of the new Long Beach pier on Saturday.

SPORT FOR ANGLERS.

BIG PLAYA DEL REY CATCH.

PLAYA DEL REY, Nov. 9.—There was rare sport on the receding tide here today for devotees of rod and reel. The sea was full of big yellow tail, all clamoring to impale themselves upon the hooks of the faithful. The favorite bait was live mackerel and all who stayed with the game came out winners. One party of seven succeeded in landing twenty fish that weighed on the average sixteen to twenty pounds. The members of their party were R. W. Phipps, Thomas Jones, T. H. Smith, C. W. Valiant, H. M. Good, Ralph Stimson and B. Franklin.

Racing Man Arrives.

Ed Jasper, racing secretary of the Los Angeles Jockey Club, arrived here yesterday from the East and will at once enter upon such duties as there may be for him at Ascot Park. He looks fine and dandy, and the summer's experience in the effete East has certainly not touched him very hard.

MACDONALD'S GARDEN PARTY.

TOKIO, Nov. 8.—Sir Claude MacDonald, the British Minister, gave a garden party last night in honor of the birthday of King Edward. It was attended by the members of the Diplomatic Corps and their ladies and by the leading British residents, as well as by officials of the government and other distinguished Japanese.

STANFORD CLUB FORMING.

'VARSITY MEN TO BANQUET.

The Stanford University men in this city and vicinity will have a banquet at the Del Monte restaurant on Saturday evening in honor of the Stanford-Berkeley football game that is to be played that day. It is expected that at least fifty men will be present and Judge R. E. Bledsoe of San Bernardino, who is an ex-Stanford man will preside and act as toastmaster. All the local Stanford men are invited and it is believed that the only ones who will not be present will be those who attend the game in San Francisco, a delegation having decided to go from here.

One of the objects of the feast is to form a Stanford club which will give proper attention to all the Stanford auxiliary organizations that visit this city. Of course the banqueters expect their college to win from Berkeley and the returns from the game will be read during the evening. Those who have the feast in charge are George Dryer and A. J. Copp, Jr., 19th Stanford '02, men.

SHOOTING.

again as he sprang over the railing, but the bullet simply knocked a chunk of plaster out of the wall.

MISCREANT ESCAPES.

After each had fired three shots and the criminal had gained the porte-cochere, Hendrickson tried to follow him, but stumbled over a bicycle which the burglar had left at the lower step and which had up to this time been unobserved by Hendrickson, owing to the gloom. As Hendrickson stumbled into the driveway his assailant took another shot at him which again went wide of its mark. The fellow then ran back of the stable east of the house, followed by the officer.

When Hendrickson was within ten feet of the stable, the desperado again fired at him from around the corner of the barn, but his aim was bad. Hendrickson then fired his fourth and last shot just as the fleeing rascal jumped over the fence at the rear of the lot. That was the last seen of the miscreant by Hendrickson, and in the darkness the officer could not tell whether more than one of his shots had taken effect or not.

HOLDS UP WOMAN.

After ' ping across the back fence the fugitive ran north to Twenty-third street, where he met Miss Bend Johnson, who lives at Figueroa and Twenty-third streets, and who was trundling a bicycle on the sidewalk. The man had a pistol in his hand, and tried to wrest Miss Johnson's bicycle from her hand, saying he was shot and needed it to go for help. But she pluckily held to her wheel and pushed the man away from her, her hand becoming wet with blood as it touched him in the region of the hips or abdomen. He appeared to be very weak and offered no resistance.

TACKLES OLD MAN.

Abandoning his attempt to take the young woman's wheel, the fellow limped to Figueroa street, where he hailed G. A. Macdonald, an elderly gentleman living at No. 2415 Hoover street. Macdonald had a bicycle and the desperado said he wanted it. He flourished a pistol to enforce his demand, but Macdonald repulsed him as easily as did Miss Johnson a few minutes previously.

The baffled highwayman, evidently suffering from a wound that impeded his flight, contin ed down Figueroa street and ropped from sight.

Detective Murphy, who was investigating a case in the vicinity of Chester Place, heard the shooting and hurried to the scene, but too late to gain sight of the author of the trouble. Patrolman Grogan was also on the scene a few minutes after the shooting occurred. These officers and many others detailed by Capt. Bradish took up the search and scoured the entire southern part of the city, but could find no trace of the fugitive. All of the hospitals in the city and the doctors were notified of the case, and it is hoped that the wounded man will be detected by applying to some surgeon or hospital for treatment of his wound.

BLOODY BULLET.

The police picked up at the scene of the shooting four bullets, one of them stained with blood. This is the one that is supposed to have hit the criminal, whoever he may be. The wound inflicted is believed to be in the hips or abdomen and quite serious.

Hendrickson has furnished the detectives with a splendid description of the culprit and he is confident he can identify him if caught. He describes him as a young man of light build, about 5 feet 7 inches tall, dressed in a gray suit and wearing a gray crush hat.

TRAIL OF BLOOD.

There is a trail of blood from the Doheny residence to Twenty-third and Figueroa streets. A street-car conductor on the University line of the Los Angeles Railway Company reported that a man who rode from Estrella avenue to Twenty-seventh and Hoover streets left a pool of blood on the car, and for a while it was thought this was the much sought desperado, but Sergt. Craig, who followed up the clew, found that the blood was left on the car by a man who had an attack of nose bleed.

After the shooting it was discovered that the would-be burglar had pried open a window leading from the porch to the interior of the Doheny residence, and it was at this juncture that Officer Hendrickson appeared on the scene and prevented the depredation of the would-be thief.

PEACE PIPE DRAWS BADLY.

NO RECONCILIATION BETWEEN U.S.C. AND POMONA.

Methodist Student Body Sends Peace Emissaries, But Pomona Talks Expediency and Sidesteps the Proposal on Crippled Team and Faculty Mandate Grounds.

The proposed Pomona-U.S.C. reconciliation fireworks have finally fizzled most dismally.

U.S.C. this week, thoroughly tired of the nonsense that has kept the two schools apart in athletics so long, took the initiative again, offered to bury the hatchet and made proposals for a game of football this fall.

The offer was received in good faith at Pomona, and numerous expressions of satisfaction greeted Messrs. Scott and Dyar, the U.S.C. emissaries, at Pomona, yesterday. The Claremont collegians were delighted, and pleased beyond measure—but they turned the proposition down. As a result the two colleges are as far off as ever, and the athletic funds of each have lost about $3000 that they might have had like picking it up on the street.

Pomona politely refused to play football this fall with U.S.C., and based its answer to the offer of the U.S.C. student body on a trio of reasons which seemed sufficient.

Of these the first and most important is that Pomona is not willing to take a chance in view of her present crippled condition as regards football. Moorman has quit the school; Cadwalader and Frisbie have left the team, and in consequence it is weaker now than at any previous time this season.

The Pomona faculty refuses to countenance any football after Thanksgiving on account of its interference with studies, holiday home life, and the efforts of some of the team members who are supporting themselves in school.

Under no conditions whatever could Pomona meet U.S.C. this fall in football, though a willingness was expressed to renew athletic relations as regards track and field sports this summer. This, however, is not what the U.S.C. committee went to Claremont for; their powers were limited to arranging a football game, and it seemed last night to be the consensus of opinion at the Methodist College that whatever further advances are made will have to come from Pomona.

U.S.C. realizes that it is going up against a hard game Saturday at Long Beach.

The Methodists might say something about being crippled themselves were they built on such lines. Yesterday big Miller, the guard, in a scrimmage with the Y.M.C.A. team, twisted his ankle severely and he may have to remain in retirement Saturday.

Coach Holmes says the boys will die game, and anyone who knows them will need no further assurance.

"I consider Sherman the superior of either Berkeley or Stanford this year," says Mr. Holmes. "Williams is one of the best backs I ever saw; a most phenomenal player with much experience. The Indians are strong at all points, and I look for by far the best game Southern California has seen this season."

The Y.M.C.A. team which is training for a series of games by scrimmaging with U.S.C., presents the unusual combination of four unusually fast backs and a weak line.

Messrs. Parsons, Hamilton, Dane and Dean Cromwell, veteran athletes and football players, are the back fielders, of the triangle sporters, and according to Harvey Holmes, they will score on anybody they can get five yards jump on their speed being so excessive that ordinary players can never get to them once under way.

The Y.M.C.A. team expects to do considerable good for itself this fall.

Los Angeles High School is figuring seriously on bringing Belmont south for a game early in December. The only obstacle is Belmont's expenses, which must be guaranteed. The game deserves a considerable crowd, but has so many other attractions drawing against it that the High School football bosses are somewhat in doubt.

If the game is played it will occur in Fiesta Park.

Her Neighbor Was Ahead.

A Fort Fairchild lady, living in the country, says that a short time ago she was awakened at about 3 o'clock in the morning by a furious ring of the telephone in her house.

Feeling from the wildness of the ring that somebody's house must be on fire or that somebody was bleeding to death, she scampered downstairs, and nervously seized the receiver, only to hear a shrill soprano voice shriek: "Get your washin' done yet? Had mine out half an hour ago."—Lewiston Journal

Recipe for Insomnia.

The late Senator Quay was frequently troubled with insomnia, and was constantly in search of recipes for the cure of that dreaded affliction. One day he was discussing it in the cloak room of the Senate and said:

"Well, I've got a sure cure for insomnia at last."

"What is it?" asked a fellow Senator.

"Why," replied the Senator, "if you go to bed and find that you cannot go to sleep the thing to do is to get up and take a big slug of old rye whisky; then retire. After a proper interval, if you are still awake, get up and take another drink. If a half hour goes by and you are still awake, get up and take a third drink, and then if you are still awake take another."

"And after that?" queried a bystander, "what next?"

"After that," said Quay, with a broad smile, "you won't care whether you go to sleep or not."—New York Times.

"He Won't Die

Of consumption" is a remark often made of a fleshy man. The remark expresses the popular recognition of the fact that the sign of consumption is emaciation loss of flesh. On the other hand, a gain in flesh is a sure sign that wasting diseases are being cured.

Emaciated people with obstinate coughs, bleeding lungs, night-sweats and weakness, have been perfectly cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The several steps of the cure were recorded in ounces and pounds of increasing weight. When there is gain in flesh the wasting disease is being surely cured.

Mr. Will H. Whitmire, of Arkins, Rockingham Co., Va., writes: "Our son contracted a deep cold about the first of July, 1901, and had a terrible cough. We called a doctor and he pronounced it irritation of the bronchial tubes, with asthmatic trouble, and he informed me that my son was liable to die at any time. He told me that if we could keep the bronchial tubes open he might cure him; but after treating him several weeks and my son growing worse all the time, I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets.' I had been several almost miraculous cures brought about by the use of these medicines, and of course I had implicit faith in them. So I sent three bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' at home and one vial of the 'Pellets,' and was then well enough to go to West Virginia, taking a supply with me. I am just in receipt of a letter from him from which I quote: 'I am well and hearty and feeling very frisky.'"

EDITORIAL SECTION—PART II, MAIN SHEET.

BUSINESS.

The strength of the New York stock market became general and well distributed, and dealings rose to a larger aggregate than any day since the panic of May 9, 1901. At Chicago, December wheat declined to 113 3-4 at the close, under selling pressure, May closing at 112 7-8.

THE VICTORY—ITS COMPLETENESS AND SIGNIFICANCE.

One of the most remarkable features of Tuesday's election contest is the completeness of the victory achieved by th Republican candidates. That the victory was so complete in all parts of the country where free balloting is permitted, is well; for it leaves no reasonable excuse for the defeated party to raise the cry of "fraud." If the contest had been close our opponents might have raised this cry with some prospect of inducing their partisan adherents to believe it. But the Republican victory is so overwhelming, so widespread, so far-reaching, that the puny cry of fraud can gain no standing at the bar of public opinion. It is so utterly ridiculous and so manifestly false that it will find few believers even in the ranks of the defeated.

A few voters might be fraudulently influenced, in special cases; but such a thing could not be done by any party throughout the length and breadth of that vast portion of the land where the American principle of a "free ballot and a fair count" is respected.

The charge of fraud, if preferred against the winning party, must be preferred in nearly every voting precinct of the free Northern States, for nearly every voting precinct in those States played some part in the overwhelming Republican victory.

To raise the usual Democratic cry of fraud in this instance, would be virtually to charge the American people, as a whole, with electoral crime. It is doubtful if even Parker and his coterie of reckless campaigners will go to such an extreme as this.

The great extent of the victory is shown by the fact that the Republicans carried all of the Northern States, capturing also without much doubt, the State of Missouri, which is generally classed as a Southern State. This gives the President 343 and Parker 173 of the electoral votes, or a clear majority for Roosevelt of 210 electoral votes. In addition, the Republicans will have a majority of about ninety-two in the House, which will give them a majority on joint ballot—with the majority of twenty-four in the Senate—of 116, or thereabouts. Surely this is "glory enough for one day" at the polls.

And the significance of this great Republican victory—what of that? It means that the American people are still dominated by sound sense, and that their eyes are not to be blinded by the false pretensions and false logic of wily politicians. It means that the people understood the real issues of the campaign better than Mr. Parker and his supporters imagined. It means that we shall have at least four years more of McKinley-Roosevelt prosperity—the best brand of prosperity on earth.

All the sound public policies of the Republican party, which have brought prosperity, peace and plenty to the land, are to continue in operation for at least four years longer. The old souphouse days of 1894-95, under the second administration of President Cleveland, will not return while Theodore Roosevelt is at the helm of State, supported by a strong majority in both houses of Congress. The wheels of industry will continue to turn, as they have been turning for the past seven years under wise Republican management. The Philippines will be retained, and the beneficent work of education will go on in the islands. Tariff protection will be maintained, though there may be some modifications of schedules, if necessary, without endangering the whole fabric of protection. The gold standard will be preserved in all its integrity. The upbuilding of our navy will continue, and our flag will be respected throughout the world. Our government expenditures will continue to be on a liberal but not extravagant basis, consistent with the efficiency in all branches of the public service and in all fields of national progress.

We shall not be compelled, during the whole period of progress and good times that lies just before us, to sell government bonds to pay the expense of running the government. If we should sell bonds for this or any other purpose, they would be sold to the people, not to a wealthy syndicate at $10,000,000 less than they would bring in the open market. In a word, under Roosevelt's administration we shall go forward instead of backward.

All these things, and many more, comprise the significance of the great victory which Republican voters achieved at Tuesday's election. It was a victory for and of the people, and the people will reap its principal benefits.

CORTELYOU.

Conspicuous by reason of his position as Commander-in-Chief of the Republican forces in the great campaign just ended, has been George Bruce Cortelyou. And, now that the battle is over, the victory won and the enemy routed, foot, horse and dragoons, it seems no more than common justice that this young man should receive his well-earned meed of praise. His work has been difficult, a heavy strain has been put upon him both physically and mentally; he has had much to do that required the exercise of sound judgment and quick wit. As to how stoutly he bore his burdens and to what extent he measured up to every requirement, the nation is well informed at the present hour.

During the campaign Mr. Cortelyou has been made the target for many of the enemy's bitterest shafts. He has been attacked, vilified and reviled. But under it all he bore himself with patience and dignity, and, when he felt called upon to hit back, it will be remembered that he struck straight from the shoulder and with such excellent precision as to have caused his beraters much discomfiture and pain. He has proved himself a very competent and dexterous fighter, indeed, and it is saying but little to give voice to the fact that he stands high in the estimation of his countrymen.

It is said that when the President announced to the National Committee during the Chicago convention that George B. Cortelyou was his choice for national chairman, the politicians plunged and reared with much angry opposition to that choice. But the President's wisdom has now been amply proved. And it goes to show what a clear-headed business man can accomplish by the use of clean, honest business methods, even in politics. There wasn't much fuss nor feathers in the campaign, the brass bands played but an inconspicuous part in it, yet every move was made to count and every step taken led up to the attainment of certain and glorious success.

THE NEXT HOUSE.

The House of Representatives of the Fifty-ninth Congress will consist of 386 regular members and four Territorial delegates, or 390 in all. The present House has 210 Republicans, 176 Democrats and two labor-unionists, with two vacancies.

So far as the returns show at this writing, the Republicans have elected to the new Congress (the Fifty-ninth) 223 members, and the Democrats 141, with twelve districts yet in doubt. Of these districts, six are now represented by Republicans and six by Democrats. If these districts go as they did two years ago, the Republican strength in the House will be 239 members, and the Democratic strength 147—a clear Republican majority of ninety-two. Official returns may modify these figures somewhat, one way or another, but they are approximately correct.

Secondary in importance only to the triumphant election of President Roosevelt is this increase of the Republican majority in the House from thirty-four to ninety-two or more—almost trebling the Republican preponderance in the House. No radical changes of party strength in the Senate are likely to occur during the next few years. At present there is a Republican majority of twenty-four in the Senate. This is more likely to be increased than diminished as the result of the late election. Therefore, the President will have back of his administration the solid support of a Congress strongly Republican in both branches.

This condition will carry with it great responsibilities—a fact which the President fully realizes, as he has declared since receiving the news of his election. Who can doubt that the next four years will be epoch-making years in the nation's history? The President will have a free hand, within the large sphere of his legitimate and rightful official authority. That he will not exceed that authority is as certain as it is that he has been elected by the largest popular majority ever given to a candidate in the history of the world. That he will obey the Constitution is equally certain, for no man in all the land reverences the Constitution more deeply than he. That we shall make great progress under the next four years of his administration is a foregone conclusion, for he is a man of progress, a man of ideas, a man of action rather than of mere words.

The nation is safe under the administration of Roosevelt. His apparent rashness is merely superficial. Go deep enough into an analysis of his character and you shall find one of the most careful and conservative of all the men who have occupied the office of President; a man whose first thought is for his country; a man who would sooner die than commit a wrong against his country; a man with the heart-sympathies of a child, combined with the brain of a statesman; a man of colossal power, who is so far self-disciplined that he could not be induced to use his power in any but a right cause; a man, in brief, completely worthy to fill the exalted office to which he has been chosen by the overwhelming behest of his countrymen.

President Roosevelt's administration will be one of the most brilliant, progressive and beneficial ever known in the history of the nation. It is a matter for general congratulation that he will be supported by a Congress thoroughly in sympathy with his high purposes and ideals.

One of the features of the late election that will attract particular attention is the comparatively large vote polled by the Socialist party. In some places the support received by Debs was almost as strong as that given to Parker, and in Milwaukee it was greater. Evidently the discontented, the restless and the never-satisfied spirits of the country have given up the Democracy in despair and are now flocking to a new standard.

The uninitiated who marveled at the promptness and completeness with which Tuesday night's election news was displayed on The Times bulletins, are, perhaps, not aware that their compliments are due in great part to the Western Union's excellent telegraph service. Everything came through without friction or delay, literally on the wings of the lightning.

The Kaiser's telegram of felicitation to the President brings to mind once more the fact that Germany and the United States can boast of having at their heads of government the ablest young men in the business.

A careful analysis of the vote of California clearly indicates that Chairman Tim Spellacy's early references to Brian Boru failed to carry the weight that a King's name might be expected to carry.

Tuesday's victory was so overwhelming that it seems a shame to even shout about it. Besides, those who voted the other way are so few in number that it is difficult to know whom to suspect.

Several colleges have conferred degrees on President Roosevelt, and now the electoral college is about to confer another upon him—a degree to which he is eminently entitled.

Now that the President has entered into the House of Fulfillment, let us hope that Health and Good Cheer will be the companions that sit with him at his fireside.

Evidently San Francisco decided that the mouthings of its man Livernash was nothing more than balderdash.

Whatever else may be said about the new Governor of Massachusetts it is at least well known that he is a man who believes in pegging away.

W. R. Hearst, W. J. Bryan and Tom Watson are now to take charge of the Democratic party. Nobody will object. The road is clear for them.

As far as Mr. Parker is concerned, he doubtless is willing to concede that the President as a Rough Rider is all he has been cracked up to be.

Perhaps it would be just as well if we should all quit talking politics, now—but, dang it, there's that municipal campaign still staring us in the face.

The hostilities in the Orient are at liberty to resume. We shall now be able to spare the esteemed belligerents a few spare moments of our attention.

When a Los Angeles man considers this double dose of politics that he's got to swallow, it almost makes him wish he lived in Milpitas.

In the selection of a Governor the people of Massachusetts evidently had resolved to stick to the shoemaker to the last.

Tom Watson may now proceed to reorganize the Democratic party, providing he can succeed in locating it.

IN PRAISE OF PUMPKIN PIE.

And kickshaws out of France,
Tropic fruits and tropic fishes,
And eye our foods askance:

But I—I hold with them, no, not I—
I sing the praise of pumpkin pie.

The palate meant to wrench;
Their sauces hot and cold their ices,
And names dressed up in French.

For I—I hold with them, no, not I—
I sing the praise of pumpkin pie.

For pumpkin pie is the thing to tickle
The palate of him who loves what's good,
And I hope old Time will stay his sickle
Till I've had my fill of that glorious food.

For I—I'll holler until I die
The praises of honest pumpkin pie.

It glows with a color deeply golden,
Matching the hues of autumn woods,
In fact—for the phrase I'm to slang beholden,
Pumpkin pie is there with the goods.

So—when I'm not eating it—always I
Am singing the praise of pumpkin pie.

Registered a Second Time.

A few days ago there arrived in Philadelphia from Washington a man whom we will call J. Henry Brown. He went to a hotel, engaged a room, registered, and after having lunched went out again, evidently on a sight-seeing trip. Late in the afternoon he returned and asked the clerk of the hotel for a pen with which to register.

"Why, you registered once," said the clerk, "and it isn't necessary for you to do so again."

"Oh, I know I registered," replied the Washington man in a bland tone, "but I have just been out and got married, and I want to register as 'Mr. and Mrs.'"—Philadelphia Press.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

BENEATH a huge bell of snowy chrysanthemums, Miss Lupe Mason, daughter of Mrs. Mercedes Mason, and Bruce A. Cass exchanged their nuptial vows last evening while soft music sounded through the rooms. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's mother, at No. 317 West Thirty-third street. The room in which the marriage took place was hung with smilax, and the couple stood between curtains of smilax, over which was suspended a bell of chrysanthemums. On either side of the curtains great clusters of chrysanthemums were effectively placed. Over the entire room a canopy of smilax was arranged, and the lights were shaded with white tulle. The bride, a charming brunette and a member of the well-known Robles family of Los Angeles, wore a dainty creation of white silk mull elaborately trimmed with real lace. In her dark hair natural roses were placed, and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by Mrs. Mercedes Borques as matron of honor. Mrs. Borquez was attired in pink organdie, with trimmings of lace and ribbon. In her arm she carried a cluster of shell pink carnations. Miss Nettie Michen of Florence, Ariz., who is a cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore pale blue organdie over blue silk and carried pink carnations. The groomsmen were Frank Cass, a cousin of the groom, and Moses Mason, the brother of the bride. Music for the service was rendered by Mrs. Charles Mason, the Lohengrin march being played as the party came down the aisle formed of ribbons. All through the evening music was given by an orchestra.

After the service a supper was served to the intimate friends and relatives present in the dining-room, which was bright with pink carnations and white tulle. Over the table was erected a canopy of white tulle, from the center of which a basket of pink carnations and maiden-hair ferns was suspended. In the center of the table reposed the bride's cake and also the groom's. About the room carnations were arranged, and in one corner a punch bowl was set in a mass of ferns. The other rooms were trimmed with white carnations and asparagus plumosus. The hall was garlanded with smilax and tulle, and filled with potted palms and plants, presenting a gay aspect. The bride is well-known and popular in society, and is a member of one of the old Spanish families of California. Mr. Cass is a nephew of A. B. Cass, and it was while visiting his uncle that he first met and fell in love with the pretty little maid, who is to guide him through life. Mr. and Mrs. Cass left last night on their wedding tour, which will take them to Bartlesville, I. T., where they will make their future home.

Miss Lottie Lyon and Ira O. Rubendale, both of Palo, Ill., were married Monday afternoon, the ceremony taking place at the parsonage of the Methodist Church, with Rev. Robert McIntyre officiating. The bride, who is a fair girl, wore a gown of green and white crepe de chine with garnitures of lace, and quaint baby sleeves. A girdle of blue finished the pretty gown, and a forget-me-not hat set off her beauty. She carried a bouquet of violets. The only witnesses at the wedding were the bride's sister, Mrs. Edward Herr, and Mrs. K. C. Mohrman, both of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Rubendale will spend some time in seeing California, after which they will make their future home in this city.

Japanese Tea Party.

Beneath Bows of Tulle.

Miss Lulu Kathryn Huff and Bert Clifford Smith were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Huff of No. 1434 Vermont avenue, Rev. W. H. White, who is a cousin of Mr. Smith, conducting the service. Decorations for the affair were elaborate. In the parlor where the couple stood a canopy of smilax and tulle was erected, and directly over the heads of the party swung a wedding bell of white carnations. On either side curtains of smilax were hung and over the piano smilax was garlanded with white chrysanthemums enmeshed in the greenery. The colonial pillars between the rooms were wound with smilax, and in every niche and corner jars of chrysanthemums were placed. Miss Huff wore a pretty robe of white chiffon made en traine and trimmed with lace. A yoke of lace with a berths finished the bodice, and a high girdle of satin was about the slender waist of the bride. She carried a cluster of white chrysanthemums. Little Horace White carried the ring on a satin pillow, and pretty, seven-year-old Miss Lillian Higgins carried a basket filled with rose petals, which she scattered in the path of the party. Mrs. Harry G. Webster rendered the wedding music, Lohengrin being given at the approach of the couple. During the ceremony "O Promise Me" was softly played. In the dining-room where supper was served an attractive floral arrangement prevailed. In the center of the table a basket of gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums and ferns rested and from chandeliers to the corners of the table festoons of asparagus plumosus were arranged, while over the table a tracery of the delicate fern fell. On the mantel yellow chrysanthemums were banked and yellow silk shaded the silver candelbra on the table. A beautiful bride's cake was on the buffet, and bows of yellow tulle added much to the beauty of the room. In the hall white chrysanthemums were effectively combined with smilax. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are popular young people of Pico Heights, and the bride, who is a pretty brunette, has many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have gone on a short wedding tour, after which they will be at home at No. 822 West Thirty-seventh street.

IS ALWAYS GLOVED.

Why Queen Alexandra of Great Britain Never Shows Her Hands.

[Baltimore American:] Few can boast of having seen the ungloved hand of Queen Alexandra. She wears gloves all the time, even when writing to her relatives abroad, with whom she carries on a most extensive correspondence, and when engaged in that embroidery in which she is an adept. The reason for this is, however much age may be concealed on the face and even the neck, it invariably betrays itself on the hands, and that while the Queen does not look more than a woman of 30—younger, in fact, than her daughter-in-law, the Princess of Wales—Father Time having apparently stopped the sands of his hour glass during the last three decades where her English Majesty is concerned, her hands alone would betray the fact that she is now in her sixtieth year, and that considerably more than twelve months have elapsed since she celebrated the fortieth anniversary of her wedding. All these gloves, of which she uses several pair a day, are made in Paris and are so perfect as regards fit that they constitute absolutely no impediment to needlework, to writing or to playing on the piano. Many of my fair readers will likewise be interested to learn that in Paris there is a loom which from one year's end to the other is devoted exclusively to the weaving of hosiery for King Edward's consort. The stockings, although made with Valenciennes entredeux, never exceed $30 a pair, presenting in this respect a contrast to the hosiery of those Parisian and American elegantes who often pay as much as $100 and even $150 a pair. It has often been a matter for surprise to me why so few foreign women—and by that I mean non-Parisiennes—should be content to buy their gloves and their hosiery ready made, instead of having them specially made for them. A true elegante should be no more willing to [illegible] ready-made gloves or a [illegible] stocking than a ready made [illegible] ready-made dress.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

"Hurrah for Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, [illegible] great educator of the nation!" was [illegible] enthusiastic utterance of Fra[illegible] Malwina Lampadius, ere she proc[illegible] to address the Womens' Press Cl[illegible] the Chamber of Commerce, yest[illegible] afternoon.

Fraulein Lampadius is the A[illegible] can representative of several Ge[illegible] newspapers, and she was to tal[illegible] club of the education of German [illegible] dren.

She made a quaint picture, [illegible] dressed as a German mother, wit[illegible] black lace head-dress that prec[illegible] the matron and bits of bright red [illegible] anium put with the lace to bet[illegible] it up. She wore a large envelo[illegible] apron of dark blue German calico, [illegible] she told with a tough of pathos [illegible] this self-same apron was one wor[illegible] her mother in her own babyhood, [illegible] show that the German mother is [illegible] idle. Fraulein quoted from Napoleon t[illegible] "The future of a child is always [illegible] work of the mother, whether good [illegible] bad," and said also, the parents [illegible] Germany control their children, [illegible] the Emperor and his consort are [illegible] the best examples in the nation.

"Kindergartens are as numerous [illegible] Germany as the sands of the sea," s[illegible] Fraulein, "and the principles of [illegible] taloszi, and then of Froesel are gi[illegible] to every child. Ruskin Art Club.

Mrs. N. P. Conroy presided over th[illegible] meeting of the Ruskin Art Club yes[illegible] terday, in the absence of Mrs. Hoss[illegible] and the topic of the morning was un[illegible] der the leadership of Mrs. W. H. Brow[illegible] and Mrs. F. H. Snowden. The ap[illegible] proaching meeting of the District Fe[illegible] eration was mentioned and two del[illegible] gates were appointed to attend, wit[illegible] two alternates. These were, Mrs. [illegible] H. Snowden, and Mrs. D. C. Barber[illegible] and the alternates, Miss Belle Smit[illegible] and Miss Donovan.

Both Russia and Germany were [illegible] taken up in the lesson, Miss Victoria [illegible] Witmer giving the first talk on the [illegible] founding of St. Petersburg by Pet[illegible] the Great, on the low island at the [illegible] mouth of the river Neva, working [illegible] against almost insurmountable ob[illegible] stacles, 100,000 lives being sacrificed [illegible] during the first year's work. Miss Wit[illegible] mer stated that this ambitious monarch [illegible] had just been on a visit to Holland [illegible] and was probably impressed with the [illegible] tenacity of the people in conquering [illegible] the sea, and he was determined to [illegible] make the port of Russia a principal [illegible] feature, with its long beautiful drive[illegible] way, fine statuary, bridges and [illegible] palaces.

Miss Witmer as well as Miss Letha [illegible] Lewis who succeeded her on the pro[illegible] gramme, had visited Russia and their [illegible] accounts of the present-day conditions, [illegible] illustrated with pictures that they had [illegible] brought home with them, added much [illegible] to the interest of the recital.

Mrs. Clough gave an interesting ren[illegible] dering of the subject of "Charles XII [illegible] through the eyes of Voltaire." Mrs. [illegible] Clough represented Voltaire as a [illegible] charming historian acquainting one [illegible] with the youth of this monarch who [illegible] was then gentle, yet indomitable, fol[illegible] lowing him through the whole of his [illegible] dramatic career.

Catherine II of Russia, as she came [illegible] to Russia at the age of twelve, and her [illegible] gradual growth into one of the most [illegible] powerful women of her time, as well [illegible] as one of the most capable and mas[illegible] culine, was portrayed in charming [illegible] phrase by Miss Letha Lewis, and Miss [illegible] Lewis even told of the wonderful [illegible] masques of that day, and the mar[illegible] vels of extravagance of dress and the [illegible] ladies of the club were astonished to [illegible] hear that the masquers changed their [illegible] disguises at least three times during [illegible] a single evening. The descriptions of [illegible] the magnificent court dresses of Cath[illegible] erine and her royal coaches embellished [illegible] with magnificent jewels, was a rare [illegible] tale to tell, especially as Miss Lewis [illegible] had beheld many of these preserved [illegible] mementos of a great but corrupt past, [illegible] when she was touring in Russia. [illegible] Rauch's great monument of Frederick [illegible] the Great, as given by Miss Bessie [illegible] White, took one in spirit to Germany [illegible] of a corresponding date and Miss White [illegible] followed the sculptor through the [illegible] years and years of weary ups and [illegible] downs, of being at the beck and call [illegible] of the King, or trying to please His [illegible] Majesty, and the people, as well, with[illegible] out doing violence to his own artistic [illegible] sense, until great and glorious victory [illegible] was won.

Mrs. Kanst concluded the programme [illegible] by a delightfully read paper on Winkel[illegible] mann, Lessing and Goethe, telling the [illegible] striking characteristics of each and [illegible] their influence upon the time.

New Officers.

There was an interesting session of the Cosmos Club yesterday afternoon at the Ruskin Art Club room. New officers were elected, Mrs. Yoakum, the retiring president, declined a nomination, as she is going to Texas very [illegible] soon, to make her residence. Mrs. [illegible] Charles Lee Lewis was elected in her [illegible] stead, with Mrs. Jordan as vice-president; Mrs. Howell as secretary; and [illegible] Mrs. George Gainsley as treasurer.

The club decided to identify itself with the General Federation and delegates were appointed to attend the District Federation meeting at Long Beach, November 15 and 16. Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Yoakum were appointed. The afternoon was profitably spent with six round table discussions of settlement work. Much interest was shown and one of the questions dwelt upon was the difference between settlement work and church work. The answer was found in the fact that the class

BUSINESS.

The strength of the New York stock market became general and well distributed, and dealings rose to a larger aggregate than any day since the panic of May 9, 1901. At Chicago, December wheat declined to 113 3-4 at the close, under selling pressure, May closing at 112 7-8.

THE VICTORY—ITS COMPLETENESS AND SIGNIFICANCE.

One of the most remarkable features of Tuesday's election contest is the completeness of the victory achieved by the Republican candidates. That the victory was so complete in all parts of the country where free balloting is permitted, is well; for it leaves no reasonable excuse for the defeated party to raise the cry of "fraud." If the contest had been close our opponents might have raised this cry with some prospect of inducing their partisan adherents to believe it. But the Republican victory is so overwhelming, so widespread, so far-reaching, that the puny cry of fraud can gain no standing at the bar of public opinion. It is so utterly ridiculous and so manifestly false that it will find few believers even in the ranks of the defeated.

A few voters might be fraudulently influenced, in special cases; but such a thing could not be done by any party throughout the length and breadth of that vast portion of the land where the American principle of a "free ballot and a fair count" is respected.

The charge of fraud, if preferred against the winning party, must be preferred in nearly every voting precinct of the free Northern States, for nearly every voting precinct in those States played some part in the overwhelming Republican victory.

To raise the usual Democratic cry of fraud in this instance, would be virtually to charge the American people, as a whole, with electoral crime. It is doubtful if even Parker and his coterie of reckless campaigners will go to such an extreme as this.

The great extent of the victory is shown by the fact that the Republicans carried all of the Northern States, capturing also without much doubt, the State of Missouri, which is generally classed as a Southern State. This gives the President 343 and Parker 172 of the electoral votes, or a clear majority for Roosevelt of 210 electoral votes. In addition, the Republicans will have a majority of about ninety-two in the House, which will give them a majority on joint ballot—with the majority of twenty-four in the Senate—of 116, or thereabouts. Surely this is "glory enough for one day" at the polls.

And the significance of this great Republican victory—what of that? It means that the American people are still dominated by sound sense, and that their eyes are not to be blinded by the false pretensions and false logic of wily politicians. It means that the people understood the real issues of the campaign better than Mr. Parker and his supporters imagined. It means that we shall have at least four years more of McKinley-Roosevelt prosperity—the best brand of prosperity on earth.

All the sound public policies of the Republican party, which have brought prosperity, peace and plenty to the land, are to continue in operation for at least four years longer. The old scrouhouse days of 1894-95, under the second administration of President Cleveland, will not return while Theodore Roosevelt is at the helm of State, supported by a strong majority in both houses of Congress. The wheels of industry will continue to turn, as they have been turning for the past seven years under wise Republican management. The Philippines will be retained, and the beneficent work of education will go on in the islands. Tariff protection will be maintained, though there may be some modifications of schedules, if necessary, without endangering the whole fabric of protection. The gold standard will be preserved in all its integrity. The upbuilding of our navy will continue, and our flag will be respected throughout the world. Our government expenditures will continue to be on a liberal but not extravagant basis, consistent with the efficiency in all branches of the public service and in all fields of national progress.

We shall not be compelled, during the whole period of progress and good times that lies just before us, to sell government bonds to pay the expense of running the government. If we should sell bonds for this or any other purpose, they would be sold to the people, not to a wealthy syndicate at $10,000,000 less than they would bring in the open market. In a word, under Roosevelt's administration we shall go forward instead of backward.

All these things, and many more, comprise the significance of the great victory which Republican voters achieved at Tuesday's election. It was a victory for and of the people, and the people will reap its principal benefits.

CORTELYOU.

Conspicuous by reason of his position as Commander-in-Chief of the Republican forces in the great campaign just ended, has been George Bruce Cortelyou. And, now that the battle is over, the victory won and the enemy routed, foot, horse and dragoons, it seems no more than common justice that this young man should receive his well-earned meed of praise. His work has been difficult, a heavy strain has been put upon him both physically and mentally; he has had much to do that required the exercise of sound judgment and quick wit. As to how stoutly he bore his burdens and to what extent he measured up to every requirement, the nation is well informed at the present hour.

During the campaign Mr. Cortelyou has been made the target for many of the enemy's bitterest shafts. He has been attacked, vilified and reviled. But under it all he bore himself with patience and dignity, and, when he felt called upon to hit back, it will be remembered that he struck straight from the shoulder and with such excellent precision as to have caused his beraters much discomfiture and pain. He has proved himself a very competent and dexterous fighter, indeed, and it is saying but little to give voice to the fact that he stands high in the estimation of his countrymen.

It is said that when the President announced to the National Committee during the Chicago convention that George B. Cortelyou was his choice for national chairman, the politicians plunged and reared with much angry opposition to that choice. But the President's wisdom has now been amply proved. And it goes to show what a clear-headed business man can accomplish by the use of clean, honest business methods, even in politics. There wasn't much fuss nor feathers in the campaign, the brass bands played but an inconspicuous part in it, yet every move was made to count and every step taken led up to the attainment of certain and glorious success.

THE NEXT HOUSE.

The House of Representatives of the Fifty-ninth Congress will consist of 386 regular members and four Territorial delegates, or 390 in all. The present House has 210 Republicans, 176 Democrats and two labor-unionists, with two vacancies.

So far as the returns show at this writing, the Republicans have elected to the new Congress (the Fifty-ninth) 223 members, and the Democrats 141, with twelve districts yet in doubt. Of these districts, six are now represented by Republicans and six by Democrats. If these districts go as they did two years ago, the Republican strength in the House will be 239 members, and the Democratic strength 147—a clear Republican majority of ninety-two. Official returns may modify these figures somewhat, one way or another, but they are approximately correct.

Secondary in importance only to the triumphant election of President Roosevelt is this increase of the Republican majority in the House from thirty-four to ninety-two or more—almost trebling the Republican preponderance in the House. No radical changes of party strength in the Senate are likely to occur during the next few years. At present there is a Republican majority of twenty-four in the Senate. This is more likely to be increased than diminished as the result of the late election. Therefore, the President will have back of his administration the solid support of a Congress strongly Republican in both branches.

This condition will carry with it great responsibilities—a fact which the President fully realizes, as he has declared since receiving the news of his election. Who can doubt that the next four years will be epoch-making years in the nation's history? The President will have a free hand, within the large sphere of his legitimate and rightful official authority. That he will not exceed that authority is as certain as it is that he has been elected by the largest popular majority ever given to a candidate in the history of the world. That he will obey the Constitution is equally certain, for no man in all the land reverences the Constitution more deeply than he. That we shall make great progress under the next four years of his administration is a foregone conclusion, for he is a man of progress, a man of ideas, a man of action rather than of mere words.

The nation is safe under the administration of Roosevelt. His apparent rashness is merely superficial. Go deep enough into an analysis of his character and you shall find one of the most careful and conservative of all the men who have occupied the office of President; a man whose first thought is for his country; a man who would sooner die than commit a wrong against his country; a man with the heart-sympathies of a child, combined with the brain of a statesman; a man of colossal power, who is so far self-disciplined that he could not be induced to use his power in any but a right cause; a man, in brief, completely worthy to fill the exalted office to which he has been chosen by the overwhelming behest of his countrymen.

President Roosevelt's administration will be one of the most brilliant, progressive and beneficial ever known in the history of the nation. It is a matter for general congratulation that he will be supported by a Congress thoroughly in sympathy with his high purposes and ideals.

One of the features of the late election that will attract particular attention is the comparatively large vote polled by the Socialist party. In some places the support received by Debs was almost as strong as that given to Parker, and in Milwaukee it was greater. Evidently the discontented, the restless and the never-satisfied spirits of the country have given up the Democracy in despair and are now flocking to a new standard.

The uninitiated who marveled at the promptness and completeness with which Tuesday night's election news was displayed on The Times bulletins, are, perhaps, not aware that their compliments are due in great part to the Western Union's excellent telegraph service. Everything came through without friction or delay, literally on the wings of the lightning.

The Kaiser's telegram of felicitation to the President brings to mind once more the fact that Germany and the United States can boast of having as their heads of government the ablest young men in the business.

A careful analysis of the vote of California clearly indicates that Chairman Tim Spellacy's early references to Brian Boru failed to carry the weight that a King's name might be expected to carry.

Tuesday's victory was so overwhelming that it seems a shame to even shout about it. Besides, those who voted the other way are so few in number that it is difficult to know whom to suspect.

Several colleges have conferred degrees on President Roosevelt, and now the electoral college is about to confer another upon him—a degree to which he is eminently entitled.

Now that the President has entered into the House of Fulfillment, let us hope that Health and Good Cheer will be the companions that sit with him at his fireside.

Evidently San Francisco decided that the mouthings of its man Livernash was nothing more than balderdash.

Whatever else may be said about the new Governor of Massachusetts it is at least well known that he is a man who believes in pegging away.

W. R. Hearst, W. J. Bryan and Tom Watson are now to take charge of the Democratic party. Nobody will object. The road is clear for them.

As far as Mr. Parker is concerned, he doubtless is willing to concede that the President as a Rough Rider is all he has been cracked up to be.

Perhaps it would be just as well if we should all quit talking politics, now—but, dang it, there's that municipal campaign still staring us in the face.

The hostilities in the Orient are at liberty to resume. We shall now be able to spare the esteemed belligerents a few spare moments of our attention.

When a Los Angeles man considers this double dose of politics that he's got to swallow, it almost makes him wish he lived in Milpitas.

In the selection of a Governor the people of Massachusetts evidently had resolved to stick to the shoemaker to the last.

Tom Watson may now proceed to reorganize the Democratic party, providing he can succeed in locating it.

IN PRAISE OF PUMPKIN PIE.

And kickshaws out of France,
Tropic fruits and tropic fishes,
And eye our foods askance:

I sing the praise of pumpkin pie.

The palate meant to wrench;
Their sauces hot and cold their ices,
And names dressed up in French.

I sing the praise of pumpkin pie.

For pumpkin pie is the thing to tickle
The palate of him who loves what's good.
And I hope old Time will stay his sickle
Till I've had my fill of that glorious food.

It glows with a color deeply golden,
Matching the hues of autumn woods,
In fact—for the phrase I'm to slang beholden,
Pumpkin pie is there with the goods.

So—when I'm not eating it—always I
Am singing the praise of pumpkin pie.

Registered a Second Time.

A few days ago there arrived in Philadelphia from Washington a man whom we will call J. Henry Brown. He went to a hotel, engaged a room, registered, and after having lunched went out again, evidently on a sight-seeing trip. Late in the afternoon he returned and asked the clerk of the hotel for a pen with which to register.

"Why, you registered once," said the clerk, "and it isn't necessary for you to do so again."

"Oh, I know I registered," replied the Washington man in a bland tone, "but I have just been out and got married, and I want to register as 'Mr. and Mrs.'"—Philadelphia Press.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

BENEATH a huge bell of snowy chrysanthemums, Miss Lupe Mason, daughter of Mrs. Mercedes Mason, and Bruce A. Cass exchanged their nuptial vows last evening while soft music sounded through the rooms. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's mother, at No. 317 West Thirty-third street. The room in which the marriage took place was hung with smilax, and the couple stood between curtains of smilax, over which was suspended a bell of chrysanthemums. On either side of the curtains great clusters of chrysanthemums were effectively placed. Over the entire room a canopy of smilax was arranged, and the lights were shaded with white tulle. The bride, a charming brunette and a member of the well-known Robles family of Los Angeles, wore a dainty creation of white silk mull elaborately trimmed with real lace. In her dark hair natural roses were placed, and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by Mrs. Mercedes Borques as matron of honor. Mrs. Borques was attired in pink organdie, with trimmings of lace and ribbon. In her arm she carried a cluster of shell pink carnations. Miss Nettie Michea of Florence, Ariz., who is a cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore pale blue organdie over blue silk and carried pink carnations. The groomsmen were Frank Cass, a cousin of the groom, and Moses Mason, the brother of the bride. Music for the service was rendered by Mrs. Charles Mason, the Lohengrin march being played as the party came down the aisle formed of ribbons. All through the evening music was given by an orchestra.

After the service a supper was served to the intimate friends and relatives present in the dining-room, which was bright with pink carnations and white tulle. Over the table was erected a canopy of white tulle, from the center of which a basket of pink carnations and maiden-hair ferns was suspended. In the center of the table reposed the bride's cake and also the groom's. About the room carnations were arranged, and in one corner a punch bowl was set in a mass of ferns. The other rooms were trimmed with white carnations and asparagus plumosus. The hall was garlanded with smilax and tulle, and filled with potted palms and plants, presenting a gay aspect. The bride is well-known and popular in society, and is a member of one of the old Spanish families of California. Mr. Cass is a nephew of A. B. Cass, and it was while visiting his uncle that he first met and fell in love with the pretty little maid, who is to guide him through life. Mr. and Mrs. Cass left last night on their wedding tour, which will take them to Bartlesville, I. T., where they will make their future home.

The Leisure Hour Whist club held its first meeting of the season on Tuesday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. C. W. Allen, of No. 941 Grattan street.

Games were enoyed and after they were finished prizes were awarded, the first, a handsome inlaid silver vase, being won by Mrs. Dr. B. F. Church and the men's, a silver clothesbrush, by A. H. Voight. Later, refreshments were served. Members of the club present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Canfield, Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Church, Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Garland, Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Comstock, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Magauran, Mr. and Mrs. Abner L. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Voight, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wolcott, Mrs. M. T. Bennet, Mrs. Vinton L. Mitchell, and Dr. J. J. Choate. Guests of the club included: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Payne, Miss Canfield, Omar Smith and Mr. Galusha.

Wed at Parsonage.

Miss Lottie Lyon and Ira O. Rubendale, both of Palo, Ill., were married Monday afternoon, the ceremony taking place at the parsonage of the Methodist Church, with Rev. Robert McIntyre officiating. The bride, who is a fair girl, wore a gown of green and white crepe de chine with garnitures of lace, and quaint baby sleeves. A girdle of blue finished the pretty gown, and a forget-me-not hat set off the bride's beauty. She carried a bouquet of violets. The only witnesses at the wedding were the bride's sister, Mrs. Edward Herr, and Mrs. K. C. Mohrman, both of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Rubendale will spend some time in seeing California, after which they will make their future home in this city.

Church Sale.

Everything is now in readiness for the sale which the ladies of the Independent Church of Christ have planned to take place this afternoon in the Woman's Clubhouse on South Figueroa street. For the evening a delightful programme has been arranged in which the following musicians will take part: Mrs. Hibler, soprano; Miss Golden, contralto; Mr. Zinc, tenor; Mr. Pfannkuchen, baritone; Miss Aileen Northrup, violinist; Miss Belle Martin, soprano, and Miss Riley.

Japanese Tea Party.

Kimona gowned girls stood beneath Japanese lanterns, and among the cherry blossoms on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weiner of No. 735 Sunset Boulevard, when Miss Anna Weiner, who has recently returned from New York City, entertained a number of friends with a Japanese tea party. Chrysanthemums bloomed, and cherry blossoms scattered their fragrance through the rooms while fancy lanterns cast a soft glow over the pretty scene. Games were played and various Oriental prizes awarded. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Miss Minnie Wolf, also in Japanese costume. Tea was served and cakes and ices, and each guest was presented with an eggshell cup and saucer as a souvenir. During the evening music was rendered by the talented Misses Anna Lipcaan and Jennie Spindler on the violin and piano. Those who enjoyed the evening were: Misses Minnie Wolf, Kahn, Anna Lipcann, Sadie Goldberg, Mrs. Albright, Mrs. Weiner, and Mrs. Wolf; Messrs. Al Horowitz, Charles Eisenstein, Sam Stein, Abe Goodaman, Ed Funk of New York, Hy Levy, Ben Davidson, and Schireschn.

Pine Forest Whist.

Mrs. A. R. Glidden, assisted by Miss Daisy Persons, entertained members of the Pine Forest Whist Club at her home, No. 234 North Belmont avenue, Monday afternoon. The first prize, a set of bread and butter plates, was captured by Mrs. Sherman Page, and Mrs. W. H. Wayman received the second, a Bohemian glass compart. The guests of the club were Mrs. Mary Beebe, Mrs. L. Blaisdel, Mrs. M. F. Brooks, Mrs. N. P. Conrey, Miss Grace Stevens and Miss Knoll.

Mrs. H. Beckwith of No. 427 West Twenty-third street will be hostess on November 21, when she will entertain the club.

Beneath Bows of Tulle.

Miss Lulu Kathryn Huff and Bert Clifford Smith were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Huff of No. 1424 Vermont avenue, Rev. W. H. White, who is a cousin of Mr. Smith, conducting the service. Decorations for the affair were elaborate. In the parlor where the couple stood a canopy of smilax and tulle was erected, and directly over the heads of the party swung a wedding bell of white carnations. On either side curtains of smilax were hung and over the piano smilax was garlanded with white chrysanthemums enmeshed in the greenery. The colonial pillars between the rooms were wound with smilax, and in every niche and corner jars of chrysanthemums were placed. Miss Huff wore a pretty robe of white chiffon made en traine and trimmed with lace. A yoke of lace with a bertha finished the bodice, and a high girdle of satin was about the slender waist of the bride. She carried a cluster of white chrysanthemums. Little Horace White carried the ring on a satin pillow, and pretty, brown-eyed Miss Lillian Higgins carried a basket filled with rose petals, which she scattered in the path of the party. Mrs. Harry G. Webster rendered the wedding music, Lohengrin being given at the approach of the couple. During the ceremony "O Promise Me" was softly played. In the dining-room where supper was served an attractive floral arrangement prevailed. In the center of the table a basket of gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums and ferns rested and from the chandeliers to the corners of the table festoons of asparagus plumosus were arranged, while over the table a tracery of the delicate fern fell. On the mantel yellow chrysanthemums were banked and yellow silk shaded the silver candelabra on the table. A beautiful bride's cake was on the buffet, and bows of yellow tulle added much to the beauty of the room. In the hall white chrysanthemums were effectively combined with smilax. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are popular young people of Pico Heights, and the bride, who is a pretty brunette, has many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have gone on a short wedding tour, after which they will be at home at No. 822 West Thirty-seventh street.

Church Entertainment.

The Sunday-school of the University Methodist Church has planned an entertainment to take place Friday evening. A fine programme has been arranged for the affair. Among other features will be recitations by Miss Emma Bates, Miss Louise Brigden and Miss Edith Low, music by the Pacific Hand Bell Ringers, a solo by Miss Mattie Williams with violin obligato by Philip Goodwin, and also selections by the Sunday-school orchestra.

Dinner for Bride.

Miss Hattie Sanders of No. 1109 West Adams street was the hostess Wednesday evening when she entertained with a dinner in honor of Miss Ella Clark and her fiancé, Henry C. Lee. The table was adorned with cut flowers and ferns. Those who sat down were: Miss Edwinna Hammond of San Francisco, Miss Adelaide Brown, Miss Jane Campbell, Miss Anita Abascal, and Messrs. Russell Taylor, Will Wolters, Walter Comstock, Warren Carbart and Lewis Treadwell.

Notes and Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bloomer and their young son, William, have returned to their home on Figueroa street after an absence of two months spent in an extended tour of the East.

Mrs. E. V. S. Rautman and daughter, Miss M. E. Itautman of Baltimore, Md., have returned to California and will spend the winter at Hotel Maryland, Pasadena.

Miss Edwinna Hammond expects to leave today for San Francisco. She will return to Los Angeles in a few weeks, after visiting her home.

IS ALWAYS GLOVED.

Why Queen Alexandra of Great Britain Never Shows Her Hands.

[Baltimore American:] Few can boast of having seen the ungloved hand of Queen Alexandra. She wears gloves all the time, even when writing to her relatives abroad, with whom she carries on a most extensive correspondence, and when engaged in that embroidery in which she is an adept. The reason for this is, however much age may be concealed on the face and even the neck, it invariably betrays itself on the hands, and that while the Queen does not look more than a woman of 30—younger, in fact, than her daughter-in-law, the Princess of Wales—Father Time having apparently stopped the sands of his hour glass during the last three decades where her English Majesty is concerned, her hands alone would betray the fact that she is now in her sixtieth year, and that considerably more than twelve months have elapsed since she celebrated the fortieth anniversary of her wedding. All these gloves, of which she uses several pair a day, are made in Paris and are so perfect as regards fit that they constitute absolutely no impediment to needlework, to writing or to playing on the piano. Many of my fair readers will likewise be interested to learn that in Paris there is a loom which from one year's end to the other is devoted exclusively to the weaving of hosiery for King Edward's consort. The stockings, although made with Valenciennes entredeux, never exceed $30 a pair, presenting in this respect a contrast to the hosiery of those Parisian and American elegantes who often pay as much as $100 and even $150 a pair. It has often been a matter for surprise to me why so few foreign women—and by that I mean non-Parisiennes—should be content to buy their gloves and their hosiery ready made. Instead of having them specially made for them. A true elegante should be no more willing to wear ready-made gloves or a ready-made stocking than a ready made ready-made dress.

Anglesey's Relic.

A remarkable illustration of the regard in which the Marquess of Anglesey is held by Bangor tradesmen has been given at the sale of the belongings at Anglesey Castle, which is now in progress.

Among the lots offered was the Marquis's "exceedingly valuable" coronation robe in crimson velvet, together with coronet to match, despite a keen effort by Bangor tradesmen to secure the lot, a party of tradesmen succeeded in obtaining it with the object of restoring it to the Marquis.

The auctioneer, before offering the robe, said many painful scenes had happened during the sale, but this was the most painful. The tradesmen would have liked to give both robe and coronet back to the Marquess, but they had no power to do so.

"We are prepared to return it, and we can buy them," said the spokesman for the tradesmen, but the crowd refused to listen.

Steadily the bidding rose, and when it reached £38 the tradesmen were disconsolate.

It appeared as though the tradesmen were going to succeed. "For the first and last time," said the auctioneer, as his hammer was falling, but the tradesmen's spokesman shouted "Ten pounds!" and at that price the robe and coronet were bought in.—Express.

THE REAL PULL.

Who still preaches joy

THE STORE OF QUALITY

DIAMONDS

SOME people think we have so many diamonds for a store of Los Angeles, and our well known policy of offering diamonds of one quality—the finest pure white stones, perfect in cut and cutting, and never any poorer quality, imperfect, off-color stones—is taking too high ground. Others sell cheaper goods, and say they like yellow, off-color diamonds just as well, and that an imperfection or flaw doesn't matter so much, if it will only lessen the price.

We have one quality only—the finest perfect stones, no matter whether they be little stones or a big one.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

"Hurrah for Theodore Roosevelt, the President of the United States, and the great educator of the nation!" was the enthusiastic utterance of Fraulein Malwina Lampadius, ere she proceeded to address the Womens' Press Club at the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday afternoon.

Fraulein Lampadius is the American representative of several German newspapers, and she was to tell the club of the education of German children.

She made a quaint picture, being dressed as a German mother, with the black lace head-dress that proclaims the matron and bits of bright red geranium put with the lace to brighten it up. She wore a large enveloping apron of dark blue German calico, and she told with a tough of pathos that this self-same apron was one worn by her mother in her own babyhood. To show that the German mother is never idle, Fraulein had a soft silken strap over her shoulder, and a great huge doll was cuddled and supported in a pillow, held by the strap, and in spite of all this, Fraulein was knitting a stocking, and flicked the needles merrily while the make believe baby was as comfortable as you please. Then a soft crooning lullaby she sang to the baby, an exquisite old thing of Brahms, and then another which she herself translated from the German. But the very first song of all was a German rendition of "Home Sweet Home," for that, said Fraulein, is the first song that a German baby hears.

Ah! the wonderful things that she told of those little German babies. From one to six godfathers and mothers they must have, and the godfather must write the baby a letter and send it a piece of money mayhap. Indeed there was shown a letter written to Fraulein's grandfather way back in the years by his godfather, and the pieces of money he sent were there too.

"The family," said Fraulein, "is the foundation of the state and the glory of the nation, in Germany, and the German matron regards it as a crime against her family and the world if she has no children."

Fraulein quoted from Napoleon that "The future of a child is always the work of the mother, whether good or bad," and said she, the parents of Germany control their children, and the Emperor and his consort are among the best examples in the nation.

"Kindergartens are as numerous in Germany as the sands of the sea," said Fraulein, "and the principles of Pestaloszi, and then of Froebel are given to every child. A girl at six years of age must be able to perform many little household tasks and in particular she must be able to make broth for a sick person. From the ages of fourteen to sixteen, the girls remain at home and are trained in cooking and domestic virtues, besides the severe decorum of the German etiquette, and many other interesting things had Fraulein to tell, with jolly anecdotes of the discipline of the little German Princess. She sang German songs accompanying herself on a zither, and she gave all these things with the sense of reality upon them, for she herself was once a little girl in a huge house in Leipsic, Germany, and her father was the esteemed friend and companion of the great composer, Mendelssohn.

Ruskin Art Club.

Mrs. N. P. Conrey presided over the meeting of the Ruskin Art Club yesterday, in the absence of Mrs. Housh, and the topic of the morning was under the leadership of Mrs. W. R. Brown and Mrs. F. H. Snowden. The approaching meeting of the District Federation was mentioned and two delegates were appointed to attend, with two alternates. These were, Mrs. F. H. Snowden, and Mrs. D. C. Barber; and the alternates, Miss Belle Smith and Miss Donovan.

Both Russia and Germany were taken up in the lesson, Miss Victoria Witmer giving the first talk on the founding of St. Petersburg by Peter the Great, on the low island at the mouth of the river Neva, working against almost insurmountable obstacles, 100,000 lives being sacrificed during the first year's work. Miss Witmer stated that this ambitious monarch had just been on a visit to Holland and was probably impressed with the tenacity of the people in conquering the sea, and he was determined to make the port of Russia a principal feature, with its long beautiful driveway, fine statuary, bridges and palaces.

Miss Witmer as well as Miss Letha Lewis who succeeded her on the programme, had visited Russia and their accounts of the present-day conditions illustrated with pictures that they had brought home with them, added much to the interest of the recital.

Mrs. Clough gave an interesting rendering of the subject of "Charles XII through the eyes of Voltaire." Mrs. Clough represented Voltaire as a charming historian acquainting one with the youth of this monarch who was then gentle, yet indomitable, following him through the whole of his dramatic career.

Catherine II of Russia, as she came to Russia at the age of twelve, and her gradual growth into one of the most powerful women of her time, as well as one of the most capable and masculine, was portrayed in charming phrase by Miss Letha Lewis, and Miss Lewis even told of the wonderful masques of that day, and the marvels of extravagance of dress and the ladies of the club were astonished to hear that the masquers changed their disguises at least three times during a single evening. The descriptions of the magnificent court dresses of Catherine and her royal coaches embellished with magnificent jewels, was a rare tale to tell, especially as Miss Lewis had beheld many of these preserved mementos of a great but corrupt past, when she was touring in Russia. Rauch's great monument of Frederick the Great, as given by Miss Belle White, took one in spirit to Germany of a corresponding date and Miss White followed the sculptor through the years and years of weary ups and downs, of being at the beck and call of the King, or trying to please His Majesty, and the people, as well, without doing violence to his own artistic sense, until great and glorious victory was won.

Mrs. Kanst concluded the programme by a delightfully read paper on Winkelmann, Lessing and Goethe, telling the striking characteristics of each and their influence upon the time.

New Officers.

There was an interesting session of the Cosmos Club yesterday afternoon at the Ruskin Art Club room. New officers were elected, Mrs. Yoakum, the retiring president, declined a nomination, as she is going to Texas very soon, to make her residence. Mrs. Charles Lee Lewis was elected in her stead, with Mrs. Jordan as vice-president; Mrs. Howell as secretary; and Mrs. George Gainsley as treasurer.

The club decided to identify itself with the General Federation and delegates were appointed to attend the District Federation meeting at Long Beach, November 15 and 16. Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Yoakum were appointed. The afternoon was profitably spent with six round table discussions of settlement work. Much interest was shown and one of the questions dwelt upon was the difference between settlement work and church work. The answer was found in the fact that the class of people to be benefited by the settlement are the people that it must go to, while people come to the churches.

There was a short time devoted to the consideration of California history, to the early navigators who discovered California. This was under the direction of Mrs. Greenleaf.

Wednesday Morning Club.

Many pertinent questions handed out by the leader of the Shakespeare section, Mrs. M. M. Adams, brought out an interesting discussion in the morning, at the Wednesday Morning Club, the questions having to do with the third act of "The Merchant of Venice," Act IV was read and the themes for the graduation work of the senior class of the Shakespeare section were dwelt upon. It was decided to take up the study of King Lear next.

Luncheon was served at 12 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock Mrs. R. J. Adcock conducted the Bible study on "Queen Esther."

The rest of the afternoon was given over to the music section that rendered a fine programme, as follows: Piano solo, nocturne, by Chopin, given by Miss Douglas; vocal solo, by Mrs. D. E. Cain, with encore; ladies' quartette, "Song of the Seasons," by Mesdames Sutton, Conckiin, Hayward and Pitkin, with encore; vocal solo, by Madame Gordon Norman, "Lullaby," and "Folk Song," as an encore; ladies' trio, "Rest Thee on This Mossy Pillow," by Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Hayward and Mrs. Pitkin. Several delightful readings were given by Madame Gordon Norman and the affair closed with a social hour over the teacups.

Main-street Child-study Loss.

The Main-street School Child-study Circle feels that it has suffered a great loss in the death of its president, Mrs. Emma Myers. Mrs. Myers was one of the charter members of the circle and had been president since its organization.

FRISCO AND FRENCHY.

Board of Directors go Around to Protest Against a Knocker—No Resolutions.

Members of a board of directors going down to give a man a pair of black eyes was a new feature of business enterprise that developed here yesterday.

The fighting directors were Frisco and Frenchy, who manage the San Francisco private messenger service here.

At a special directors' meeting yesterday it became apparent that a man named Cooper, who runs a lodging-house on Wilmington street, had advised the coy young ladies who live in his house not to patronize the 'Frisco messengers.

Frisco and Frenchy did not send their attorney around. Neither did they make arrangements to sue for damages, or seek an injunction closing the advice box of Mister Cooper.

Frisco and Frenchy adjourned the directors' meeting and called officially upon Mister Cooper.

Mister Cooper came out of it with a pair of eyes the color of that taste in your mouth the next morning.

He at first had the boys arrested for battery. Before the day was out, however, he relented and asked to have the charges dismissed. Finding it was too late to do this, he went to the station and furnished the boys bail money.

NORMAL SCHOOL.

Another of the pleasing programmes in recitation which is to be hereafter a regular feature of the Normal course in reading, will be given at the Normal Assembly Hall this afternoon at 3 o'clock, under the direction of Miss Gill, the instructor in that department.

This exercise is open to all the friends of the school who care to attend, and will doubtless be as full of interest as that of two weeks ago. The programme today will consist of selections from F. Hopkinson Smith.

The Streit Davenport Beds have every appearance of the finest davenport, but are easily transformed into a perfect bed. We just received a large line of these superior davenports and are showing a few of them in our south window. We consider it the most perfect combination bed and davenport on the market. When set up as a davenport you would not suspect it of being a bed, and when made up as a bed you would not think it was a davenport. We have them in all the popular woods—golden oak, weathered oak, imitation mahogany and genuine mahogany, upholstered in heavy cut velours, also in leather.

We have also a large line of the Streit Morris Chairs. These chairs have a patent foot-rest which makes them much superior to other Morris chairs.

THE YOKE:

A Romance of the Days When the Lord Redeemed the Children of Israel from the Bondage of Egypt.

BY ELIZABETH MILLER.

PUBLICATION IN THE TIMES MADE UNDER SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE AUTHOR AND HER PUBLISHERS.]

She dropped her hands and looked at him with flaming cheeks and smiling eyes. There was more in her look than he could fathom, but he did not puzzle longer when she came back to her place and hid her face away from him.

It is the love of riper years that makes the lips of lovers silent. But Kenkenes and Rachel were very young and wholly demonstrative, and they had need of many words to supplement the testimony of caresses. They had much to tell and they left no avowal unmade.

But at last Kenkenes's voice wearied and Rachel noted it. So in her pretty authoritative way, she stroked his bashes down and bade him sleep. When she removed her hands and clasped them above his head, his eyes did not open.

As she bent over him, she noted with a great sweep of tenderness how young he was. In all her relations with Kenkenes she had seen him in the manliest roles. She had depended upon him, looked up to him, and had felt secure in his protection. Now she contemplated a face from which content had erased the mature lines that care had drawn. The curve of his lips, the length of the drooping lashes, the roundness of cheek, and softness of throat, were youthful—boyish. With this enlightenment her love for him experienced a transfiguration. She seemed to grow older than he; the maternal element leaped to the fore; their positions were instantly reversed. It was hers to care for him!

After a long time, his arms relaxed about her and she undid them and disposed them in easy position. Lifting the fillet from his brow, she smoothed out the mark it had made and settled the cushions more softly under his head. From the heap of coverings she took the simplest and the softest and spread it over him. Remembering that the wind from the sea blew shrewdly at night, she laid rugs about the edge of the tent which fluttered in the breeze and returned again to his side.

The new day broke was the happiest Israel had known in a hundred years. Egypt, overthrown and humbled, was bidden them; God was with them, and Canaan was just ahead—perhaps only beyond the horizon. Few but would have laughed at the glory of Babylonia, Assyria and the great powers. For had it not been promised that of Israel nations should be made, and Kings should come?

The march was to be taken up immediately, and in the cool of the morning the host was ready to advance.

Rachel had not permitted herself to be seen until the tent of Miriam was struck. She knew that Kenkenes was astir, waiting for her, and with the delightful inconsistency of maidenhood, she dreaded while she longed to meet her beloved again. And when the moment arrived she slipped across the open space to the camel that was to bear her into Canaan, but in the shadow of the faithful creature, Kenkenes overtook her and folded her in his arms.

"Blessing on thee, my sweet! And blest in having thee once more." "Hast thou slept well?" she asked.

"Most industriously, since I made up for I lost and overlapped a little. But yet I was abroad at dawn prowling about thy tent lest thou shouldst miss me once again. Rachel—" his voice altered and his face grew serious—"Rachel, will thou wed me this day?"

"If it were only 'aye' or 'nay' to be said, I should have said it long ago," she answered with averted eyes. "But there are many things that thou shouldst know, Kenkenes, before thou demandest the answer from me."

"Name them, Rachel," he said submissively; "but let me say this first. Mine eyes are not mystic but most truthfully can I tell this moment, which of us twain will rule over my tent."

"And thou art ready for the tent and shepherd life of Israel?" she asked gravely, but before he could answer she went on.

"Hear me first. So tender hast thou been to me; so much hast thou sacrificed for my sake that it were unkind to bind thee to me in the life-long sacrifices and life-long hardships that I may know. Thine enemy and mine is dead, and Egypt rid of him. There is much in Egypt to prosper thee; there they state is high; there, thou hast opportunity and wealth. Israel has no other thee! God and me. Even the faith thou couldst keep in Egypt, so thou wert watchful. And, further, thou art [illegible] market's son, and building takes the place of carving for thee now. But here, O Kenkenes, thou must lay thy chisel down for ever, for the faith of the multitude, so newly weaned from idolatry, is too feeble to be tried with the sight of images."

Kenkenes heard her with a passive countenance. She gave him news, indeed—facts of a [illegible]ious nature, but he held his peace and let her proceed.

"And this, yet further. Once in that time when I was a slave and thou my master and loved me not—"

The dark eyes reproached her.

"Didst love me, then, in truth? But it matters not—and yet"—coming closer to him, "it matters much. In that love thou hadst told me so, we had come of Canaan, thou and I. I boast of it, being but newly filled with and freshly come from Caleb who taught us. Then, Israel was enslaved and not yet so vastly helped by Jehovah. But alas! I have seen Israel fed and attended by its God, and the bitter tokens of its conduct, Israel is far from Canaan. I am of Israel and whosoever weds with me, will be of Israel likewise. It may not be that I shall escape my people's sorrows. Shall I bring them upon thy head, also, my Kenkenes?"

"Kenkenes!"

"Aye, I have said. Thou wouldst put me away from thee, back into bondage."

"Oh, sweet thou not? I would have thee know thy heart; I would not have thee choose blindly; I do but warn myself," she cried, panic-stricken.

"And yet, thou wouldst deny me some delight of sacrifice. Can I not surrender for thee as well?"

She drooped her head and did not answer.

"Ah! thou speakest of the benefits of Egypt," he continued. "What were Egypt without thee, save a great darkness haunted and vacant? Besides, there is no Egypt beyond this sea. She is a prison and crossed with Israel—her beauty and her glory and her treasure. For thou are Egypt and thou to me all that I loved in

She took her hands.

"Thy may - not as justly doubt knowledge of thy heart?" he asked that she surrendered, he no further in his protest.

"Then will thou wed me, my love?"

She drew back from him a little, though she willingly left her hands where they were, and Kenkenes, noting the flush on her cheeks, the pretty gravity of her brow, and the well-known air she assumed when she discoursed, smiled and said fondly to himself:

"By the signs, I am to be taught something more."

"Thou knowest, my Kenkenes," she began, "the Hebrews are married simply. There is feasting and dancing, and the bride is taken to the house of her father-in-law. Thereafter there is still much feasting, but the wedding ceremony is done at the home-bringing of the bride."

"I hear," said Kenkenes when she paused.

"I am without kindred; thou art without house. There can be no wedding feast for us, nor dancing nor singing, for Israel is on the march."

"Of a truth," Kenkenes assented.

"It is enough," said Kenkenes.

"Hur and Miriam brought me to thy tent last night."

With his face lighting, Kenkenes drew her to him and put his arm about her.

"So if thou wilt, we shall say—that—from—that moment—"

Her voice grew lower, her words more unready and failed altogether.

"From that moment," he said, eagerly, reassuring her. "From that moment—"

"From that moment I have been thy wife!"

TO SAVE LIFE OF LITTLE ONE.

WANTED TWO HUNDRED PEOPLE TO GIVE SKIN.

Grafting the Only Process that Will Save the Life of Hazel, Who Was Fearfully Burned — Family Has Few Acquaintances and Public is Relied Upon.

The physicians have told the mother

that only this can save the child's life. As the family are comparative strangers here they are in despair. They decided at last to appeal to the public through the papers for volunteers.

The little patient is Hazel Elden, aged 9, of No. 2227 F street. She was terribly burned October 29 in a bonfire.

Her mother had only that day risen from a sick bed. They were together in the yard watching the bonfire, when the mother got up to pay a grocery boy who had gone into the house.

The child's terrible screams brought her out again, to see her wee daughter running frantically around the yard with her dress on fire. An old aunty was in the yard trying in vain to catch the blazing child. In her terror Hazel ran from her.

John Wenner, a boy who lives next door, jumped over the fence and tried to catch her. It took all his boy's art of dodging and turning to seize her at last. Hanging on the clothesline were some rugs. The boy ripped these down and rolled the child in them until the fire was out.

The child was frightfully burned from the waist down. Even now the dressings cannot be changed without anesthetics being administered.

All who are willing to help save the child's life are asked to go to the Children's Hospital, Alpine and Castelar streets, at 5 o'clock tonight. A number of girls and men employes of the Broadway Department Store, where the child's aunt works, have volunteered. There are not enough of them to save the little life, however.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful It is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking, or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poisons of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form, or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in the stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

BRAVES BLAZE FOR CHILDREN.

DEL ROSA MOTHER SAVES BY HEROIC FIGHT.

Incendiary Fire of Home and Store Nearly Costs Three Lives—Butz, Alleged Santa Fe Swindler, Hunted. Lodge "Brother" Named as Co-respondent in Divorce Suit.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 9.—The residence and grocery of S. Johnson at Del Rosa was totally destroyed by an incendiary fire, which nearly cost three lives, late last night. Mrs. Johnson, who was alone with two small children at the time, saved the latter by a heroic fight, the flames having almost cut off means of reaching the room, where the children lay asleep, when she rushed bravely in and rescued them. It is believed the fire was started by Mexicans who had been refused credit at the store. The loss is $2500. The property was fully insured but less than a week ago.

TRYING TO HIDE NAME.

Theodore Windisch commenced divorce proceedings here today, naming a prominent fellow lodge man as co-respondent. Every effort is made to conceal the latter's identity. Some months ago Mrs. Windisch came into prominence by trying to secure a marriage license for her little daughter to marry the alleged co-respondent, the license being refused on account of the child's tender years. Windisch tried to hush the matter up, and, a few weeks later Mrs. Windisch, with the child, disappeared, the husband charging that the lodge man accompanied them. A decidedly peculiar feature of the case is that Windisch himself shields the name of the "brother" he accuses. This fact will make developments more interesting.

BUTZ A HUNTED MAN.

H. R. Butz is a hunted man. He has been out under $500 bonds, awaiting a second hearing for assisting in the Eldridge swindles, whereby the Santa Fé at Needles was robbed of several thousand dollars. The first trial resulted in the conviction of Butz, whom Eldridge declared was his right hand man. On technicalities Butz secured a new trial, and when the case was called for hearing in the Superior Court, this morning, he failed to appear, and the $500 bond was declared forfeited, the court issuing a bench warrant for his arrest, and fixing his bond at $1000.

Less than four days ago the Sheriff had track of him still in this State, and it is expected that he will be picked up before the end of the week. His description and photograph have been sent broadcast. Before his arrest he was a gambler at Needles and Bakersfield.

STRIKERS THREATEN.

A bulletin issued by the union strikers here today contains an ominous threat against the merchants who dare to attempt to confer with the Board of Trade Committee to agree upon a method of suppressing the acts of lawlessness committed against the new shop employés. The threat has caused great indignation among the citizens, many of whom have personally assurred the merchants that they will have the backing of the townspeople in any steps they may take to give the per men protection against the labor-union thugs who want to run the town.

TERRIBLY BURNED.

Dick Birmagin, foreman of the repair force of the San Bernardino Traction Company, was frightfully burned this morning while trying to remove a window from one of the company's vestibule cars at the car barn. He was using a screw-driver, which wore away the insulation on an electric wire carrying 550 volts to the headlight, and when the steel met the highly-charged wire, there was a blinding flash, which burned Birmagin on the face and hands, his eyes suffering severely, the sight being temporarily destroyed.

LESSER LOCALS.

James Boyd, late Democratic nominee for Congress, was slightly injured yesterday afternoon in a runaway, which resulted in wrecking the vehicle in which he was riding.

A brush fire was started today in the Cucamonga range northwest of Etiwanda, which before a high wind, soon swept in a sea of flame clear to the top of the range, spreading north by east; burning over several hundred acres and threatening much ranch property.

The Bracewell store was entered last night, the thief cutting his way through a rear door. He smashed the cash register and secured $17.50.

COLTON.

BRUTE BEATS SICK WIFE.

COLTON, Nov. 9.—Mike Young went home raving drunk today and beat his poor wife, who lay sick in bed, on the body and head in a most cruel manner. Her agonized cries brought their fourteen-year-old son to his mother's bedside, and he tried in vain to stay the cruel blows. Turning upon his son, Young kicked him frightfully on the head and mouth. The neighbors were aroused and they called Marshal Adkins, who arrested the vicious man. A complaint will be filed this afternoon.

The woman has been in a very weak condition and the results of this inhuman treatment may be serious.

RIVERSIDE.

CHANCE TO MAKE UP.

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 9.—Through the intercession of friends the charge of embezzlement which landed George Armitage in the County Jail, has been withdrawn by the proprietor of the American Dye Works, and Armitage will be given a chance to make up in collections for the dye works the $170 shortage in his accounts. The case was dismissed this afternoon by the District Attorney, with the understanding that Armitage will be given six weeks in which to make good his defalcations, and the case will not be taken into court.

MONEY TROUBLE.

Gustave Charpilies, a young Swiss, was pladed in the County Jail last evening pending an examination for insanity. His mind seems to be clouded with an attack of melancholia, and although but very little can be made out of his unwilling conversation, money trouble seems to be what is depressing him. He was paid off for his work in Lemon, Los Angeles county, in October, and seems to have lost his money in Los Angeles. He will be examined tomorrow morning.

TREVELYAN TAKES CUP.

E. W. Trevelyan has been awarded the cup for the first handicap golf tournament of the season, played Saturday and Sunday on the Victoria Club links. H. O. H. Maud played a close second, and R. D. Osburn a good third. The committee in charge propose to have similar handicap tournaments on Saturday and Sunday of each week, the handicaps being revised from week to week, so as to make the play as even as possible.

SANTA ANA.

CRAZED WOMAN ON STREETS.

SANTA ANA, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Belleck, a Frenchwoman living on Sycamore street, suffered a sudden and almost complete mental collapse last night. She ran screaming from her home after midnight and was caught on the streets terrifying people with her insane yells. She was put under medical treatment today. Her dementia arises from a nervous malady and a cure may be effected without commitment to a hospital for the insane.

SUES A BANK.

C. B. Ladd of Los Angeles sued the First National Bank of this city to collect about $1500 alleged to be due upon a collection for a promissory note. The note was originally the property of J. W. Heart of Los Angeles, who was found guilty of murder there a few days ago, and was given by J. W. P. Newton. Heart gave the instrument to the local bank for collection and recently the whole amount was collected from Newton. Meantime, however, it is alleged that Heart assigned his interest in the note to C. B. Ladd, and the suit is brought to determine the person to whom the money, which is now in escrow here, shall be paid. Ladd was Heart's attorney in the murder trial, and the note was given as a part of his fee.

Citrus Union Breaks Away, New Auction Formed.

"In Interests of Growers," Says President Fay.

No Exorbitant Commissions to be Permitted.

Something of a stir was caused in local fruit-shipping channels yesterday by a report that the California Citrus Union had made a new and important terminal auction deal at Cleveland, bringing into prospect a sharp war with the California Fruit Exchange.

F. P. Fay, president of the Citrus Union, directly confirmed the first half of the report by making for The Times the following statement:

CAUSES LEADING UP.

"In order to explain the matter intelligently," he said, "it will be necessary to give a short history of affairs that have led up to it. Before the formation of the California Fruit Agency the Southern California Fruit Exchange sold through what is known as the Bigalow Auction, in the city of Cleveland, paying a pretty stiff auction charge. On the formation of the Agency objection was made to this auction by some factors in the Agency; but upon the auction company agreeing to lower its charges to 2½ per cent, which is the highest charge paid to any auction company in the East, the Agency agreed to continue the arrangement at Cleveland. The Bigalow Auction agreed to this, and the Agency, as long as it continued, sold its fruit through the Bigalow Auction, which is composed of the firms of L. A. Banks & Co., Blair & Co., and the Bigalow Fruit Company, under the name of the Consolidated Fruit Co.

ASKED BIGGER COMMISSION.

"Upon the dissolution of the Agency Mr. Bigalow visited California and solicited the business of the Citrus Union and of the Exchange, demanding that the auction charge in Cleveland be raised to 4 per cent, claiming that 2½ per cent. was unprofitable. The Union could not see its way clear to pay an auction company 4 per cent. when no other auction company in the East was charging more than 2½ per cent. and all of them were apparently in a prosperous condition, and so refused to close a contract at a charge in excess of 2½ per cent.

"The Union supposed the Exchange would stand with it to lower prices to the minimum in the interests of the growers, and was therefore very much surprised to learn that the Exchange had entered into a contract with the Bigalow Auction Company for the coming season, agreeing to pay 4 per cent, and the auction company agreeing to handle exclusively for the Exchange.

"This left the Union with two alternatives: either to do a small private sale business in the Cleveland market, or, by giving their business, to induce others to establish an auction which would handle the business at a fair charge and eliminate the hardships that had been worked to the trade through the monopoly of the Bigalow auction.

ALTERNATIVE CHOSEN.

"We have therefore, made a contract for the coming season with the Merchants' Fruit Auction of Cleveland to sell whatever fruit we may have for sale at auction in the Cleveland market, they to charge us 2½ per cent. for selling and to run the auction as an open auction to all buyers and sellers.

"An open auction is an auction at which any buyer, no matter how large or how small he be, can attend the sales, bid upon the fruit offered, and buy the minimum quantity which the auction company sells, on equal terms with any other buyer, it being a case of the highest bidder taking the goods. By having such an auction the small buyer will often raise the whole basis of values, and it prevents the formation of cliques in the auction to control prices. Furthermore, it is an auction at which any shipper can offer his goods upon equal terms with any other.

"The Merchants Fruit Auction Company is composed of the largest buyers of fruit in the Cleveland market. C. R. Chandler, of the well-known house of C. Chandler & Sons, is the president; the other officers are members of most of the representative houses and the largest auction buyers there.

SAVING TO GROWERS.

"One and one-half per cent. difference on a car of fruit may not at first appear to be a large amount, but when you consider that the Agency last year sold 676 cars in the Cleveland market and that 1½ per cent. will average about $12 per car, it amounts to in excess of $8200 which would otherwise go direct to the growers of the fruit. The move was made, therefore, entirely in the interests of our growers. The Citrus Union does not feel that it can afford to be held up at any point, and considers that it would be remiss in its duty to its growers if it allowed this to be done. We believe our growers will support us in this move."

MAYOR'S SMILE WAS FRAYED.

BIG TUMBLE IN SNYDER STOCK SINCE TUESDAY.

Changed Outlook of Mayoralty Race Since Enormous Republican Majority Was Rolled up—Betting in Favor of McAleer—Blue Day in the Executive Chamber.

Quotations on the bulletin boards at vespers Tuesday indicated that all was well with the Mayor. But in one wild, rollicking night the odds changed from 2 to 1 on Snyder to $100 to $50 on McAleer.

The Mayor and his cabinet had prepared for a quiet election, and a Republican majority of perhaps a couple of thousand votes, that would come like dew with the twilight and fade away with the morning shadows.

What they got was a blinding, drifting snowstorm of ballots that piled up a Republican plurality almost one-half greater than the biggest vote Snyder ever polled for Mayor.

It wasn't a political landslide; it was a Tyrolean avalanche.

As though the prospects for the city were not blue enough, right on the heels of it came the report of that 20,000 Republican majority in San Francisco.

The Mayor, in moments of confidence, had told his friends that he was in training for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination two years hence, and that the Examiner had come to Los Angeles mostly to stir up the latent Democracy and get it in line for the State campaign of 1906. Even the Mayor had to admit that the manipulator of the "least wire" had better have left the Jeffersonian derelicts undisturbed than drive them all over to the other fellow.

Wild-eyed and woozy, a few stragglers of the scattered hosts of Democracy gathered at the City Hall yesterday morning to tell the Mayor how it happened. The Mayor's campaign smile was frayed about the edges. The joyous laugh that had greeted Kern's downfall was hardened until it almost cracked.

He even went so far as to say unkind things about the janitor.

While this conference was going on a tidal wave of McAleer money swept the odds of 2 to 1, which had prevailed ever since the Mayor's return from St. Louis, clear off the boards.

In the flush of their exuberance a few Republicans who had made a killing in the national campaign, offered wagers of $100 to $50 on McAleer.

Some one sent for Tom Savage, but Tom for once had deserted his post. He went down to Redondo in the morning and stayed there all day. The Eighth Ward had, in Tom's opinion, made a fool of itself, and Tom didn't want to take any chances with it until it came back to its senses.

Late last night Tom was still trying to figure out how it happened. He said it was all because there was nothing at stake in the election.

"There wasn't a single thing to fight for," he said, "an' the boys just naturally picked up that little gum stamp and plugged the first circle on the ticket. Why we knew that we didn't have a bit more show in the election than a rabbit. Everything was settled before the polls opened an' a man's vote wasn't worth a glass of beer.

"Now, you wait until the city election. That is when this ward will shine. Of course, the ward went Republican. The fellows who do politics were disgusted and stayed away from the polls. But don't risk any of your loose change on the proposition that this thing will happen again in December. Say, that wasn't an election yesterday, anyhow. That was only the Republican primaries."

It devolved upon Eddie Morris to rally the shattered forces of the Snyder Democracy before they fled blindly into the McAleer camp. Eddie started down Spring street with a big roll and a bigger line of talk. Eddie probably knows how to make a $5 bet look like a $100 wager as well as any man in Los Angeles.

By the time he had rounded Third street and finished at the City Hall, the roll had shrunk to the size of a lead pencil, and Eddie could only talk in a husky whisper. But he had done his work. There wasn't a bulletin board on either Spring street or Broadway that offered more than even money on McAleer.

Snyder and Werdin met in the corridors of the City Hall shortly after noon. It wasn't a very joyous meeting. Each looked at the other as though to ask what he was going to do about it.

It was the Alexander episode that put Werdin to the bad. The Werdin and Lauder machines had worked in pairs all through that campaign. That was why the sunshine couldn't pierce the blue fog that hung all day like a pall over the Street Superintendent's office.

But there was nothing suggesting a stampede about Werdin. His Dutch ancestry had given him a stubborn courage that stood the test. His powerful shoulders were slightly crouched and a savage look in his eyes fairly hurtled defiance.

Whatever else may be said of Werdin, he is not a quitter.

SUPREMACY!

AT last we can announce to the public that Regal Shoes are made in QUARTER SIZES. Never before has such an achievement been accomplished in shoe manufacture.

There are now 288 different fittings in each of the 75 new Regal styles—36 quarter sizes in 8 widths. No other manufacturer can offer you more than half as many. If his even size is too small and his next half size too large, you are helpless. You must either wear shoes that don't fit, or buy made-to-order shoes at extravagant prices.

The exclusive Regal quarter-size system brings the fittings of shoes down to such minute gradations that no custom bootmaker in the land can build a shoe about your foot with more glove-like smoothness.

When you consider that the Regal price is still $3.50, one-third the cost of a custom shoe which is not a bit better, you will appreciate the magnitude of this accomplishment

75 Handsome Styles for Fall are now ready in each of the 80 Regal Stores. Never before has such an exquisite line of footwear been offered by any one dealer or manufacturer. Even if you're only "looking around," we urge your early inspection.

SWINDLE GAME DOESN'T WORK.

CONSPIRACY IN SPAIN TO "DO" PASADENA MAN.

Blaisdell Singled Out as Organized Gang's Victim, Has Investigation Made Instead of Putting up Money, and American Minister Unearths the Clever Cheating Plot.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, 25 South Raymond Avenue, Nov. —A clever attempt to swindle a Pasadena man has been discovered by Arthur H. Hardy, American Minister to Spain. Alphonse Blaisdell of North Pasadena was singled out as the victim. He received a number of letters from a person who claimed to be his brother, Louis Rodrigues Blaisdell. The latter stated that there was a large sum of money in the Bank of England, and he declared he himself and the Pasadena brother were the heirs to it.

Then came a letter from a Spanish priest informing Alphonse that his relative had died in the hospital of a Spanish military prison and that the Spanish authorities had seized his personal effects and had placed his 6-year-old child in a Spanish convent. The letter alleged that Louis Blaisdell had died while trying to embark for America, and closed by saying that Alphonse Blaisdell's daughter had been consigned to the care of her Pasadena uncle by her father just before he committed his last. Incidentally some money was needed for her trip and to settle up the matter in the Madrid courts.

Instead of sending the money Alphonse Blaisdell referred the case to Congressman McLachlan, who took it up with the State Department, with the result that Minister Hardy investigated and found the whole matter a ruse and an attempt to gain money under false pretenses. Minister Hardy says that there is an organized band of swindlers who do that sort of work in Spain.

CHARTER AMENDMENTS.

The City Council yesterday adopted a resolution requesting the press to publish notice asking the public to submit in writing any suggestions for amendments to the City Charter. The Committees to receive these suggestions will meet Tuesday, and will meet on Wednesday to consider them.

The walnut crop of the sewer farm was sold to Percy Wilding for $6500.

OCEAN PARK.

BATH-HOUSE WORK STOPPED.

OCEAN PARK, Nov. 9.—At noon today an unfounded rumor gained circulation that there had been a strike and the sixty or more carpenters and woodworkers employed on the bath-house by Contractor P. Engstrom. Engstrom had simply laid the men off for a short time until a slight misunderstanding in settled between the latter and the directors of the bath-house corporation over certain lumber being put into the construction of the building. It is expected the directors will meet in a day or two and that work will be resumed at once so the building can be completed by the first of the year.

The trouble was precipitated by the action of H. W. Montgomery, the superintendent. The directors of the bath-house enterprise placed over Mr. Montgomery an inspector, and as he is a practical bath-house builder with long experience, he resented this and tendered his resignation.

BURIED ALIVE BY A CAVE-IN.

POMONA MAN MEETS DEATH AT BOTTOM OF WELL.

Alock Mathers Caught in Avalanche of Falling Earth and Entombed Thirty Feet Down an Old Shaft. Corpse Dug Out Late Last Night After Hard Work.

POMONA, Nov. 9.—Caught in an avalanche of swiftly-falling earth, Alock Mathers, for twenty years an employé of the Pomona Land and Water Company, was entombed in the shaft of an abandoned well thirty feet below ground early this afternoon, and met what was probably instant death.

The accident happened before 2 o'clock a little north of the pumping plant of the irrigation company of Pomona, corner of Orange Grove and Alameda streets. Mathers and Henry Rudolph were removing the concrete casing from the shaft and filling up the excavation with dirt, the former working below and the latter above ground. Rudolph had just hoisted a timber to the surface when he heard the ominous sound of sliding soil and was conscious of the insecurity of the ground beneath him.

Quickly shouting to Mathers and receiving no reply, he called half a dozen times, then realizing the danger, ran and summoned help. It was discovered that the well casing must be built over and strengthened to keep the sand from further caving. This consumed all afternoon, and it was nearly 7 o'clock before a shovelful of earth thrown aside by one of the willing workmen disclosed part of the head of the unfortunate man. Tenderly the dirt was scraped away, and as caving began again, more curbing was put in, and the work carried on foot by foot. After much labor about 11 o'clock tonight, the cold corpse was found standing erect and was freed from imprisonment. Mathers was well known and liked here. He leaves a widow and three children. He was a Forester and Woodman of the World.

COVINA.

SHORT ORANGE CROP.

COVINA, Nov. 9.—The coming orange crop in this valley will fall 40 per cent. short of last year. A careful inspection of the orchards shows the navel trees are lighter loaded, but the fruit will be large sizes. The Valencia crop will probably be 60 per cent. short of last year, some orchards being a total failure.

R. C. Pollard has purchased of P. W. DeLancy a ten-acre orange grove on the corner of Badillo street and Azusa avenue, for $10,500. Pollard traded a store building on Citrus avenue and a six-room modern residence on West Badillo street in part payment.

FINAL TOUCHES FOR PIER DAY.

LONG BEACH PREPARED FOR GREAT CELEBRATION.

Yacht Races, Illuminated Night Marine Parade and Sham Battle, Football Game and Other Attractions—Miss Ella Wilson is Chosen "Queen of the Sea."

LONG BEACH, Nov. 9.—Only minor details remain to be disposed of by the Executive Committee to make Pier Day an immense success.

The pit for barbecuing the 10,000 pounds of beef has been dug and Thursday the fires will be lighted under the supervision of Frank Lawton, selected as chef.

The parade committee has secured the attendance of the Uniform Rank, K. of P., as escort for the Governor and other guests and also the presence in the parade of the Grand Army posts of Los Angeles and the Veteran Fife and Drum Corps, the Columbia Marching Club, the Americus Club and band, the Iroquois and Teddy's Terrors, all of whom will be the guests of the Continentals of Long Beach.

The invited guests of the city and the newspaper men will be entertained at Shaffer & Park's Café on Ocean avenue. Headquarters for the press will be at the Townsend Robinson Investment Company, Pine and First streets. Among other plans for the Governor and party is an automobile ride to the summit of Signal Hill during the afternoon. In the evening the Cosmopolitan Club will banquet Gov. Pardee, Senator Perkins, Congressman McLachlan and ex-Speaker D. B. Henderson. At the same time the women of the party will be entertained at Hotel Julian by the Ebell.

The feature of the afternoon will be the yacht and launch races. The judges will be Hugh W. Vail, Thomas J. Hampton and Byron Erckenbrecher. Timers, A. W. Cleaver and Dr. W. A. Smith. Starter, H. E. Carse.

The yacht races will be for classes B and C, and the course a triangle, one mile to leg, twice around, first leg wind beam.

The power launches, for which eight cash prizes are offered go over a triangle course, one mile to leg, three times around first leg to windward.

After the yacht races there will be dancing on the pavilion and a concert in the city park by the Catalina Band, while at Eagle Park, just outside the city limits, will be played the championship football game between the Sherman Indians and the University of Southern California.

The parade will form at 8 p.m., with forty boats in line. The preparatory and starting signals will be bombshell rockets from the end of the wharf. At the starting signal all the boats will burn colored fire simultaneously, and getting under way following the flagship will perform several evolutions and finally on signal will form in two lines of battle and begin firing, accompanied by showers of rockets from the end of the pier.

Workmen are busy preparing tables and decorating the wharf and pavilion for Saturday's celebration. The temporary arch at the end of the pier is a novelty, being built of old piling, in rustic art and festooned with ropes set in true sailor rigging. Final arrangements will be completed Thursday evening.

The voting contest for "Queen of the Sea" ended at 9 o'clock last night, after a few last exciting moments of balloting. Miss Ella Wilson, daughter of W. Penn Wilson, an old and respected resident of the city will be the Queen, winning with 4612 votes. She was backed by the Fraternal Brotherhood. Miss Vida Berry received 3965, Miss Minnie Driesbach, 587; Mrs. J. M. Holden, 433; Miss Camilla Helvie, 358. The Queen-elect will select her own attendance probably tomorrow.

A seventy-five-foot banner on top of the pavilion on Saturday will bear in seven-foot letters the greeting of "Welcome" to the visitors.

DISAPPOINTING VOTE.

The vote in Long Beach was a great disappointment. Out of a registration of 2413 in Long Beach township but 1597 votes were cast—about 67 per cent. An analysis shows that had the Democrats polled their strength Bailey would have gone out of Long Beach with 900 or 700 majority, but as a fact they turned out less than 45 per cent. and made no effort to round up the stragglers. As it was Peter J. Wilson received a severe rebuke, carrying only one precinct in the township, Cerritos. The figures show conclusively that Long Beach is overwhelmingly Republican and equally strong in the upholding of law and order as viewed from a temperance standpoint. Several Prohibition ballots were voted for Wilson and one in Cerritos also voted for license. Both Cerritos and Alamitos precincts outside the city, voted "no license," the former by a vote of 27 to 25, and Alamitos by a vote of 156 to 45.

HERE AND THERE.

Hon. C. J. Walker, who was yesterday elected Presidential elector in the Seventh District also incidentally celebrated his birthday, and his wife had a little party of friends at the house to celebrate both the Republican victory and Mr. Walker's birthday. Light refreshments were served during the evening with more substantial viands as the morning hours approached.

In turning the starting crank he pushed it the wrong way and the first explosion threw it around with great force, striking him on the wrist, dislocating it and splintering one of the bones of the forearm.

IMPROVEMENT SENTIMENT.

REDONDO, Nov. 9.—The sentiment here in favor of bonding the city for sewer and city-hall purposes is increasing every day, and the subject will probably be taken up at the next meeting of the Board of Trustees. These important improvements have lain dormant here for some time until now, owing to the rapid progress of the town, they are an absolute necessity. It is a foregone conclusion that one of the locations lately offered for a city hall will be purchased.

A sea butterfly (Exonectus volitans) another form of marine life, which has never before been seen here, was captured yesterday by Capt. K. S. Walker of the launch Cushman, and brought in to the aquarium. It is about four inches in length, with variegated wings of black and yellow, and is a prototype of many of the land butterflies, but of an enlarged edition. Not being accustomed to its habits it was placed in a tank and before a covering could be secured it flew out and was so injured that it died. It is now preserved in formaline as one of the marine rarities.

J. E. Munster of Chicago is in charge of the wireless telegraph station here during the visit of G. F. Krenke, the regular operator, to his former home in Michigan.

SAN DIMAS.

A "FAST" EATER.

SAN DIMAS, Nov. 9.—Considerable amusement was caused here today by an account in a Los Angeles paper of an alleged fast by Benjamin L. De Gries. He is well-known here, having until three months ago been pastor of the Advent Christian Church of Lordsburg. Owing to friction he resigned from the pastorate, and also from the membership of the Advent Church. He believes he has catarrh of the stomach. DeGries has been very anxious to get free advertising, and over a week ago begged the Times correspondent to write him up, offering a photo of himself with his shirt off so the public might see, as he said, "the front of his back."

Rev. B. L. De Gries is said to expect to continue his alleged fast thirty-five days. He could as easily continue it indefinitely.

On the nineteenth day of his alleged fast he was in the San Dimas Cooperative store and Frank J. Johnstone, the manager, states he was eating apples, grapes and crackers to such an extent that he was on the point of asking him to make a purchase when he transferred his sphere of labors to the Lacey Hotel, where his "fast" was continued.
